BLEASE BELIES GOV.'S SONS.

Record of Six Soldiers Who Have Been Villified.

As taken from the Charleston American, which was twice excluded from the mails because of disloyal utterances, Cole L. Blease said in his Branwood speech:

"The governor brags that he has five sons in the army. It is so. Yet all of them are strutting about in pretty uniforms and holding commissions and are in no more danger of meeting bullets than this electric light under which I stand."

That the public may know the truth of the matter the following information as to the standing and whereabouts of Governor Manning's sons is published:

W. S. Manning is 23 years old. He enlisted as a private when the call was made for soldiers to go to the border. He went to the border, served as private until the troops were ordered home.

Upon the declaration of war with Germany he again enlisted as a private. Subsequently he went to a training camp and won a captain's commission. He is now in active service on the front in France.

Vivian Manning is 32 years old. He was a successful business man in Greenville. He closed up his business and volunteered as a private. He is still a private and is at Camp Taylor, Louisville, Kentucky.

Bernard Manning is 29 years old. He enlisted as a private, and subsequently went through the training school at Oglethorpe where he won a captain's commission. If he is not now on the seas or in France it will not be long before he will be on the western front in active service.

Wyndham M. Manning is 28 years old. He graduated from West Point in 1913. He served in Alaska, and went to the border as captain of a company of cavalry raised in Charleston. When he returned from the border he was assigned as an instructor at Oglethorpe and has been promoted to be major. He too if not on his way to the western front will not be long in going.

Burwell Deas Manning is 19 years old. He was at the University of Virginia when war was declared. He enlisted as a private. He is now a corporal and is in France.

John Adger Manning is 18 years old. He too was at school but volunteered as a private and is now a sergeant at Camp Jackson. So soon as command is ordered to France he will go, and whether or not he has already gone is only for the authorities to know or say.

Britain Destroyer Tanks.

In a naval sense, the usual tanks or landships, whether they be British, French or German, have heretofore been of the battleship type, that is to say, they have been slow moving heavily armored and powerfully armed craft, meant rather to stand up and fight to a finish than to dash out of a combat and to depend on quickness of movement as the main weapon. But in breaking up and pursuing bands of infantrymen in the open there has been a distinct call for a destroyer type of tank—one that could travel at a comparatively high rate of speed and that possessed a higher order of mobility in general.

To the British, the originators of the tank idea, has remained the further honor of developing a tank of the fast, destroyer type. This type, known as whippet, has already made its appearance on the battlefields in recent open fighting, and its debut has been crowned with success. The whippet has caterpillar treads of the usual design, arranged on either side of a sort of flat car is mounted a single turret which houses the crew and the several machine guns with which the whippet is armed. The flat car body measures eighteen feet in length, while the turret is six feet in height. The engine is placed at the rear of the gun turret in a separate armored housing.

It appears that the whippet tank can readily make twelve miles an hour, and a fully equipped Teuton infantryman can hardly hope to maintain that speed for a prolonged period.

In These Days of War.

"And this," said the teacher, "is the rhinoceros. Look carefully at his armored hide."

"I see," said the bad boy of the class. "An' wot's this one?"

"That," answered the teacher, "is a giraffe."

"Gee! He's got a periscope!"—Exchange.

COMING TO BAMBERG

The Associated Doctors

SPECIALISTS Will Be At
MAYFLOWER INN SATURDAY,
AUGUST 10th
FOR ONE DAY ONLY.
Wonderful Results—Marvelous Demonstration in Chronic Disease Cases by Their New System Treatment.
OFFER SERVICE FREE OF CHARGE.

Word has just been received that the Associated Doctors, specialists, licensed by the State of South Carolina, and who have met with such phenomenal success throughout the entire southeast, will be in Bamberg on Saturday, August 10th, for one day only to demonstrate their new system of treatment of chronic disease cases.

This will indeed be good news to those who find it inconvenient to visit the central laboratories in Birmingham, located at Suite 311-12 Lyric Theatre Building, where the organization has Southern headquarters. These regular, reputable physicians believe that the combined skill of several trained specialists in chronic diseases can accomplish more than one doctor alone—in other words, in unity there is strength.

The offer to treat all who call on this visit absolutely free, is their original method of getting their system of treatment before the public quicker, and no one, rich or poor, white or colored, should neglect to take advantage of their very liberal offer—ABSOLUTELY FREE (medicine excepted.) No cutting—No knife.

It makes no difference how many doctors you have consulted or how many patent medicines you have taken, you can not afford to miss this opportunity of ascertaining your exact condition and be honestly advised. No one should require further evidence of the skill of these specialists, than the following letter recently received from a well known Baptist minister:

"I can't thank you enough, Doctor," said the Rev. R. L. Fletcher, well-known minister, as he entered the crowded reception rooms of the Associated Doctors, and continued to speak words of praise to all those assembled. "I began suffering from general break-down November 28th, last, and appeared to go all to pieces; my stomach, kidneys, heart, blood and nerves went back on me, and even though I consulted the best local doctors, they finally had to advise me that they could give me no cure, and for me to consult an expert specialist. As soon as I noticed your announcement and learned from so many people of your cures, I came to your office.

"I had indeed about lost hope, but today—even after taking your marvelous treatment for only this short period, I am a new man; eat well, sleep well and feel like a man in my prime. I want to thank you, and my dear wife also wants to thank you, for she is so proud of my improvement. I wish you to publish this statement so that others can benefit the same as I have.

"Most gratefully yours,

(Signed) "R. L. FLETCHER."

Now that you know the truth you have only yourself to blame if you continue to suffer from Piles, Kidney and Bladder Troubles, Discharges, Bed wetting, Blood Poison, Skin Eruptions, Rheumatism, Epilepsy, Uric Acid Poisoning, Paralysis, Nervous Troubles and Debility, Neuralgia, Stomach and Liver Troubles, Catarrh, Asthma, Bronchitis, Pleurisy, Tumors, Indigestion, Constipation, Gall Stones, Ovarian and Female Troubles, Enlarged glands or any reflex condition of the nervous system, and those diseases about which most people dislike to consult the general practitioner.

Bear in mind that this will likely be the last visit when the specialists extend their services FREE.

Hundreds have been restored to their perfect good health, with rosy cheeks and sparkling eyes—so may you. The specialists are too well known throughout the State to require further mention.

Married women should be accompanied by their husbands and children by their parents.
