Hughes-White.

Tuesday evening at eight o'clock Harry L. White was quietly married at the home of the bride's mother to Miss Ruth Hughes, the Rev. Geo. P. White officiating. Only the immediate members of the families were present.

Miss Hughes is the attractive daughter of Mrs. L. A. Hughes, of this city. Mr. White is the son of Rev. Geo. P. White, pastor of the Bamberg Baptist church. Mr. White was recently given his discharge from the navy, and since that time has resided in Bamberg. Both young people have a host of friends who extend to them their best wishes.

Miss Winnie Kearsse Honored.

On Wednesday afternoon, the 16th instant, a most delightful entertainment was given by Mesdames Geo. and Bernard Kearsse, at home of the latter, complimentary to Miss Winnie Davis Kearsse, who will wed Laurens Earle Bush, of Ellenton, S. C., on June 23rd.

Promptly at 5 o'clock the guests began arriving and very soon a great number of friends and relatives of the bride-elect had assembled. Cards and pencils were distributed and the party engaged in a contest, the dames describing the scene of proposal made by their better-half, while the maidens gave plans for securing life-partners. These were read, the first prize then presented to Mrs. Russell Bailey, of Ellenton, and the booby to Miss Emmie Lynes, of Olar.

Just after the contest a room representing the bride's garden was opened and a lovely picture given—the sweet little guest of honor was seated in the center surrounded by flowers of all colors with various shades of graceful draperies suspended from above. Little Helen Kearsse, in the form of a beautiful butterfly, presented the gifts found here and much time was taken in admiration of these handsome, miscellaneous tokens of esteem.

The busy hour was interrupted by the appearance of four little girls, Gwendolyn Jenny, Blanche Brabham, Hazel Ritter, and Gladys Kearsse, daintily gowned in white, carrying trays containing a rich salad course with refreshing iced-tea.

Before it was realized the time for departure came and the hostesses were assured that the afternoon had been exceedingly pleasant.
