

RUSSIA TO KEEP FIGHTING

THINKS ALLIES SHOULD SHOULD-BEAR MAIN BURDEN.

Says Russia Needs Help.—Has Been In War 18 Months Longer Than England.

Petrograd, Nov. 1.—In view of reports reaching Petrograd that the impression was spreading abroad that Russia was virtually out of the war, Premier Kerensky discussed the present condition of the country frankly today with the Associated Press. He said Russia was worn out by the long strain, but that it was ridiculous to say the country was out of the war.

The premier referred to the years in which Russia had fought her own campaign alone, with no such assistance as has been extended to France by Great Britain and now by America. He said he felt help was urgently needed and that Russia asked it as her right. He urged that the United States Government help in the form of money and supplies and appealed to the world not to lose faith in the Russian Revolution.

Russia, M. Kerensky added, was taking an enormous part in the struggle, and those who said she was out of it must have short memories.

"Russia has fought consistently since the beginning. She saved France and England from disaster early in the war. She is now worn out by the strain and claims as her right that the Allies now shoulder the burden."

Asks for Statement.

Thus Premier Kerensky explained Russia's position to the correspondent. The premier was seated in the library of the former private office of the Emperor in the winter palace. The correspondent called attention to widely contradictory reports on Russian conditions and asked the premier for a frank statement of the facts.

"It has been said by travelers returning from England and elsewhere to America that opinion among the people, not officially, but generally, is that Russia is virtually out of the war," it was explained.

"Is Russia out of the war?" Premier Kerensky laughed.

"That," he answered, "is a ridiculous question. Russia is taking an enormous part in the war. One has only to remember history. Russia began the war for the Allies. While she was already fighting England was only preparing and America was only observing."

Says Russia Bore Brunt.

"Russia at the beginning bore the whole brunt of the fighting, thereby saving Great Britain and France. People who say she is out of the war have short memories. We have fought since the beginning and they must now take the heaviest part of the burden on their shoulders."

"At present Russian public opinion is greatly agitated by the question: 'Where is the great British fleet now that the German fleet is out in the Baltic?'"

"Russia," the premier repeated, "is worn out. She has been fighting one and a half years longer than England."

"Could an American army be of use if sent to Russia?"

"It would be impossible to send one," said Kerensky, "the difficulties are too great."

"If America cannot send troops what would be the most useful way for her to help Russia?" was asked. Send Boots, Leather, Iron, Money.

"Have her to send boots, leather, iron and money," the premier added emphatically.

Premier Kerensky drew attention to the fact that Russia has fought her battles alone.

"Russia has fought alone—is fighting alone," Kerensky said. "France has had everything to help her from the start and now America has come in."

The premier was asked regarding the morale of the Russian people and the Russian army. He answered: "The masses are worn out economically. The disorganized state of life in general has had a psychological effect on the people. They doubt the possibility of the attainment of their hopes."

"What is the lesson to the democracies of the world of the Russian revolution?"

"This," Premier Kerensky replied, "is for them to find out. They must not lose faith in the Russian revolution, because it is not a political revolution, but an economic one and a revolution of facts. The Russian revolution is only seven months old. No one has the right to feel disillusioned about it. It will take years to develop."

"In France, which is only as large as three Russian departments (States), it took five years for their revolution to develop fully."

Russia's Future.

Asked what he expected from the constituent assembly, the premier said: "The constituent assembly begins

Each Order May Have Its Building Within Army Camp Site.

Washington, Oct. 30.—Secretary Baker today announced a policy to govern activity of fraternal organizations in army training camps.

Camp commanders will be directed to permit the construction of buildings within the camp sites by any fraternal organization individually or group of organizations acting together; facilities of the camp for social and fellowship meetings will be extended and accredited representatives from the various societies will be authorized to visit the camps and arrange for entertainment for the men either at the buildings thus erected or in nearby communities.

No New Order Permitted.

It was agreed, however, that no initiations or secret meetings of any kind are to be carried on within the camps; that existing well recognized societies only should be accorded the recognition, and that propaganda work among the soldiers in behalf of any new society be forbidden.

The regulations were the result of conferences held yesterday and today between Secretary Baker and representatives of the principal fraternal orders of the country.

A previous order by the War Department had permitted the Knights of Columbus, with the Young Men's Christian Association to carry on welfare work within the army training camps, but barring other secret orders. This resulted in representations from the other fraternal orders.

a new chapter in the history of the revolution. Its voice certainly will be the most important factor in the future of Russia."

"What future do you picture for Russia after the war?"

"No one can draw any real picture of the future," Kerensky said. "Naturally, a man who really loves his country will hope for good things—but that is only his viewpoint, which may or may not be accepted by others."

Premier Kerensky, pale and earnest, sat at the end of a carved table and emphasized the points of his statements by tapping the table with his fingers. He wore a brown, undecorated uniform buttoned closely. He appeared to be fatigued from his many trips to the front and his constant audiences.

50,000 VOICES

And Many Are the Voices of Bamberg People.

Fifty thousand voices — What a grand chorus! And that's the number of American men and women, who are publicly praising Doan's Kidney Pills for relief from backache, kidney and bladder ills. They say it to friends. They tell it in the home papers. Bamberg people are in the chorus.

Here's a Bamberg case:

Thos. H. White, Main St., says: "I suffered from weak kidneys for several years and my back sometimes pained me. I had a too frequent desire to pass the kidney secretions and had to get up often during the night. Since I used Doan's Kidney Pills, I have been all right. I seldom have to get up at night and my kidneys are strong."

MORE THAN SEVEN YEARS LATER Mr. White said: "I still hold a high opinion of Doan's Kidney Pills. I haven't needed a kidney medicine for a long time but if I ever have to take one again, I shall use Doan's, for I know they have no equal."

Price 60c, at all dealers. Don't simply ask for a kidney remedy—get Doan's Kidney Pills—the same that Mr. White had. Foster-Milburn Co., Mfrs., Buffalo, N. Y.

And Was Run-Down, Weak and Nervous, Says Florida Lady. Five Bottles of Cardui Made Her Well.

Kathleen, Fla.—Mrs. Dallas Prine, of this place, says: "After the birth of my last child... I got very much run-down and weakened, so much that I could hardly do anything at all. I was so awfully nervous that I could scarcely endure the least noise. My condition was getting worse all the time... I knew I must have some relief or I would soon be in the bed and in a serious condition for I felt so badly and was so nervous and weak I could hardly live. My husband asked Dr. — about my taking Cardui. He said, 'It's a good medicine, and good for that trouble', so he got me 5 bottles. After about the second bottle I felt greatly improved... before taking it my limbs and hands and arms would go to sleep. After taking it, however, this poor circulation disappeared. My strength came back to me and I was soon on the road to health. After the use of about 5 bottles, I could do all my house-work and attend to my six children besides."

You can feel safe in giving Cardui a thorough trial for your troubles. It contains no harmful or habit-forming drugs, but is composed of mild, vegetable, medicinal ingredients with no bad after-effects. Thousands of women have voluntarily written, telling of the good Cardui has done them. It should help you, too. Try it. E 74

"IT'S SUPERIOR TO ANY LIVER MEDICINE SOLD"

In Common Gratitude Col. W. A. Terrell Expresses His Approval of Martin's Liver Medicine—No One Will Again Take Calomel After Once Trying It.

The following unsolicited letter was recently received by the manufacturers of Martin's Liver Medicine:

In the absence of any other reason, common gratitude calls for an expression from me of the wonderful merits of your health-giving Liver Medicine. With a large experience in trying and using various Liver Medicines, I have never found any remedy that so completely "hits the spot" and tones up the dilapidated feeling and makes a fellow feel that life is worth living. Martin's Liver Medicine relieves gently but effectively constipation, starts the liver on its active function, creates a healthy and normal appetite, and at night sleep is sweet and restful. I have used three bottles of this splendid remedy and am prepared to say it does all and more than you claim for it.
