ESTABLISHED APRIL, 1891.

Published Weekly at Bamberg, S. C.

Entered as second-class matter April 1891, under Act of March 3, 1879.
$2.00 PER YEAR.

Volume 31. No. 5.

Thursday, February 2, 1922.

The weather for the past ten days has been all that the farmer could wish for. It is generally believed that the boll weevil cannot stand too much cold weather. The snow and ice gave the ground a thorough chill for a few days, and everybody is expecting a better crop year than last. Incidentally, the weather prophets are promising some more of the same kind of weather during this month.

The commissioners of public works are receiving many congratulations upon the success they have attained in securing a water supply for Bamberg. The commissioners have been troubled no little for some months past on account of the inadequate water supply here. The new well bids fair to supply the town plentifully for many years to come, and the well is so arranged that in the event the present flow diminishes to any great extent, the well can be deepened without removing the piping, and thus tap a new source at a greater depth.

The Herald would like to call attention to the advertisement of the county supervisor in this issue of The Herald regarding the practice of dragging plows in the roads. The practice is so widespread and general that the grand jury at its recent sitting recommended some strong action to abate the nuisance. The county is now engaged in spending enormous amounts of money to give the people of the county a system of good roads, and the planters should regard the efforts of the authorities to the extent certainly of cooperating to preserve the work. It is absolutely useless to build a road if the plow hands are allowed to turn their plows in the roadway, which not only drags sand into the road, but produce a surface most uncomfortable to travel over. The recommendation that the landowners arrange to cultivate two or three rows of crops parallel with the road is a most excellent one. This would allow the plow hands to turn their plows at the end of the rows without having to go into the road.

The Herald still has a few subscriptions to the Southern Agriculturist left, and as long as they last every subscriber to The Herald can get the farm paper a year free by paying a year's subscription to The Herald, provided they ask for it. We do not want to put the paper in any home where it will not be read. It is too good a paper for that. In this connection, we are also in position to send the New York Thrice-a-Week World to any subscriber who wishes it in connection with The Herald one year, for $2.75. Anyone taking advantage of this club offer may also receive the Southern Agriculturist one year free of charge by requesting it. In other words, send The Herald a check or money order for $2.75 and receive for one year each The Herald, the Thrice-a-Week World, and the Southern Agriculturist—but be sure to say you want the latter paper. The Thrice-a-Week World comes three times a week, and is an edition of the Daily World, considered by some hundreds of thousands of persons as the leading newspaper of the entire world. Herald readers can receive 156 copies of the World, 52 copies of The Herald, and 26 copies of the farm paper at an average price of slightly more than one cent per copy, and the club gives an ideal variety of reading matter for the home; world events, county news, and farm matter. This is an unbeatable offer.

Inside Information.

Mrs. Brown went shopping, and her husband on arriving home found himself locked out. He searched about hoping to find the key hidden somewhere, but failed to find it. He then borrowed the neighbor's keys. After trying several and getting to the end of his patience he found one that unlocked the door.

Inside, on the kitchen table he found a note from his wife: "Dear Bert: I've gone to town. You'll find your dinner ready and the key is under the mat outside."—Savannah News.

Very Probably True.

All this talk one hears coming out of Columbia about new sources of revenue to relieve the taxation on property is a smoke screen intended to deceive the unwary. The purpose behind the movement is to collect more money so that the departments and institutions of the state may have more to spend.—Fort Mill Times.

BLACKVILLE BUREAU

Death of J. W. Bock.

Blackville, January 31.—Friends and relatives of Joseph William Bock of Aiken will regret to learn of his death, which occurred at his home there Monday afternoon, after a short illness, having contracted a severe cold last Friday, from which pneumonia developed, resulting in his death. Mr. Bock was the only son of Mrs. Ella Rush Bock, who was originally from Barnwell county, but who has been living in Aiken with her son for many years. His father was the late Joseph William Bock, a jeweler and prominent citizen of Charleston for many years. The deceased was 55 years old and leaves a widow and one son, Karl, who died several years ago while at college. The funeral services will be held tomorrow at Aiken, and the body will be brought here for interment.

Body of Soldier Buried.

The body of Joseph N. Murray, who lost his life on Flanders field, was brought here for interment last Saturday morning. He was not a native of Barnwell county, and was somewhat of a stranger here, but had worked for Charley Mathis in South Carolina, Colorado and California. He was working here for Mr. Mathis and boarding at George Chitty's when he entered into the service. Mr. Chitty and his wife thought a great deal of the young man, who had no relatives, so he was buried in their family square in the Blackville cemetery. Owing to lack of information concerning the shipment of the body and the hour fixed for burial, there were not many at the burial, and he did not receive the visible tributes or respect generally accorded heroes of the world war who are sent home for interment.

Start Work on Highway.

The Mayfield Construction company started on grading on the highway near here yesterday morning. Forty-eight laborers and eight machines were busy "hitting the grit."

Hold-up Intercepted.

What might have been intended for a sure-enough hold-up, or a hoax to get cash, was interrupted here Saturday night. When Sam Izlar Buist, who clerks for Simon Brown's Sons, was returning home he was accosted by a stranger on a dark part of a street who asked him for five dollars. Mr. Buist said: "I haven't five dollars; the sight of that much would make me fall dead." The stranger then said: "Well, go back up town and get me some," which remark inspired Mr. Buist, who was fortunately armed, to reach quickly for his pistol, which caused the stranger to "burn the wind." The policemen were at once notified and all precautions were taken, but no suspicious characters were found loitering around.

Arm Broken in Two Places.

Friends of John Shipes, of Elko, will regret to learn that he fell last week, during the freeze, and broke his arm in two places.

A New Arrival.

Mr. and Mrs. Alonzo Bates, of Elko, are rejoicing over the possession of a fine son, who was born Monday, January 23d.

Personal Mention.

Miss Eva Wengrow, of Williston, spent the week-end with Miss Emma Bogan.

Mr. and Mrs. B. D. Beerwald, of Philadelphia, have returned home after a visit to Mr. and Mrs. Herman Brown.

Mr. and Mrs. D. Mayer, of Bloomsburg, Pa., have returned home after a visit to Mr. and Mrs. Herman Brown.

Miss Elma Chitty, of the Kearsse section, but who is now engaged in social work at Bath, was the guest of her aunt, Mrs. J. B. Keel, last week-end.

Quite a number of Blackville folks attended the B. Y. P. U. in Orangeburg last week.

Hocked the Ring.

The man and the bride were among the fifty or so men and brides awaiting their turn at the marriage bureau in the municipal building.

"I'm half a dollar short," said the man to the city official who receives the $2 fee. "What'll I do?"

"Sorry, I can't help you, buddy," was the answer, "but the law doesn't permit any rate cutting. You'll have to get the money somehow."

An hour later the man and the bride were back. They had the required $2.

"Where'd you get it?" inquired the city officer. "Borrow from friends?"

"Naw, said the man, "We didn't know nobody to borrow from, so we went out and hocked the wedding ring."

ASSESSMENT NOTICE.

For the convenience of those living in different sections of the county, the auditor or his deputy will be at the following places on the days and dates mentioned for the purpose of taking returns of real and personal property, and all taxpayers are urged to make a list of everything they are to return. On account of real estate being returned again for 1922, I would suggest that each taxpayer owning land find out just how many acres he has of tenable land, number of acres of wood land, and number of acres of swamp land. That will enable the board of assessors to get at the valuation more accurate, and the land owner will not have to pay as much for inferior land as he pays for lands that he is cultivating. In order that no mistake will be made try and make your own return.

Each taxpayer is requested to find out what township and school district he resides in.

All returns sent in by mail should be written with ink, and sworn to before some notary public.

All male persons between the ages of 21 and 60 (except Confederate veterans and sailors, who are exempt at 50) are liable to a poll tax of $1.00. All able-bodied male persons between the ages of 21 and 55 are liable to the commutation road tax of $4.00, except those living in an incorporated town.
