Girls' Industrial School Dedication On Sunday

The South Carolina Industrial School for Negro girls, of which Mrs. Mabel B. Worthington is directress, will hold dedicatory services at 3 p. m., Sunday, November 4. The speaker is Dr. J. A. Bacoats, president of Benedict College. The new institution is located next to the John G. Richards Industrial School for Negro boys, on the Newberry (U.S. 76) highway. Everyone is cordially invited.

The Gay Nineties Hold Regular Meeting

Last Wednesday evening the Gay Nineties met at the beautiful home of Mrs. Simmie Smith, 929 Pine street, the president presiding. New members introduced were Mrs. Lillian Spann, Mrs. Maggie Robinson and Mrs. Fannie Jones. Following a report of the sick committee, headed by Mrs. Sarah Clark, the club sent a purse to Mr. W. H. Young, who is a patient at the Good Samaritan-Waverly Hospital. The next meeting will be held with Mrs. Gracie Washington, 1221 Manning avenue. The hostess served a lovely buffet dinner, consisting of fried chicken, creamed potatoes, peas, fruit salad, hot rolls, coffee, tea, ice cream and pound cake.

Culture Club Has Fine Harvest Festival Effort

Mrs. Ola Wakefield, president of the Columbia Culture Club, this week sent an "I thank you" message to club members and friends who contributed so liberally to make the annual Harvest Festival a huge success. There was a large attendance at the club's meeting October 26, which was held in the newly renovated recreation room of the YWCA. Tickets were given out for the annual Turkey Raffle. The lucky winner will be chosen when the club meets November 9, at the home of Mrs. Margaret Smith, 1428 Heidt street.

Following business, the club was entertained in a pre-Halloween party, after which a delicious repast was served. A roster of club meetings for the year will be published on this page next week. Please watch for and note it.

At 8:30 p. m., a special educational missionary drive will be held at First Nazareth. Rev. Ralph E. Rhyme and the choir of Tabernacle Baptist church will have charge of the services. The public is cordially invited.

Miss Donnelly Is Bride of Mr. Hicks

HEMINGWAY—Miss Ernestine Inez Donnelly of Hemingway became the bride of Harvey Hicks at 4:00 P. M. October 18, at the home of the bride.

The Rev. C. B. Corner performed the doubling ceremony. The yard was effectively decorated with giant white chrysanthemum palms, and white lilies. Mr. Rufus Eddy, organist, rendered the wedding music. Mrs. Laura Barnes sang "I Love You Truly."

Given in marriage by her father, the bride wore a ballerina length beige gown of imported lace over taffeta, with a fitted bodice long tapered sleeves formed calla lily points over the wrist.

Her finger tip veil was attached to a crown of beige blossoms. She carried a prayer book topped with a white purple lipped orchid.

Mrs. Sylvia Woods was the bride's only attendant. She wore a ballerina length rust dress. Coolidge Pressley served as best man. Usher-groomsman was David Donnelly, brother of the bride.

The bride's mother was attired in a steel gray suit and wore a corsage of pink carnations. The sister of the bridegroom wore a gray suit and a red carnation.

Immediately following the ceremony a reception was held at the home of the bride's parents.

Later in the evening the couple left for a wedding trip to Durham, N. C. and Washington, D. C. Upon their return they will make their home in Hemingway.

For traveling the bride wore a rust rayon cord dress with rust accessories. Her corsage was the orchid from her prayer book.

Mrs. Hicks is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Dave Donnelly. She is a graduate of Waverly Good Samaritan Hospital of Columbia. Before her marriage she was a nurse at Johnson Memorial Hospital of Hemingway.

Mr. Hicks is the son of Mr. and Mrs. Hicks of Britton, Neck. At present he is employed as an orderly at the Johnson Memorial Hospital of Hemingway.

White friends attending the wedding were Mrs. Eddy, Mrs. Laura Barnes, Dr. and Mrs. Johnson, Mrs. Emma Nooney, Mrs. Vernon Bauer, Mrs. Alta Coke, Mrs. Robert Hardy, Misses Robin Bauer and Bryant, Master Allen Johnson Jr. Vernon Bauer Jr.

IN MEMORY

In sad but loving memory of my dear Mother, Mrs. Lavina T. Felder, who departed this life November 2, 1949. You are gone but not forgotten.

Nor will you ever be. For long as life shall last, We will always think of you. But memory keeps you ever near us. Though you died two years ago, Your daughter, Sadie; son, Myers; grandson, Herbert.

State Alumni Hold Meeting Here

State College Alumni of the Columbia Area met Tuesday night in Waverly School's Cafeteria with fifty or more alumni of the College present to meet President B. C. Turner and Head Coach, Lawrence Simmons.

William J. Gilliam, President of the club presided, and presented C. W. Madden, President of the General Alumni Association, who in turn introduced President Turner and Coach Simmons.

President Turner gave to the group an outline of his program at State College.

President Turner also stated that State College is in need of a building program. There is a need for boys' and girls' dormitory and an auditorium. It is important to seat all of the student body in the present auditorium, he said.

Coach Simmons made remarks concerning the football team and what he expected from his boys.

Pictures were made of the group and refreshments consisting of assorted sandwiches and Russian Tea were served.
