Tomato Club Exhibit.

The Bamberg county demonstration and domestic science clubs gave a fine exhibit of their work here at the court house Saturday, and the affair was a success from all standpoints. The ladies deserve much credit for what they are doing and the results of their efforts were splendid as displayed at the court house. The decorations were tastefully arranged and displayed tact and patriotism, the national colors being used throughout. There were dozens of booths altogether, and the various exhibits included canned fruits and vegetables of all kinds, preserved fruits, pickles, jellies, all sorts of canned goods, grape juice of several different flavors, and catsups.

In the bread booth there were breads made with wheat substitutes, peanut biscuit, whole wheat bread, soy bean muffins, loaves and rolls made from home raised flour. The whole thing was entirely domestic, and everything exhibited was home made and home raised. It proved beyond a doubt that we can live, and live like lords and kings, at home.

The success of the affair is due largely to the following named ladies: Mrs. J. S. J. Faust, Mrs. J. R. Owens, Mrs. John H. Cope, Mrs. J. J. Cleckley, Mrs. H. N. Folk, Mrs. D. Dowling, Mrs. B. D. Carter, Mrs. B. W. Simmons, Mrs. J. F. Carter,
