Geo. W. Corley, farmer R R No 6 and my back ached a great deal. The worst trouble was with my bladder and I had a too frequent desire to My back didn't bother me much after of Chamberlain's Cough Remedy sevtime I had a severe cold and an annoyused one bottle of it and by then my cold had entirely disappeared."

Greensboro Worker Tells How Dreco Wiped Out
Stomach Trouble.

Everyone knows that to live we must have food. Food is the fuel that keeps the human furnace burning. Stop eating and the tires of life will soon die out. It is any wonder then that when the system is not being properly fed a person becomes thin, pale, listless, run down and the day's work becomes a drudgery. It is worse than useless to try to tempt the appetite with delicacies if the stomach is unable to digest the food it receives.
Most boldly pills can be traced to just this course. The stomach is out of order and the other organs, tissues, and muscles are not receiving the necessary food to build up the ravages of the day. The result is these organs tissues and muscles become weak, opening the door to kidney trouble, constipation, rheumatism and a host of distressing complaints. These disorders can be helped only by treating the cause, the stomach.

"I have suffered 20 years with pain" in the limbs, and rheumatism" says Mrs. France Cox who is perhaps one of the most generally known and best loved ladies of Greensboro's Salvation Army, in a signed statement just made for publication.

"I couldn't even drink cold water," she continues, "as it would sour and come back up hot as fire. All my troubles are very much benefited now because I have taken that wonderful new herbal medicine called Dreco.

"Dreco surely has done me lots of good and I want three more bottles."

Dreco, the medicine mentioned by Mrs. Cox, is a compound of the juices extracted from roots, herbs and berberies, nature's own remedy for nature's own remedy for nature's ills. Hundreds of testimonials like the above are coming in all stating that Dreco seemed to go direct to the seat of the trouble and to wipe out aches and pains.

If you are suffering why not go or send at once for a bottle of this wonderful medicine? Surely it is worth a trial.

Dreco is sold by almost any well stocked druggist and may be secured in Lexington at Geiger Drug Co.

RETTY COURTEOUS.

"At a dinner party the other day a prig inquired of his neighbor, a plain woman who talked a lot, "Tell me why isn't a woman like a looking glass?"

"She gave it up, of course, and then he told her with a smirk—"Because a looking reflects without speaking, but a woman speaks without reflecting."

"She flushed slightly, but the next moment she had him. "That is quite clever," she said, with a cunning smile. "Now perhaps you can tell me Mr.—, the difference between your sex and a looking glass."

He confessed his inability.
"Well, you see," she answered and weroneet was listening now well you see, a mirror is polished. I don't think some mens manners always are do you?"

UNCLE SAM.

This mifalliar nickname for the United States is said to have come about in the following manner:

During the war of 1812 the United States government entered into a contract with Elbert Anderson to furnish supplies to the army. Whenever the United States buys anything from a contractor it appoints an inspector to see that the goods are up to the specifications. In this case the government appointed a man by the name of Samuel Wilson. He was a jolly whole-souled man and was familiarly known as Uncle Sam.

It was his duty to inspect every box and cask that came from Elbert Anderson, the contractor and if contents were all right the cargo was marked with E A—U. S. the initials of the contractor and of the United States.

The man whose duty it was to do this marking was something of a joker, and when somebody asked him one day what these letters stood for he said that they meant Elbert Anderson and Uncle Sam. Everybody, including Uncle Sam himself thought this a very good joke, and by and by it got into print, and before the end of the war it was known all over the country and that is how the United States received the name of Uncle Sam.

YOUTH-TIME

The important time to lay a strong foundation for robust manhood is while life is young and the body developing. A growing child needs every possible help to conserve energy and confirm the body in vigorous health. To a developing child

SCOTT'S EMULSION

comes with particular help.
Thousands of the strong men and women of today were in youth-time nourished and strengthened to withstand the inroads of disease by the consistent use of Scott's.
