

PEANUT CLUB FOR BOYS.

Efforts Being Made to Establish Commercial Crop.

Clemson College, Feb. 17.—"The boy is naturally an investigator and likes to discover new things," says B. O. Williams, assistant boys' club agent, who with this idea in mind is organizing peanut clubs, which will do much to help establish this new commercial crop and proper methods of growing it in South Carolina. The boll weevil spells diversification and diversification means peanuts as one of the state's main cash crops in the future. Hence peanut clubs to teach practical profitable peanut growing to our future farmers.

The plan, as in corn club work, is to have the club boys' father offer him as good land as is available, let him work under club regulations to learn peanuts from A to Z for himself and incidentally for his father, who probably would not take time or trouble to do so for himself.

Murder!

Dentist—"What's your business?" Victim—"I'm a humorous artist." Dentist—"Well, I'll try and live up to your idea of my profession!"—London Tit-Bits.

A Careful Giver.

Patience—"You're engaged to Fred, aren't you?"

Patrice—"Yes, but I'm not happy." "What's wrong?"

"I'm afraid he's selfish."

"Why so?"

"He asked me for my hand, and I gave it to him."

"Of course."

"Well, it wasn't until I had given my hand to him that he put a diamond ring on my finger."

"Of course not. But how does that show selfishness?"

"Why, it was his hand wasn't it?"—Yonkers Statesman.

The Sign Language.

Phum Johnson was up before Judge Shimmerplate on a cruelty to animals charge.

"Deed Ah wasn't abusing dat mule, judge," the old man demurred.

"Did you not strike it repeatedly with a club?"

"Yassah."

"And do you not know that you can accomplish more with animals by speaking to them?"

"Yessah; but this critter am different. He am so deaf he can't hear me when Ah speaks to him in de usual way, so Ah has to communicate wid him in de sign language."—Charleston Mail.

The Holy Terror.

Lady—They say Father Hooley advanced to the attack with a prayer-book in one hand and a bomb in the other.

Returned Soldier—They're always tharin' t' belittle a good man, mum.

Lady—Why, wasn't it true?

Soldier—No lady; he had bombs in both hands.—Life.

Taking Stock of Him.

The Suitor—"I hope, sir, that you will consider me in the nature of an investment, even if I may not pay regular dividends."

The Girl's Father—"My dear boy, don't talk of dividends. I shall be glad if you don't levy regular assessments on me."—Life.

He Knew.

Teacher—"Don't you know that punctuation means that you must pause?"

Willie—"Of course I do. An auto driver punctuated his tire in front of our house Sunday and he paused for half an hour."—Boston Transcript.

In For Keeps.

It was in Paris. The talkative guide was exhibiting to the interested American tourist the tomb of Napoleon with all the customary flourishes of both languages and hands.

"This immense sarcophagus," declaimed the guide, "weighs forty tons. Inside of that sir, is a steel receptacle weighing twelve tons, and inside of that is a leaden casket, hermetically sealed, weighing over two tons. Inside of that rests a mahogany coffin, containing the remains of a very great man."

For a moment the American was silent, as if in deep meditation. Then he said:

"It seems to me that you've got him all right. If he ever gets out, cable me at my expense."—London Tit-Bits.

Some Town.

"You advertise this as the best hotel in town," said the man who had stayed overnight.

"It certainly is," replied the cook.

"Well, that may be a good boost for the hotel, but it's a terrible knock for the town."—Boston Transcript.

The Native Tongue.

Sir—While I waited for a box of sweets to be wrapped.

First Candy Damsel—"What are those cute little red flowers—you know, those kind that hangs down like earrings?"

Second C. D.—"Oh, that's wandering jew, but I don't know what you call it in English."—Mrs. Sib in the Chicago Tribune.

Optimistic Thought.

One certain way of beating the game is to raise something beside prices and Cain.—Dallas Journal.

The Quinine That Does Not Affect the Head

Because of its tonic and laxative effect, LAXATIVE BROMO QUININE is better than ordinary Quinine and does not cause nervousness nor ringing in head. Remember the full name and look for the signature of E. W. GROVE. 30c.

TWICE PROVEN

If you suffer backache, sleepless nights, tired, dull days and distressing urinary disorders, don't experiment. Read this twice-told testimony. It's Bamberg's evidence—doubly proven.

James A. Mitchell, R. F. D. mail carrier, Calhoun St., Bamberg, says: "I have taken two boxes of Doan's Kidney Pills and am glad to give my public endorsement for the benefit I received. The jar and jolt of driving is no doubt, responsible for the weakness and pains I suffered with my back. Doan's Kidney Pills brought me relief in a short while and I never lose a chance to say a good word for them."

The above statement was given by Mr. Mitchell on May 29, 1914, and on January 22, 1918, he said: "I always have a good word for Doan's Kidney Pills, because they cured me of disordered condition of my kidneys and the cure has remained permanent. All I have formerly said in praise of this remedy I gladly confirm. Doan's Kidney Pills are certainly a fine medicine."

Price 60c, at all dealers. Don't simply ask for a kidney remedy—get Doan's Kidney Pills—the same that Mr. Mitchell had. Foster-Mittum Co., Mfgs., Buffalo, N. Y.

GROVE'S TASTELESS Chill TONIC is not a patent medicine, it is simply IRON and QUININE suspended in Syrup. So pleasant even children like it. The blood needs Quinine to Purify it and IRON to Enrich it. These reliable tonic properties never fail to drive out impurities in the blood.

The Strength-Creating Power of GROVE'S TASTELESS Chill TONIC has made it the favorite tonic in thousands of homes. Mrs. Mary J. Irvin, of Cullen, Va., writes: "About 11 years ago, I suffered untold misery with female trouble, bearing-down pains, headache, numbness . . . After taking about two bottles I began going around and when I took three bottles I could do all my work." E-80
