Laboring Under a Handicap.

"This author says he has tramped about the country, beaten his way on freight trains, and been thrown into jails to get material for his stories."
 "That's the way to study life at first hand."
 "Quite so. But he wants to lay the scene of his next story in a fashionable hotel. He says he is too old to be a bell-hop and too poor to be a guest."—Birmingham Age-Herald.

The Modern Family Doctor.

"Who is your family doctor?"
 "I can't tell you."
 "Why not? Don't you know his name?"
 "Yes. Dr. Johnson used to be our family doctor, but nowadays, mother goes to an eye specialist; father to a stomach specialist; sister goes to a throat specialist; my brother is in the care of a lung specialist, and I'm taking treatment from an osteopath."—Detroit Free Press.

Hobbled.

Mrs. Nextdoor—How do you manage to keep your cook so long? You've had her two weeks.
 Mrs. Skeemer—I gave her some of those stylish narrow skirts to wear in the kitchen and she won't be able to walk a block from the house till they're worn out.—Dallas News.

His Idea.

The girl had been sent down to the brook to fetch a pail of water, but stood gazing at the flowing stream, apparently lost in thought.
 "What's she waiting for?" said her mistress, who was watching.
 "Dunno," wearily replied hubby.
 "P'raps she hasn't seen a pailful she likes yet."—London Tit-Bits.

HELD ON SERIOUS CHARGE.

Mill Employee Held by United States Commission.

Aiken, Feb. 26.—Otis Ruffin, a weaver employed in the Seminole Mills at Clearwater, was taken before United States Commissioner Thomas Morgan yesterday morning charged with white slavery. Ruffin, it appeared from the evidence in the case, is charged with taking a white girl, aged sixteen years, from her home in Columbus, Ga., to Birmingham, Ala., and thence to South Carolina for immoral purposes. He was arrested on the strength of a certified copy of the charge of white slavery which was issued in Columbus. Ruffin now claims that he is married to the girl and that the trip was simply a runaway marriage match.
 Commissioner Morgan held him, however, for the United States Court, which will convene next May in Columbus, Ga.
 "What's the problem?"
 "A perplexing one. Mrs Skiddo claims she got six bad eggs in the last lot."
 "Well?"
 "She wants me to make 'em good."
