Impoverished soil, like impoverished blood, needs a proper fertilizer. A chemist by analyzing the soil can tell you what fertilizer to use for different products.

If your blood is impoverished your doctor will tell you what you need to fertilize it and give it the rich, red corpuscles that are lacking in it. It may be you need a tonic, but more likely you need a concentrated fat food, and fat is the element lacking in your system.

There is no fat food that is so easily digested and assimilated as

With Other Boys Was Attempting a Fake Hold-Up as a Joke.
Notre Dame, Ind., Dec. 30.—Louis Roqueta, of Colombia, a student at Notre Dame seminary, shot and almost instantly killed Claude Bagby, of Durango, Calif., when Bagby and several other students as a practical joke held up Roqueta, mistaking him for another student.

Several students planned a mimic holdup of a friend, expecting him to pass a certain point where they lay in wait.

Roqueta came along and the students, thinking him their victim, ordered him to hold up his hands. Instead, Roqueta drew a revolver and fired. The bullet struck Bagby near the heart and he died in five minutes. Bagby was 20 years old. Roqueta, who is 21 years of age, is taking an engineering course.

Roqueta is crushed over the affair, although he supposed the attack on him to be genuine and acted on the defensive.

Prof. Howard of the Missouri State Agricultural College says: "I advise American farmers to cultivate Ginseng. Big profits are realized. It is hardy plant and is easily grown." A bulletin issued by the Pennsylvania State College in part says: "The supply of native Ginseng root is rapidly diminishing, and the price per pound is correspondingly increasing while the constant demand for the drug in China stands as a guarantee of a steady market for Ginseng in the future." Consul General Rubles of Hong Kong says in the U. S. Consular reports: "The sale of Ginseng root grown in America is very large here and the demand is so great that much more could be disposed of advantageously. The root is as indispensable to the four-hundred-million Chinese as is their rice."
Ginseng is a staple on the market the same as corn, wheat and cotton. The present market price varies from $6.00 to $8.50 per pound, while the cost of producing is less than $1.50. It is easy to grow and requires very little ground. An acre of matured Ginseng is worth $40,000. There is room in one's garden to grow several hundred dollars worth each year. The plant thrives throughout the United States and Canada in any soil of climate that will grow garden vegetables. We sell roots and seeds for planting purposes and can show you how to make money growing Ginseng. There are two planting seasons, spring and fall.
