30,000 Shares Common Stock

($25 PAR VALUE)

Chadwick-Hoskins Company

(of Charlotte, N. C.)

THE Chadwick-Hoskins Company is a consolidation of six big cotton mills, forming one of the largest cotton manufacturing concerns in the Southern States.

THE Company has no mortgage or bonded indebtedness. Authority has been given to the directors to retire the outstanding Preferred Stock in November, 1920.

CAPITALIZATION

7% Cumulative Preferred Stock ($100 Par Value) $800,000
Common Stock ($25 Par Value) 200,000 Shares

DURING the four years ended December 31, 1919, the consolidated earnings of the six properties, after Federal taxes, averaged $521,718 per year. For the three months ended March 31, 1920, the combined earnings, before Federal taxes were $560,565. Provisions are being made to operate two of the mills day and night. This should mean a substantial increase in output and earnings.

THE present consolidation was on a basis of $40 per spindle, which is less than the actual appraisal of the properties. With the retirement of the Preferred Stock, spindleage on the consolidated properties will be reduced to $32.80. On the basis of present earnings and the retirement of the Preferred Stock, we believe an annual dividend of $2.50 per share will be paid.

We offer this Common Stock for subscription subject to allotment, when, as and if received by us at

UNDER THE SPREADING CHESTNUT TREE

A BOY'S CLOTHING ADVERTISEMENT.

Honest now—can't you look back a few birthdays and recall how sincerely you longed to be a blacksmith—whereas Mother had it all planned that you were going to make sparks fly from the pulpit?

American boys have always been strong for strength—and you being a native son, were no different than the boys of today.

Perhaps one reason for our marked success in Boys' Clothes is that we know the ways and wishes of a boy from personal experience, a good memory, plus a de luxe edition of Mark Twain.

Your son deserves this kind of clothing consideration in his next suit.

We're ready any time to show you our line of Wearpledge Boy's Suits, New Shirts, Blouses and Underwear.
