

RUSSIA IN MORE TROUBLE.

Gen. Korniloff Attempts to Assume Power and is Ordered to Resign.

Petrograd, Sept. 15.—General Korniloff, leader of the recent rebellion against the provisional government and General Lokomsky, the commander of the northern front, who refused to take command of the Russian armies after Korniloff was deposed, have been arrested.

Petrograd, Sept. 10.—Premier Kerensky has ordered Gen. Korniloff, commander-in-chief, to resign in consequence of Gen. Korniloff's demand for supreme power. Gen. Klembovsky has been appointed commander-in-chief.

Premier Kerensky has declared that a state of war exists in the town and district of Petrograd.

Concerning the details and developments of Korniloff's rebellion the ministers of the provisional government refuse to make public the details, but the Associated Press from fragmentary sources, has been able to collect the main facts.

At 1 o'clock Saturday afternoon after Premier Kerensky had inspected a deputation of Russian soldiers from the Balkans, Deputy Lvoff called him by telephone and demanded an interview, declaring his mission was of great importance.

Korniloff's Demands.

M. Kerensky at first refused to receive M. Lvoff, but later in the afternoon did receive him, whereupon Lvoff declared that he had come as Gen. Korniloff's plenipotentiary in order to demand the surrender of all power into Korniloff's hands. M. Lvoff said that this demand did not emanate from Korniloff only, but was supported by a "group of political workers," meaning an organization of Duma members, Moscow industrial interests and other Conservatives, which had played the role of opposition at the national conference at Moscow.

This group, said M. Lvoff, did not object to Kerensky personally, but demanded that he transfer the portfolio of war to M. Savinkoff, assistant minister of war, who all along had supported Korniloff's demands. M. Lvoff added:

"If you agree, we invite you to come to headquarters to meet Gen. Korniloff, giving you a solemn guarantee that you will not be arrested."

Kerensky Amazed.

Premier Kerensky replied that he was amazed and declared Korniloff's ultimatum an act of effrontery and treason so incredible that he was unable to believe his ears. Therefore he resolved first to communicate with Gen. Korniloff direct. In an exchange of telegrams Gen. Korniloff confirmed fully his demands.

M. Kerensky then told Lvoff the provisional government would not consent to such demands and would take every possible step to crush Korniloff's criminal conspiracy. Lvoff then was placed under arrest and subjected to a severe examination, during which he gave the details of the conspiracy and the names of the prominent men involved.

Plans to Crush Revolt.

The Cabinet late in the evening held a session to consider plans to crush the revolt, which measures have so far been kept secret with the exception of the announcement of the proposed creation of a directory or other system of concentrated government capable of acting swiftly and decisively. For this board Premier Kerensky proposed six names. In the meantime, the ministers declared they would retain office, M. Piescheonoff, the minister of supplies, provisionally withdrawing his resignation.

BIGGEST TOBACCO SEASON.

Production Increased More Than 12 and a Half Million Pounds.

Columbia, Sept. 14.—An increase of 12,600,905 pounds of tobacco for 1917 over 1916 is shown in the tobacco report for the season compiled today by Col. E. J. Watson, State Commissioner of Agriculture, Commerce and Industries. The crop brought $4,824,396.96 more than last season, he says. There were 31,584,975 pounds grown at an average price of 23.61 cents, making a net total to the farmers of the State of $7,523,941.64. The department received reports from twenty-three markets, containing fifty-three warehouses.

"Did the burglars upset your house much?"
"Terribly. When I entered and saw everything upside down my first thought was that Jim had come home unexpectedly and changed clothes."

Moving Pictures.

"I helped with moving pictures 20 years ago."
"Why, moving pictures weren't in existence then."
"Yes, but moving pictures was. I was a drayman."

PUTS PRICE ON AMERICANS.

German Soldiers to Get Reward for Them, Iron Cross and Gold.

British Headquarters in France and Belgium, Sept. 15.—German military authorities on the western front have shown concern about the imminence of the American army's entry into the fighting by offering rewards for the production of the first American prisoners. The general commanding the Eleventh reserve division recently put the price of 400 marks on the first American soldier brought, dead or alive, into his lines.

This information has been disclosed by the diary of a Prussian sergeant of the Twenty-third reserve infantry regiment. He wrote at the end of July:

"We are supposed to have had American troops opposite us for some time now, and two divisions of Portuguese on our right. The man who brings in the first American, dead or alive, to headquarters has been promised the Iron Cross of the first class, 400 marks and fourteen days' leave."

SONS FIND MOTHER WOUNDED.

Mrs Estelle Baker Discovered Unconscious Shot and Badly Beaten

Camden, Sept. 14.—Mrs. Estelle Baker, wife of Andrew Baker, residing seven miles east of Camden, was found in an unconscious condition near her home today. A gunshot wound in the hand and many blows inflicted on her head with a blunt instrument caused the injuries. Signs of finger prints upon her throat indicated that she had been strangled, the would-be-murderer evidently leaving her for dead. Mrs. Baker was alone at the time gathering grapes, and tracks around showed that she had staggered a considerable distance.

The shooting is supposed to have occurred about 9 o'clock this morning and she was found four hours later by her sons. She was brought to the hospital here and has been in an unconscious condition since. Physicians hold out no hope for her recovery. Sheriff Hough and deputies have been working on the case all day, but no arrests have been made yet.

DR. WM. P. JACOBS EXPIRES.

Death Closes Career of One of South Carolina's Beloved Ministers.

Clinton, Sept. 10.—After a long life, full of good works, the Rev. William Plumer Jacobs, D. D., "Father of Clinton," is dead. He died suddenly this morning shortly after 6 o'clock at the age of 75. His end was a shock to the community, for he had not been ill, calm and sweet and peaceful, as his life had been, and it did not come before he was ready for it. He lived Christ—preached Christ—and today went home to Him.

Yesterday he preached twice at his church, the Thornwell Memorial, and had not complained of being ill. Early this morning he called the young lady in the adjoining room and complained of a severe headache. The family physician was summoned at once and upon his arrival found him in an unconscious condition. He lived only a few moments. The members of the family were immediately notified and were expected today and tomorrow.

The funeral will take place here at 11 o'clock Wednesday morning, and will be conducted by Dr. D. M. Douglas, president of the Presbyterian College, assisted by the pastors of the city.

NEIGHBORS ALL

REJOICE WITH FORTUNATE GA. WOMAN.

Popular Rural Resident Received Congratulations From Her Neighbors.

"My neighbors are all wondering how it could be possible," writes Mrs. May Coltrane, of Blackwells, Ga., Route 1.

"They have seen my suffering for several years, and knew how desperate my case was, and now they see me so much improved they hardly know me. I had Stomach and Blood Trouble and Neuralgia of the Heart, and I did suffer terribly. I tried so many things but could get no better. Then I heard of Sulferro-Sol and got that and in a few days I commenced to gain wonderfully. I am almost well now and feel that I am going to be in better health than ever before. I would like to tell every woman of this great Nature remedy, and the wonderful power it has to drive out disease and build up the whole system."

Sulferro-Sol is sold and recommended by all druggists in Bamberg and vicinity. Murray Drug Co., wholesale distributors.—adv.

BILLIONS OF GERMS

Bamberg People Should Learn How To Combat Them

You can fight off the billion of germs which you swallow.
How about the uric acid which your own system creates?

Can you conquer that, too?
Yes, if your kidneys work right.
But if they don't backache, dizziness or discolored urine
Soon warn you of graver peril.
You must live more simply—
That's what Bamberg has found.
Use Doan's Kidney Pills to strengthen your kidneys.

Easy to verify local testimony.
Read this case:
Mrs. A. D. Jordan, Bridge St., Bamberg, says: "I had pains in my back and dizzy spells at times. In the morning when I got up, I was sore and stiff. I was bothered by excess uric acid in my system and rheumatic pains. I used Doan's Kidney Pills with good results and don't hesitate to recommend them."
Price at all dealers. Don't simply ask for a kidney remedy—get Doan's Kidney Pills—the same that Mrs. Jordan had. Foster-Milburn Co., Props., Buffalo, N. Y.
