IN ONE HOUSEHOLD Three are Helped

Snyder Tells of Great Stiffering He. His Wife and Friends Endured

Was First of Three to Take Tanlac But They Later Gained Benefits Equal

Tanlac, the Master Medicine, receiv ed the highest indorsement when George Snyder, Inspector, of 112 Lafayette St. Schenectady, N. Y., made a public statement. His story involving three members of his household is so intereting that it is worthy of repeating in his words.

"I felt so badly when I got up in the morning that I was unable to eat any breakfast." Mr. Snyder explained. "I could eat very, little at noon, and being half starved in the evening I ate a big meal and suffered most of the night. I was in a generally run down condition from stomach and kid ney trouble. I slept so badly I would hate to get up, for I never felt rested. I had pains in my back that were severe, especially when I stooped. My wife was in almost as bad condition as I was. She aways felt drowsy tred and weak. A boarder who lived with us suffered in about the same way we did. He complained of lack of appetite, poor sleep, jumpy nerves and as we did with fermenting of his food on his stomach.

"I began to take Tanlac and when my wife saw the benefit I was receiving, she also began taking it, and a lit tle later our boarder became just as enthusiastic as we were. Tanlac lieved my kidney trouble and tho pains in my back became hardly noticeable. I was built up, my stomach was put in good condition and I ate three hearty meals a day. I rested well and gained strength rapidly. My wife was improved as much as I, and so was our boarder. We all were made to feel like new people and we agreed that Tanlac is the greatest medicine of

AMERICA LEADS THE WORLD IN SHIPS AND SHIPYARDS

It is said now that America leads the world in ships and shipyards. The United States now has at its command 2,220 merchant ships of an aggregate dead weight tonnage of 9;-669;437. This nation has in operation 203 shipyards with a toal of 1,-020 ship ways.

Amerca's right to the title of the greatest maritime nation of the world is made indisputable, that with the momentum she has gained even Great Britian probably will not surpass her in the future.

Russian Rulers Called World Outlaws

In expressing the own horror at Bol shevicism rule of blood and ruin in Russia, the United States government has suggested to the allied and neutral nations, which if accepted, will proclaim the Bolsheviki international outlaws, and propose taking immediate action against such horrors perpetrated by such acts and depredation as they are committing on the helpless inhabitants of Russia. Japan is over anxious to get into the fray and only awaits an opportunity to pounce in upon Bolsheviki and his followers.
