Notice.

THE subscriber intending to relinquish business in Columbia, calls on those indebted to him "once more," to come forward and settle their respective notes and accounts. All such do not avail themselves of this notice in the course of ten days, will at the expiration of that time, find their notes and accounts placed in the hands of a proper officer for collection, without any distinction of persons. He has to meet demands against him which must be settled, consequently the present mode of procedure originates from necessity and not from choice; it is an unpleasant step, and nothing short of extreme necessity urges him to it. He, however, sincerely hopes all interested in this notice, will avail themselves of it, and thereby save their feelings and his.

A valuable Tract of Land for Sale.

THE Subscriber being desirous of removing to the western country, is anxious to sell his tract of Land, situated in Edgeland District five miles from Cambridge immediately on the road leading from that place to Edgeland Court House, and contains about one thousand acres, about four hundred of which is cleared and in a fine state of cultivation. This is one of the most valuable tracts of land in the up country. The improvements consist in an elegant two story dwelling house in excellent repair, a parcel of uncommonly good negro houses, a new Gin house, a first rate Horse mill, an excellent framed Barn and a parcel of good Stables. Any person wishing to purchase such a tract of land will do well to call on the subscriber immediately, as he is determined to sell and will give an excellent bargain.

ALSO.—Another tract of good Land adjoining the above, containing about 700 acres, about 25 acres of which is cleared and in a good state of repair. This tract has on it a very convenient dwelling House and all necessary out buildings, which will also be sold on very accommodating terms. For terms apply to the subscriber living on the premises. MONTICELLO,

The seat of the late Thomas Jefferson. IT is proposed to publish a picturesque view of Monticello House, (from a drawing made on the spot by Mr. MULLS) aquatinted in the best style, by one of the first artists of our country; provided sufficient patronage is given, equal to meet the expenses incident to such an undertaking. With a view to ascertain this, these proposals are laid before the public.

The engraving handsomely colored, will be furnished subscribers at three dollars a copy, payable on delivery. The size of the plate will be 20 inches long by 12 inches wide. Particular attention has been paid, in the drawing, to the architectural character of this building, which distinguishes it from all others. For every twelve responsible subscribers, gentlemen who will collect the names, will be entitled to receive one copy of this work gratis. Subscriptions received by P. THOMPSON, book seller city of Washington, where the original drawing is deposited, and at the Book stores in this place. November 21 47 if

Columbia Bridge Company.

ALL persons, who are disposed to pass the A Bridge by the year (and who have not heretofore taken the ferries of either Daniels or Haynes) are requested to furnish me with proposals for the same. Public Sale.

TO be sold by order of the Court of Equity all the real estate belonging to the late firm of A. & W. HALL & Co. on a credit of 1, 2, and 3 years, with a mortgage on the property and bonds with personal security with interest from date. The dwelling and stores now occupied by W Hall, on the corner of Richardson and Laurel streets. The dwelling house is replete with every convenience for family purposes: the Stores, Cellars and Cotton Homes are as extensive and as well calculated for any concern as any in the state. These premises are lighted with gas.

A Store on Richardson street 60 feet front with a lot attached extending back to Assembly street, with a Cotton House capable of storing 2000 bales of Cotton.

A Store adjoining containing 50 feet front, with a lot attached, extending back to Assembly street.

A large three story Brick House fronting 62 feet on Richardson street and extending back to Assembly street, with a good double brick kitchen and stable and carriage house attached. There are two large Stores in this building fronting on Richardson street with back rooms to each, which are well calculated for any business. The dwelling or upper part of the house is well calculated for either a public or private boarding house.

The House and Lot where Isaac Frasier now lives, which from its contiguous situation to the State House, renders it invaluable during the sitting of the legislature, as a public stand: it has every convenience desirable for public uses.

A square of land containing four acres, more or less, situate in the Town of Columbia, between Richard, Laurel, Gist and Pinckney streets; formerly the property of Elisha Daniel, situate on the borders of the Canal, near Mr. Young's Mill.

The above property may be seen on application to the subscriber, who will dispose of the same by private contract until the first Monday in July when it will be, without reserve, sold at Public Auction WM. HALL, Columbia, May 3 18 tds

MERCHANTS' HOTEL,

Corner of Richardson & Taylor Streets. ON THE DIRECT ROUTE TO CAMDEN. MRS. M. WILLIAMSON, GRATEFUL for past favors, respectfully informs those persons who have patronized her heretofore, as well as the public generally, that she has removed from her old stand near the State House, to that large commodious and airy three story brick building recently erected expressly for a HOUSE OF ENTERTAINMENT, situate on the corner of Richardson and Taylor streets, and being perfectly established, she now tenders her services to the public in every branch appertaining to a House of Entertainment.

Mrs. W. deems it unnecessary to say any thing in relation to the accommodations that travellers may receive—she only wants them to make a trial, and they can judge for themselves. From the construction of the house, she will at all times be enabled to accommodate parties, either public or private, without being any inconvenience to travellers or regular boarders. The is as spacious and as well constructed as any in the Town. She therefore flatters herself that she will receive a share of patronage from the gay circle. Her table will at all times be furnished with the best market affords—bar with the choicest liquors—rooms with the best of beds—the house with a sufficient number of good and trusty servants—and stables with a good and plentiful supply of the best of provender, and well attended by faithful and trusty ostlers.
