COLUMBUS GOT CAUGHT.

Slid Down Chimney, But Had To Be Pulled Out.

Hampton, Aug. 24.—Last night at 11.30 o'clock Columbus Wright, a negro about twenty-five years old, was discovered in the chimney of the Charleston and Western Carolina Railway depot, supposedly in an attempted robbery. Columbus had climbed up the semaphore post, got off on the roof of the depot and slid down the chimney, but upon his landing at the bottom, greatly to his consternation, he found that the fireplace had been cemented up, and owing to the narrowness of the chimney flue, he was unable to crawl back out of his self-imposed prison. His cries attracted the attention of Mr. Walter Owens, a night electrician, who was passing by, and upon investigation Columbus was discovered. Chief of Police Stanley was then notified of the negro's predicament, and he secured a hemp rope from a near-by garage and let the rope down the chimney to the imprisoned negro. After considerable expenditure of muscle on the part of the chief and several assistants the negro was finally hauled out, more dead than alive, and carried to jail.

Columbus had received his usual quart a month on yesterday, and noticing several more quarts in the office, had probably decided to quench his thirst regardless of the quart-a-month act. He, therefore, proceeded to slip down the chimney, with the evident intention of coming out through the fireplace into the office, and then, after securing what he wanted, escaping through the warehouse door. He had not counted on the fact that recently the railway company had decided to do away with fireplaces and use stoves with piping, and had, therefore, cemented up the fireplaces. He had probably used this method with success on other occasions, and had visions of one more glorious celebration before national prohibition goes into effect.

Sworn in as Administrator.

Columbia, Aug. 25.—David R. Coker, of Hartsville, chairman of the State defense council, has been named by Herbert Hoover, national food administrator, as food administrator for South Carolina. Mr. Coker has accepted the place and has taken the oath of office. The appointment of Mr. Coker was announced in a telegram from Washington. Mr. Coker is now on a short business trip to Boston and will return to South Carolina September 1, to assume his new work. He will continue to act as chairman of the State council of defense.

Reparation for Belgium.

We all talk glibly of reparation for Belgium. The damage Belgium has suffered in property because its government refused to be bullied has been two billion dollars. A large part of it has been stolen in the name of "indemnity." Belgium should get every penny of it back.—Syracuse Post-Standard.

A Song for Champ.

Champ Clark says this country needs a new national hymn, so here goes:

When Kaiser Bill he came to town,
He always kicked our dog around;
Makes no difference if he is a houn,
He's gotta quit kickin' that dawg around.—Boston Transcript.

French Deliver Blow.

Paris, Aug. 26.—Another smashing blow by the French today on the right bank of the Meuse in the Verdun sector, netted a gain of about two-thirds of a mile on a front of two miles and a half, giving the French possession of the Fosses and Beaumont woods and bringing them to the outskirts of the village of Beaumont. The official statement from the war office tonight also records artillery fighting of great violence around Hill 304, on the left bank of the Meuse.

PERHAPS HE MAY ABSCOND

"Abscond" is a gentle word. It's better than "Steal." Sounds nicer—doesn't it. And yet if your Executor absconds with the funds of your Estate you would call him a thief despite the polite name given to his crime. That's likely to happen where you name an individual Executor. It has happened hundreds of times in the past. But where you appoint us your Executor your Estate is ABSOLUTELY SAFE. There is no record of any Estate in this State that has ever lost a dollar by dishonesty where a Trust Company was the Executor. Not one.
