

A Banking Equity

Any business maintaining a bank account with a fair balance has a "banking equity"—that is, a right to borrow from the bank in proportion to the value of the account it has maintained. This bank wishes it understood that all worthy business loans will receive our careful consideration.

THE BANK OF SMOAKS

SMOAKS, S. C.

J. S. WILLIAMS, President
W. H. VARN, Vice-President
W. C. PATRICK, JR., Cashier
C. H. STRICKLAND, Assistant Cashier
DIRECTORS:
H. N. FOLK, M. L. CROSBY, A. E. VARN,
H. M. WOOD, W. H. VARN, J. S. WILLIAMS

Strong, Serviceable, Safe.

THE most reliable lantern for farm use is the RAYO. It is made of the best materials, so that it is strong and durable without being heavy and awkward.

It gives a clear, strong light. Is easy to light and rewick. It won't blow out, won't leak, and won't smoke. It is an expert-made lantern. Made in various styles and sizes. There is a RAYO for every requirement.

At Dealers Everywhere
STANDARD OIL COMPANY
(Incorporated in New Jersey)
Newark, N. J. Baltimore, Md.

NEW MILLINERY STORE

We have just purchased the Millinery business formerly conducted by Mrs. J. S. Jones, next door to Terry & Shaffer, and will continue the business at the same stand, along larger lines. We will add Ladies' Dress Goods and a much larger and more complete line of Millinery. Our Mrs. Levy has gone North to lay in a full stock of Millinery and Dress Goods for the Spring Trade.... We cordially invite everyone to visit our store and see our goods. We trust we shall have the continued patronage of all Mrs. Jones' friends and customers, as well as many new ones.

MRS. B. LEVY COMPANY
WALTERBORO'S NEW LADIES' STORE

SOME FISHBURNE SPECIALS

The Following are a few SPECIALS at C. L. Fishburne's:
Fresh National Biscuit Crackers.
Fresh Fruits
Barrington Hall Coffee in Cans.
Coffee, Green.
Flour, Sugar, Butter.
Cheese, Hams, Bacon.
Full Line of Fancy Groceries.
Hot and Cold Drinks at all Hours.

C. L. FISHBURNE
ICE CREAM PARLOR

Buys Millinery Store.
Mrs. B. Levy & Co. have purchased the millinery business formerly conducted and owned by Mrs. J. S. Jones, who has decided to go out of the business, devoting all her time to her household duties. This millinery business will be conducted by Mrs. Levy along progressive lines. She has associated with her, Mrs. Charlie Herndon.

M. P. Howell, Esq., has gone to Columbia to appear before the Supreme Court. He is attorney in a suit for damages against Hampton and Colleton counties.

Local and Personal

Dr. C. H. EsDorn went to Charleston Saturday on a business trip.

Miss Pearl Beach, of Mt. Carmel was in town Saturday.

Mrs. W. W. Smoak and little son, William, spent Saturday in Charleston.

Miss Nan Breland went to Charleston Saturday on a shopping expedition.

Mrs. Riddick Ackerman, and little son, Riddick spent the week end with Mrs. I. J. May at Smoaks.

R. B. Heyward, of White Hall, was among those in town Tuesday on a business trip.

W. T. Polk and son, Marion, of Islandton, were in town Saturday on a business trip.

James R. Rodgers, of Ravenel, was among the visitors to Walterboro Sunday.

Marshall G. Gruber, of Ravenel, visited his parents, Col. and Mrs. W. B. Gruber, Sunday.

Mrs. W. A. Smith, of Little Swamp accompanied by Miss Mary Camack, teacher of Little Swamp school, spent the week end at the home of her niece, Mrs. W. H. Padgett.

Miss Wilma Breland, of Doctors Creek is attending the Walterboro High school, being a member of the 8th grade.

Miss Cecil Arnett accompanied Miss Gertrude Rodgers to Ravenel Friday, on her return from visiting Miss Arnett.

Solicitor and Mrs. John H. Peurifoy and little son, Emil, left Monday for Columbia, where they will be during the session of the legislature.

It is with pleasure that the friends of Joseph W. Lucas greet him on the outside again, after being shut in several weeks from an attack of pneumonia.

Mrs. Howard Matthews, of Charleston, is here visiting at the home of her cousin, Mrs. G. C. Brown. Mr. Matthews came up also, and spent Sunday with Mrs. Matthews.

Mr. and Mrs. Jno. F. Lucas, Jr., and little son, have returned to Walterboro to live. Mr. Lucas was machinist at the Navy Yard, Charleston. He will conduct a farm near town this year.

Mrs. T. J. Blanchard went to Ehrhardt Friday to visit her daughter, Mrs. J. M. Smith, and incidentally to see her newest grandson. She was accompanied by her little grand-son, Henry McKeithen.

Miss Leonie Padgett entertained the teachers of the Walterboro high school at tea Friday evening. A most pleasant evening was spent, Miss Padgett proving herself a charming hostess.

Mrs. Jack Hewey, of Greenville, who has been visiting at the home of her sister, Mrs. Ashley J. Anderson, returned to her home Saturday. She was accompanied by her little daughter, Nan.

Mrs. Luther Von has moved to Walterboro from her home near town. She is occupying the Speights residence, and came mainly to be in reach of the school.

S. Finn, president of the S. Finn Clothing company, left Monday for New York and other Northern points to purchase goods for this new company.

J. Williams Campbell, who recently moved to Florida, came to Walterboro and Williams for a brief visit to relatives and friends, and to regain strength after a slight indisposition.

Joseph M. Moore, Esq., spent several days last week at Washington, D. C., and other points of interest in adjoining states. Mr. Moore is the junior member of the firm, Padgett Lemacks and Moore, of Walterboro.

Gerald J. Westcott has accepted a position as traveling salesman for the International Harvester Company. His territory will include Charleston, Berkeley, Colleton and Beaufort counties.

Prof. S. C. Dusenbury, principal of the Lodge High school, was in town for a short while Saturday. Mr. Dusenbury is an alumnus of the S. C. University and has shown himself an excellent principal since his connection with the school.

Mr. and Mrs. L. J. Jones, of Lodge accompanied by their interesting children, were the guests of his brother, Treasurer R. E. Jones, the latter part of the week. Mr. Jones is chairman of the board of trustees of the Lodge high school.

Madison Varn, who has been assistant cashier of a bank at Loris, S. C. has accepted a similar position in Brooksville, Fla. Mr. Varn passed through town Monday, en route to visit his parents, Mr. and Mrs. G. J. Varn prior to accepting his new position.

Dr. A. W. Hudson, of Ruffin, left Friday for Detroit, Mich., where he will take a post graduate course for six months in Grace Hospital of that city. Mrs. Hudson will visit a relative in New York while her husband is in Detroit.

T. M. Peoples, clerk of court of Hampton county, spent Monday night in town on hurried business.

D. E. Smoak and son, D. M., of Smoaks, were in town Monday on a business trip.

Miss Winabee Grace returned Monday evening after a delightful visit to friends and relatives in Savannah and Charleston.

I. M. Fishburne, cashier of the Farmers and Merchants bank, spent Sunday and Monday in Charleston and with his brother, Dr. W. K. Fishburne, at Apopka.

Among those who went to Charleston Saturday to see The Rose Maid, were Mr. and Mrs. J. C. McLeod, Miss Helen Lucas, Mrs. Jno. H. Peurifoy, Miss Miriam du Bois, Miss Leonie Padgett, C. G. Padgett and D. B. Peurifoy.

Mrs. J. C. McLeod and sister, Miss Helen Lucas, went to Charleston Saturday to see The Rose Maid, a musical comedy, which was presented at the Academy of Music Saturday night. They returned Sunday afternoon, much delighted.

Miss Lucia Patterson, of Charleston spent Sunday in town with her mother, Mrs. M. B. Patterson. Miss Patterson has recently been promoted to the position of head bookkeeper at Anderson Lumber Company, which position carries with it much responsibility, and is a reward of merit richly deserved.

P. M. E. Still and family, of Statesboro, Ga., have recently moved to town, and are occupying one of the Wichman cottages. Mr. Still's family consist of himself, wife, four children and wife's mother. Mr. Still is a traveling man representing the Watkins Medicine Co., of Winona, Minn. This will be his headquarters.

Mr. Reed Resigns.
Mr. W. D. Reed, who has been manager of the Carolina Telephone Company for the past five years, has resigned his position with the company and has bought out the general merchandise business of Mr. Paul Rauch near Grays Hill, which he will continue on an improved scale.

Mr. Reed and his family moved on Thursday from their home on the corner of Port Republic and Scott Streets to their new home. Their many friends are sorry to have them leave town, but wish them health and prosperity.

Mr. R. R. Fitts of Hampton will succeed Mr. Reed as manager of the telephone system.—Beaufort Gazette.

SPECIAL NOTICES

The Omega Masonic Lodge, No. 300, will hold its regular communication each fourth Friday afternoon at 3 o'clock instead of the third Friday, as announced in the last issue of The Press and Standard.

Cake, Candy and Ice Cream.
The ladies of the Parsonage Aid Society of the Methodist church will serve cake, candy and ice cream, at the Brown Hardware store Friday afternoon from 3 o'clock on. The public is cordially invited to attend.

Maple Camp to Meet.
All members of Maple Camp, No. 665 W. O. W. are requested and urged to attend the meeting of said camp on Friday night, January 24, as business of importance will be transacted.
B. P. Griffin, Clerk.

King's Daughters and Sons.
The November, December and January meeting of The King's Daughters and Sons, will be held next Monday afternoon at the Baptist church, at 4 o'clock. There is some business to be attended to, which requires the full vote of the circle, so please attend.
Mrs. J. D. Edwards, Leader.
Mrs. B. G. Price, Vice-Leader.

New Clubbing Offer.
For the next few days we will offer as a clubbing offer for only $1.00 The Press and Standard one year and a sitting of eggs of either White Leghorn, White Wyandotte, or Indian Runner Ducks, eggs f. o. b. Williams. This will apply to either new or old subscribers, and must be accepted at once, as supply is limited. These eggs are first class winning stock, strictly from pure blood birds.
The Press and Standard.

Bethlehem School Improvement Association.
The Bethlehem school district was organized, on Friday evening, the 17th, into a school improvement association, with the following officers:

President—E. T. Hiers.
Vice-president—Mrs. B. G. Weeks.
Secretary—Miss Eva Hiett.
Treasurer—P. S. Hill.
A membership committee and a program committee were appointed, and the association manifested considerable interest in plans for the future. It is hoped that much good to the people of the district will result from this organization.
Georgie Ackerman.

BIRTHS.

Born Sunday afternoon, at the home of C. W. Drawdy at Drawdy's, to Mr. and Mrs. J. M. Utsey, a son.

Born to Mr. and Mrs. J. M. Smith, at Ehrhardt, Friday morning, a fine son. Master Smith has already assumed charge as "conductor" of the Smith train.

WHEN SELECTING FURNITURE

Here you need be concerned only about its appearance. The Quality we Guarantee. So when you come to choose the new library table, the new rocker or Morris chair, the new suite for the parlor, don't worry about the quality.

YOU CAN LEAVE THAT TO US.

Rest assured we will sell you only Furniture that will wear as well as it looks. One price to all. Every article in our store marked in plain figures. Investigate our divided Payment Plan..

BROWN FURNITURE CO.

BIG MILLINERY SALE

Beginning Saturday, January 18, and continuing two weeks, we will conduct a Sale of MILLINERY AND WINTER DRESS GOODS.

EVERY HAT MUST GO

THESE WILL BE OFFERED AT and BELOW FIRST COST

Hats were $5.00	$2.50	Hats were $4.00	$2.00
now.....		now.....
	Hats were $3.00		$1.50
	now.....

WINTER DRESS GOODS AT COST

MRS. W. A. BLACK

WALTERBORO'S LEADING MILLINER

COTTAGEVILLE HIGH SCHOOL.

Roll of Honor for Third Month Ending Jan. 17.

Cottageville, Jan. 21.—Special: Below please find honor roll of Cottageville High school for month ending Jan. 17.

Department of High School.

2nd year—Inez Ackerman, Pearl Ackerman.

1st year—Alef DuRant.

Elementary Department.

7th grade—Bernie Ackerman, Ethel Ackerman, Gussie DuRant, Virginia Jordan, Roland Ackerman, Owens Ackerman, Fletcher Reeves, Winnie Ackerman, Hansford Reeves.

6th grade—Mabel Ackerman, Clarence DuRant, Hughie Smith.

5th grade—Marvin Smith, Carrie Lou Willis.

4th grade—Bessie Isgett, Bessie Mae Ackerman, Nora Lee Bishop.

3rd grade—Judge Isgett, George Hoff, Everett Ackerman, EsDorn Hill.

2nd grade—Lee Pierce, Ralph Griffith, Pierce Griffith, Dan Jordan, Kirk Smith.

Advanced 1st grade—William Harris Willis.

1st grade—Pauline Willis, Harry Reeves, Rena Bell Hill.

S Finn Clothing Co., Organizes.

The S. Finn Clothing Company recently organized, and its meeting Thursday for the purpose of electing directors and officers of the company. This company will conduct a general clothing company and will be located on Black street, next door to the Express office, being ready for business about the first of February. The following were elected directors for the association.

S. Finn, Dr. J. P. Herndon, C. H. Herndon, A. M. Summerall, G. W. Garris.

At a meeting of the directors the following officers were elected:

S. Finn, president.
Dr. J. P. Herndon, vice-president.
C. H. Herndon, secretary.
A. M. Summerall, manager.

New Garage in Town.

Walterboro is to have a new garage which will be located at the rear of Brown Furniture Co.'s store. This garage will be under the management of John Jones, or Oakley, S. C. Mr. Jones is an experienced automobile man, and will doubtless conduct an up-to-date automobile and repair shop. In addition to repairing Mr. Jones will also sell automobiles.

J. T. Garris, of Williams, was among those in town today.

EDISON

PHONOGRAPHS

We sell the Edison Machines and Records at special low prices, as we want to sell them out entirely. It will pay you to investigate at our store, the bargains we offer now.

THE S. FINN JEWELRY COMPANY

Walterboro, S. C.