DECKERS' SLAYER PUT TO DEATH

Key West, Fla., Dec. 26.-Manuel Head, who, barricaded in a house last night stood off a mob of armed Key West citizens after he had shot and killed William H. Decker, was taken from the county jail this morning by another crowd and riddled with bul-

Marines from the Key West navy yard guarded the county jail after Head's capture until the mob which formed after Decker's murder broke up. They gave way shortly after 2 a. m. to deputies who patrolled out of white liquid into the yard of a side the jail. Word that the marines had been relieved was passed about and the crowd gathered again. Approaching the jail, one of the leaders called for Sheriff Curry and when he opened the door a dozen forced their way in overpowered him and the jailer, obtained the kkeys to Head's cell and made for their victim. Head was shot twice before being taken away. He was then placed in an automobile and taken far out of a country road near old Fort Martello and there strung to a telephone pole. Twenty-two bullet wounds were found in the body when it was cut down this

The Decker funeral was conducted today services being held in the Elks' temple and St. Paul's cathedral. Members of the Elks' and Rotary clubs, followed by Girl and Boy Scouts in uniform, led the procession to the cemetery.

Two Fires In Union

Union had two small fires Sunday morning shortly after midnight. At 12:30 o'clock the J. F. McLure Dry Goods company was discovered to be on fire. A table of underwear was in a blaze. The prompt work of the police department and the fire company resulted in quickly extinguishing the fire. The loss is fully covered by insurance. But for the early discovery and prompt work, the fire would have been serious, for it is one of the largest stores here and the building is located in one of the best business blocks in Union. The proprietors and clerks had closed the store just a short while before.

Just as this fire had been extinguished another one broke out. This time it was Foster's Shoe Repair shop, located next to W. D. Arthur company and also on Main street. The machinery and fixtures were badly damaged; in fact, rendered practically useless.

How About This?

Sam Wix has set out 10 acres in abbage on his farm near the Forest beyond Buffalo. We predict that he will "start something" worth while. An experiment? Yes, so far as Union county is concerned. One man has already told Mr. Wix he was crazy. Another one, a farmer, said to Sweethearts Die him, "What do you mean? I had planned to plant a small patch of cabbage in my garden, but since I see what you are doing, I will buy from you, instead!" Evidently Mr. Wix has an idea that the world is a pretty big affair, and the above mentioned farmer has an idea that the world is rather small. We venture the assertion that Mr. Wix is right.

Little Girl Has Accident

Roberta Foster, the little daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Ernest Foster, had the misfortune to fall Christmas Day and break her arm.

Her friends regret to hear of this accident.

Few Disorders Here Xmas

Edna Brown, colored, cut Lizzie Gilliam with a knife yesterday afternoon about 10 o'clock. Lizzie is pretty badly carved up.

Not an accident is reported by the police authorities. Only two ar rests were made by the officers upon the charge of being drunk. Chief Moseley and his force are to be congratulated upon the good order that

NEGRO BOOTLEGGER MAKES GET AWAY

St. Matthews, Dec. 26.-Sam Duckson, a negro bootlegger, gave the officers of the law and the town in general a choice bit of excitement late Saturday afternoon. He had been unthe liquor business for some time, and Columbia hospital. one week ago was caught and given a fine of $50 by the town authorities. Saturday afternoon Policeman Jones saw him driving into town and scented trouble. The officer started for him and Duckson tossed his burden citizen. He then put whip to his horse and dashed away. The liquor recovered, Mr. Jones and two young men got a car and made pursuit. The negro was overtaken on the outskirts of the town and was seen hiding his pistol in a pile of lumber. The policeman knowing him to be a bad character, put him under cover and made the arrest. The handcuffs were adjusted and the pistol recovered. Then, in an instance, the negro surged, freed himself, broke his chains, grabbed the pistol from the policeman, covered him, recovered his own pistol from the deputy policeman and number of citizens were soon in pursuit in cars. The negro again abanthe pursuers. Many shots were exchanged but no one hurt. He was again captured, but showed fight and did not submit until severely punished. Upon search of his premises, a distilling outfit and six weapons were located among which were a sixteen shooter, an automatic pistol and several of lesser danger but all in good state of service.
