THEATRICALS AND DANCING.

Evangelist Billy Sunday Says What He Thinks About Them.

Evangelist Billy Sunday, who is holding a revival in Spartanburg, has spoken out concerning the theatre and dancing. In his characteristic style he gave his views on these matters in a recent sermon. Seven thousand persons heard the sermon, says a staff correspondent of the Greenville News, which continues:

The sermon, which might be termed more correctly a moral lecture, was profusely punctuated with applause, at one time culminating in a cry of "harrah for Billy."

Theatres, card playing and dancing came in for the greater part of Mr. Sunday's vigorous attack, the evangelist declaring that these three were a greater enemy of the church than the saloon ever was.

While Mr. Sunday was filled with vim, vigor and tabasco sauce, to make use of one of his own expressions, he concluded with an attack on dancing that was a masterful effort. He said in his opinion "dancing is simply hugging set to music," and he warned the women and girls who engage in dancing that they were helping to pull some young man down by their conduct as well as running a great risk themselves. He said that of the 700,000 fallen women in the United States today more than three-fourths stated that the dance was the beginning of their downfall, while there is no way of ascertaining how many men have gone hellward because of the dance.

The latest dance, Mr. Sunday said, is the "boll weevil wobble," and this statement brought forth prolonged laughter. Previous to that Mr. Sunday described many of the modern dances, imitating them in his own characteristic manner and naming some of them the "bunny hug," "the half Nelson," "the toe hold," etc.

He concluded by saying that "a man has to get mighty old before he won't enjoy a good hug." Many things are tolerated on the floor of the dance hall which would not be tolerated for a moment in any other place in society.

Mr. Sunday said that the only possible way he would favor dancing would be for laws to forbid children to dance after becoming 12 years of age. "Some persons ask me if it is any harm for a man to dance with his wife? Whoever heard of a man wanting to dance with his own wife? They would just as soon go out here and pick cotton all night in the moonshine as to dance with their wife."

In discussing card playing, Mr. Sunday drew forth considerable applause by declaring that "the best people do not play cards." He scored warmly church people particularly who sneer at those who do not know how to play cards and thereby encourage them to take the first step towards ruin.

Touching on the pool and billiard parlors Mr. Sunday said: "If a boy hangs around a pool room regularly it is about a 100 to 1 shot that he is gone."

Dealing with theatres at the outset of his sermon, Mr. Sunday said that if the "leg shows" were taken off the roads many of the companies would go bankrupt. Yet the public is to blame for this condition of affairs, he declared, by patronizing pictures and plays of questionable character. He also rapped at the lives of actors and actresses, saying that the percentage of divorces among them was higher than among any other profession.

Some of the high spots of the sermon last night were:

The treatise was originally intended as the hand-maiden of the church. Today they have nothing in common. The church gives you what you need. The church gives you what you need. "Sex plays give me the stomachache," Mr. Sunday declared, "and yet the sexual appeal is about all some plays and pictures contain."

A leading actress recently said the conditions behind the footlights were deplorable. Keep in mind two things in seeing the show: The character of the show and the character of the people.

"I believe that 80 per cent. of the plays of today are demoralizing to the public morals."

"Cards were originated to please an idiotic king. Bridge whist is just poker by a new name."

"There has never been a pack of cards under my roof." If my children learn to gamble it will not be at home.

"Girls, don't beg a fellow to play cards or dance if he doesn't know how. A fellow can resist most any kind of temptation like a man, but let it come from a girl with soft, dove like eyes and his knees will knock together like he had the ague."

"If you think immodest dress has nothing to do with moral conditions of today, talk with the social workers who have heard stories dropped from the lips of fallen girls."

"Many dances of today are so rotten the devil has to hold his nose when they are going on."

"Dances wouldn't continue another year if the mothers of the land would solidly set their faces against it."

"I wish you could know of the letters I receive, written in the blood of some poor boy or girl's soul, telling of their downfall. Then you would shun the dance hall as the monster I know it to be."

Abner's Anodyne.

All the neighbors wondered how Abner Allen and his wife got along. She was generally conceded to be a cantankerous sort, but so far as anyone knew, Abner had never been heard to utter a complaint. Then Abner died and Hezekiah Billings felt at liberty to tell the story.

"Abner did complain—sort of—just once," he said. "We was up loggin' an' Abner was sort of limpin' around and sayin' how his shoes hurt him. So I ast him why in tarnation he wore shoes that was too small and Abner sez, sez he: 'Well,' he sez, 'I always buys 'em too small. When I got on tight shoes,' sez Abner, 'I forget all my other troubles.' Yessir, that's the only time I ever heard Abner criticise his wife."—American Legion.

No Worms in a Healthy Child

All children troubled with Worms have an unhealthy color, which indicates poor blood, and as a rule, there is more or less stomach disturbance. GROVE'S TASTELESS CHILL TONIC given regularly for two or three weeks will enrich the blood, improve the digestion, and act as a general strengthening tonic to the whole system. Nature will then throw off or dispel the worms, and the child will be in perfect health. Pleasant to take. 60c per bottle.

NOTICE CONCERNING PLOWING IN PUBLIC ROADS.

Pursuant to recommendation of the Bamberg County Grand Jury, the landowners of the county cultivating lands adjacent and adjoining public roads are hereby urgently requested not to plow into or allow their hands to plow into the roads. Landowners are requested to plant two or three rows of crops adjacent to roads parallel with the road, so that there may be proper turning space without the necessity of turning plows in the roads. It is against the law to allow plows to damage the roads, and it is an unnecessary practice. The county spends large sums of money in road building, and the roads belong to the people. I have no desire to prosecute anybody, but I must insist that this practice be stopped immediately. The farmers and tenants can cooperate in this respect, and there should be no necessity to bring action against anybody. Full notice is being given before I take such action.

How Many Objects in This Picture Start With the Letter "P"

That's what you are to determine. Sounds easy, doesn't it? And it is easy. Without any trouble whatever you can readily see such objects as "Pump," "Parasol," "Pail," etc., can't you? Well, the others are just as easy to see but the idea is to see who can find the most. Fifteen cash prizes will be given for the fifteen best lists of words submitted in answer to this puzzle. The person sending in the largest and nearest correct list of "P-words" will win 1st Prize, the second best, 2nd Prize, etc. Write down those "P-words" you have in mind right now. THIS IS THE TIME TO START.

Everybody Join In

The Augusta Chronicle announces today a most interesting and amusing puzzle—a puzzle that is different. It is a great big fun game in which all can participate, from the tiniest youngsters to Grandpa and Grandma. It is really not a puzzle at all for the objects have been made perfectly plain with no attempt to disguise or hide them. It is a test of your skill, your ability to find the visible objects in the picture beginning with the letter "P" determines the prize you win. Gather all the members of your family together this evening, give each of them a pencil and a sheet of paper, study the picture carefully and see who can find the most "P-words."

OPEN TO ALL COSTS NOTHING TO TRY

The Chronicle invites you, Mr. and Mrs. Reader and family, to join in this puzzle game. We know you will find it the best game ever, full of fun and excitement, educational and interesting to all. We venture to say you will agree with us that you never have had so much fun. It doesn't look hard, and it isn't hard. It is an interesting picture, just bubbling over with fun for all.

OBSERVE THESE RULES

1. Any man, woman or child who is not an employee of The Augusta Chronicle, or a member of an employee's family, may submit an answer. It costs nothing to try.
2. All answers must be mailed by March 11th, 1922, and addressed to H. Henderson, Puzzle Manager, The Augusta Chronicle.
3. Answers should be written on one side of the paper only and words numbered consecutively, 1, 2, 3, etc. Write your full name and address on each page in the upper right hand corner. If you desire to write anything else, use a separate sheet.
4. Only words found in the English Dictionary will be counted. Do not use hyphenated compound, or obsolete words. Use either the singular or plural, but where the singular is counted, the plural cannot be counted, and vice versa.
5. Words of the same spelling can be used only once, even though used to designate different objects. The same object can be named only once, however, any visible part of the object may also be named.
6. The person sending in the largest and nearest correct list of words will win the first prize. Neatness, style or handwriting have no bearing upon deciding the winners.
7. Candidates may co-operate in answering the puzzle, but only one prize will be awarded to any one household, nor will a prize be awarded to more than one of any group outside of the family where two or more have been working together.
8. In the event of a tie for any prize, the full amount of such prize will be paid to each tied participant.
9. All answers will receive the same consideration, regardless whether or not a subscription to The Augusta Chronicle is sent in.
10. There will be three independent judges having no connection with The Chronicle, who will judge the answers submitted and award the prizes. Participants agree to accept the decision of the judges as final and conclusive.
11. The judges will meet shortly after the close of the contest and the announcement of winners and the correct list of words will be published in The Chronicle just as quickly thereafter as possible.
