UNDER THE TERMS OF THE WILL

Reuben Whiteman; Deceased, Left Wealth to Son and Daughter, with Life Estate to Wife, with a Provision that She Was Not to Marry Again.

Duluth, Minn., Feb. 3.—Alleging the payment of $1,000 to James Lindsey, as an inducement to marry her mother, thereby securing thousands of dollars' worth of property under the provisions of her father's will, is the charge in the deposition of Alonzo J. Whiteman, now serving a sentence in Auburn, N. Y., prison for forgery, against his sister, Mrs. A. G. Gibbs, in the suit to be tried in federal court in this city on Feb. 14, to set aside a deed alleged to be fraudulent.

George F. Perkins, who had a judgment of $15,000 against Whiteman, is plaintiff in the suit and Clara Gibbs, Albert L. Gibbs and the Cleoquet Lumber company, are defendants, with the Detroit Trust company, intervenor.

The suit involves the title to 4,000 acres of valuable land in this state.

Reuben Whiteman, father of Alonzo and Clara Whiteman, left his wealth to his son and daughter, with a life estate to his wife. If she married, however, it was provided that it went to the son and daughter, Alonzo and Clara.

It is alleged that the sister induced James Lindsey to marry her mother, and thereby secured possession of the bulk of the fortune for herself and Alonzo.

Grave Trouble Foreseen.

It needs but little foresight, to tell that when your stomach and liver are badly affected, grave trouble is ahead, unless you take the proper medicine your disease. Mrs. John A. Young, of Clay, N. Y., did. She says: "I had neuralgia of the liver and stomach and liver, my heart was weakened, and I could not eat. I was very bad off for a long time, but in Electric Bitters, I found just what I needed, for they quickly relieved and cured me." Best medicine for weak women. Sold under guarantee by John M. Klein, druggist, at 50c a bottle.

MOB GATHERED TO LYNCH.

1,000 Men Await Positive Identification of Assailant.

St. Louis, Feb. 3.—A special to the Post-Dispatch from Poplar Bluff, Mo., says that over a thousand men gathered on the streets Saturday morning awaiting the positive identification of the negro, Bud Jackson, arrested on the charge of having assaulted Mrs. Daniel Norman, openly declaring their intention to lynch him if Mrs. Norman identified him.

Jackson is held in jail, surrounded by guards. It is stated that Mrs. Norman is unable to leave her home to identify Jackson at the jail, and Sheriff Hogg, therefore, announced he would take the negro to the residence.

The crowd announced its intention of accompanying the sheriff and prisoner.
