Brief Items of Interest Throughout the Town and County.

The union meeting of this division of the Barnwell Baptist association was held last Sunday at Georges Creek Baptist church, near Olar.

E. L. Price, Jr., who has been with G. O. Simmons for several years past, has accepted a position as traveling representative of the Georgia Supply company, Savannah.

D. K. Sandifer, a farmer on Bamberg R. F. D. 3, Tuesday presented The Herald with three open bolls of cotton, the first of the season. The bolls are fine specimens and show no injury from the boll weevil.

The flour mill of the Farmers Gin company is being run regularly, and quite a quantity of delightful Bamberg county flour is being turned out. It appears that the acreage in wheat was considerably increased last winter.

Letters from Thomas Ducker are to the effect that Mrs. Ducker, who recently underwent a most serious operation in New York, is regaining her strength. Mrs. Ducker has written a short note herself to Bamberg relatives.

Work on boring the new artesian well for the commissioners of public works is progressing well. The well is about fifty feet in depth at present. This will be one of the largest wells in this section. It will be eight inches at the bottom.

The Johnston correspondent of the Augusta Chronicle says: "J. Y. Jackson, J. P. Hite and W. P. Cassells | Pearson, for the visitors, and the hitcarried tobacco to Bamberg and received from 50 cents to $3.50 per hundred." This was probably the first tobacco grown in the Johnston section.

The rain has ceased, apparently, In Bamberg there has been no downfall for ten days, and most of the planters say a shower would be a good thing. However, in some sections of the county there has been rain during this period, though the heavy and incessant rains seem to

CHECKER CHAMPION HERE.

Capt. Fishburne Beaten Two Games By H. G. Delk.

Local checker players were entertained last week by the southern checker champion, Capt. Frank B. Fishburne, of Columbia. Capt. Fishburne's old home is Bamberg, and every now and then he comes down and plays the "boys" a few games. To beat Capt. Fishburne is the ambition of every checker player in the south, and it is a feat that is rarely accomplished. Of course, in the long run, Capt. Fishburne "mops up" with any amateur player hereabouts, and they are all amateurs to Fishburne. However, once in a while an extra good amateur can wedge in a victory. H. G. Delk, one of the best amateur players in this section, is very proud of having attained two victories over the southern champion. Last Thursday, while Capt. Fishburne was in town shaking hands and renewing old acquaintances, Mr. Delk engaged him in a small tournament in Dukes's barber shop. About thirty games were played, and out of this number Mr. Delk won two games, while he succeeded in tying the champion five or six times.

Capt. Fishburne, it is said, plays a better game blindfolded than when he seets the board. He has nothing to distract his attention from the game when he does not use his eyes, and Mr. Delk is very proud of having defeated him one game blindfolded. The other game he won while Capt. Fishburne sat at the board.

Onlookers were highly entertained during a few games Capt. Fishburne played while he was being shaved. L. C. Price represented the champion at the board and moved according to Capt. Fishburne's instructions. Mr. Delk has the distinction of being the only local player to defeat the southern champion.

Mr. Delk went to Williston where he will engage L. S. Mellichamp, state champion, in a few checker games, the result of which will be given next week in The Herald.

----Being Nice to Him.

Pianist Rachmanioff told in his New York flat the other day a story about his boyhood.

"When I was a very little fellow," have passed for the time being.

Some folks say that Monday was the hottest day of the year to date. The thermometer in front of The Herald office registered 100 degrees about three o'clock in the afternoon, this being the first time this season it has reached this figure, although instruments in other sections of town have gone well beyond the century mark.

A little improvement has been noted in tobacco prices on the local market this week. Careful grading of tobacco appears to be very profitable. as one farmer was offered four cents for a lot of the weed, which was declined, and after grading the average was much higher, some of the lot bringing as much as ten cents a pound.

A list of road contracts was recently published in the State. Included in the list is the following paragraph of local interest: "J. K. Mayfield, of Bamberg, was awarded the contract for constructing approximately 20 miles of roadway in Orangeburg county. The road runs from Orangeburg to Bowman. The price was $65,000."

The farmers are now in the midst of what is known as "fodder pulling Geo. Wright Sustains Pistol Wound Only Seven Transactions Recorded time." Although the corn experts advise against pulling fodder, it is a practice that the planters do not give up, and the weather so far has been very favorable to a proper curing of this farm product, and the indications are that a large quantity of this forage crop will be stored.

Many fields of tobacco are seen in various sections of the county apparently abandoned. Some of these fields have not been touched and from the appearance of the weed there is no intention of even attempting to harvest the product. This is due, doubtless, to the prevailing prices, which are far below the cost of production of ordinary grades.

The government crop report was issued Monday, indicating a yield of 8,203,000 bales. This estimate vious estimate. The condition of cotton was given as 64.7, a deterioration of 4.3 points since the June report. Local planters say the condition is really far less than the report indicates. The report was made up as of July 25, whereas, they say, the greatest deterioration from rains has occurred since that date.

Mrs. Burch Entertains Club.

The members of the Apollo Music club spent a most enjoyable time last Wednesday afternoon at the home of Mrs. James Burch. The rooms were prettily decorated with mid-summer flowers. Business was first discussed. The sacred concert at the Methodist church was quite audience. The proceeds have been placed in bank to help start a fund for a library at the graded school. "American composers" was the subject of the afternoon, and the programme consisted of the following: Paper, "The real MacDowell," Mrs. C. F. Gilchrist; piano solo, a selection from MacDowell, Mrs. La-Verne Thomas; current events, Miss Stephens, Mrs. H. N. Folk. After the programme, choral work was practiced for some time, followed by a delicious salad course. Mrs. M. E. Ayer will be the next hostess to the club on Thursday afternoon, August 11, at 5 o'clock.

The Difficulties.

"How is the shooting in this region?" inquired a motorist who had halted his car in the big road.

"Only just tollable," replied Gap Johnson, of Rumpus Ridge, Arkansas. "Old Ding Slappitt and old Ranzy Rippey are still keepin' up their feud, but they've growed so rickety that nary one of 'em can hit a flock of barns. The revenue officers are middlin' active and the moonshiners are on the dodge, so the shootin' on both sides don't amount to much. The feller's that drink the infernal stuff are seein' double 'till they're as li'ble to shoot at the one that hain't there as the one that is. Kearse, the verdict being that the deceased had come to his death from a pistol shot wound inflicted by Singleton.

It was reported in Bamberg Monday that a negro woman was also shot during the pistol battle, but of this the officers had no information, and did not credit the report.

LIQUOR VIOLATION CHARGED.

Men Fined $50 Each in the Mayor's Court Monday Morning.

John Dodd and Tillman Gleaton were up before the mayor Monday morning on the charge of violation of the city liquor ordinance. Dodd was charged with storing liquor and Ethel Black; vocal solo, "In the Gleaton with transporting. After dawn of an Indian sky," by Ward hearing the evidence in the case, Mayor Thomas imposed a fine of $50.00 on each of the men, with the alternative of serving thirty days. Both men will also have to face similar charges in the circuit court at the next term. The city charges were the result of a raid by Sheriff Ray and Chief Moody Saturday. Gleaton, whose home is in the Neeces section of Orangeburg county, came to Bamberg Friday afternoon in a buggy to spend the night with Dodd, who is his brother-in-law. When the raid was made Saturday, Dodd told the officers to go ahead and search the house, which they did, finding two gallons of whiskey in a sack under the table. Gleaton was charged with having brought the goods with him. Mr. Dodd declared in Mayor's court that he knew nothing about the whiskey being in his house. He was surprised when the officers found it, and had no idea how it came in his home. He admitted having drunk some liquor Saturday, but said that he had bought some and that a quart had been given him, and that he had positively not drunk any of the liquor the officers found. Mr. Gleaton said he came over to meet his wife, who had been sick in Walterboro, and most positively had not brought any liquor with him; that he
