Rev. Holman Says Still In Race

BEAUFORT—Rev. Julius Holman, veteran AME church pastor here, said Monday that he was still very much in the race for bishopric honors when the Greater AME Church holds its quadrennial in Chicago this month.

Rev. James M. Hinton, outstanding minister and civic leader, president of the NAACP State Conference of branches, will also address the convention of Baptists during its sessions at Mullins.

was a candidate four years ago, point out that only one other of the five candidates from this state received more votes than he at the last general conference.

Rev. Holman has 35 years of experience as a successful pastor. He is also noted as an outstanding orator and scholar.

Spelling Bee Judges Named For Finals

Miss Elizabeth O'Dell of the faculty of the University of South Carolina and C. Wallace Martin of Columbia radio station WMSC will be the judge in the State Spelling Bee to be held here Saturday, May 3, it has been announced by D. Leon McCormac of the State Department of Education.

The Bee, an annual event in South Carolina since 1947, will be held this year at Columbia College. Miss Isla Ellerbe, also a faculty member of USC, and Mackie Quave of the staff of Columbia radio station WIS, will be the pronouncers.

Participants in the bee will be winners in the 43 county contests which were held last week. Seventeen of the counties have already sent in the names of their winners. Others are expected to report their champion spellers this week.

Scripps-Howard Newspapers are the national sponsors of the nation-wide spelling bee activities and the Anderson Daily Mail and Independent Newspapers sponsor the contest in South Carolina with the State Department of Education making all arrangements and conducting the Bee.

All participants will be guests of the newspaper at a luncheon immediately following the contest. In addition each contestant will be given a school dictionary.

The state winner will receive a week's trip to Washington, D. C. and a chance to enter the national contest scheduled for May 22. The winner and the runner-up will each be given a set of encyclopedias.

The Spelling Bee is scheduled to begin at 10:30 May 3 in the auditorium of Columbia College. Mr. McCormac has announced the contest is open to the public.

Yale Students Form College NAACP Branch

NEW HAVEN—Following an address by Herbert L. Wright, youth secretary of the NAACP, before a student body conference sponsored by the Yale University Political Union and the Yale Dixwell Interracial Group, fifty Yale students this week joined the NAACP and entered into formal organization of a chapter.

The new chapter has assigned itself the task of attempting to have qualified Negro instructors placed on the Yale faculty which QUESTION: I would like to dig a cellar under my frame ranch style home, working through a small floor opening in a utility closet. The central girder rests on 4 piers, 18" x 18" and 3 feet deep, at its foundation, and is resting on a footing. The ground is sandy.

ANSWER: It is doubtful that you could accomplish this job without danger of collapse of the house and excavation, with injury to yourself. You'd have to move heavy shoring timbers through that tiny opening and carry out tons of earth, both virtually impossible.

QUESTION: If shingles on a new home start to fall off at times, will they eventually settle down, or must something be done with them?

ANSWER: New shingles, being flexible, can be raised slightly by wind action. Eventually they will become brittle, and adhere to one another from summer heat, and be flat.

QUESTION: Could you tell me how to plaster around a built-in bath tub? The plaster I put in does not seem to stick.

ANSWER: If you are using ordinary plaster on porcelain or metal, it will not stick. Go over the surfaces with fine grit sand paper to remove grease and loose particles, and lightly roughen the surface, then apply one of the special tile patching cements now available in hardware stores. They will stick.

QUESTION: We have been mopping around a kitchen utility closet, and when we move it there are rust spots on the linoleum? How do I remove the spots, and prevent them?

ANSWER: Rust stains can be taken from linoleum with lemon juice, or by scrubbing with steel wool. Set the cabinet on short wood blocks to keep the metal base from contact with water when mopping takes place.

Robinson New Menace For NL Pitchers

PHILADELPHIA, Pa. (CNS)—As if Jackie had not worried the National League pitchers enough, this year they all think they are seeing a more potent Robbie For since he's been moved from the clean up spot to the third slot, he's just been concentrating on getting on base. And he has reached base safely 26 of his 38 tries.

Another way of looking at Jackie's record is that he's been on base better than three times per game. Jackie explains his new success this way: "I kinda like batting third. You don't feel as though you have to swing for that long ball, all the time. I can punt more often, or wait for a walk more often and then let a guy like Campy get me in."

The goals at the Mullins session are: Enrollment of 1,000 teachers, 1,500 churches, 81 associations and 51 unions. And to build the Science hall needed at Morris College by September 1.

Every association is expected to be reporting 100 per cent.

The Thanks We Receive
To All the families and friends who have complimented us on a beautiful service we in turn would like to express our own thanks. We honestly try to interpret and carry out the wishes of each family—to make no decision contrary to their desire—but we are not the final judges. Our best reward comes with the knowledge that we have been truly helpful.
