WEDNESDAY May 8, 1901.

Never in the history of South Carolina, has there ever been such a gathering of Old "Vets" as there will be in Columbia this week. Camp Connor will be ably represented among the hosts of the lost cause, whose heads are now silvering for the tomb This will be the grandest gathering in the history of Columbia. Every old soldier should make use of this opportunity and meet his fellow comrades, and talk over the days of yore, when they left their families and their homes for their country's sake.

The people of our town should leave nothing undone that would make the coming Epworth League Conference a success This will indeed be a glorious meeting of young people, from all over the State, and as the time draws near we should put forth all our efforts and make this a meeting ever to be remembered by all. We should work mutually together with ready hands, and cheerful hearts and make the delegates enjoy themselves while in our We say to one and all, lend a hand.

The time is here when the plowman forgoes the heart to whistle at his weary journey, and this reminds us of the many happy hours we have spent on the farm in our youth; and how we long for these pleasant times again There is not the that can compete with the life of the farmer, and it has been truly said

"The farm is the best and the safest
And certainly surest to pay,
You are at free as the air of the mountain,
And monarch of all you survey."

The desire of our young men of the present day to indulge in city life, surrounded with its Vices and sins, will terminate some day into needed misery of which nothing can soothe. The Honored men of to-day have been reared on the farm, free from the attractions of vice, which begets are so apt to indulge in the city.

We spent a few hours in the thriving town of Batesburg last Saturday and had the pleasure of meeting our old friends, E. V. and M. W. Cullum and shaking hands with the first subscriber of the Monitor, Col. U. X. Gunter. We are informed by Mr. E. W. McLeran that he was the first subscriber entered on the subscription list's nearly twenty five years ago. He has been a valued subscriber ever since. Through the kind favor of Mr. M. W. Cullum, we met with several others whom it was a pleasure to see—Johnston Monitor.

Star Route Changed.

By an order of the Post Office Department, part of Star Route from Batesburg to Chappells has been changed, which took off out on Monday of this week This change is from Helstons Cross Roads by Norris Cross Roads by Duncan's Mill to Cloud-Creek Post office. This will serve nearly fifty families with a daily mail against less than half a dozen on the abandoned route because almost all of that route has a Rural Free Delivery from Ridge Spring.

This improvement in service is largely due to the efforts of Post Master Koeree, who is always active to serve his patrons. He is thoroughly possessed with the spirit and policy of the Post Office Department to spare no effort to supply mail facilities to those who are in need of such. We know that Mr Koeree has had several post offices set in and now has one or two Free Delivery schemes on foot, with very favorable prospects. The Uniform courteous and gentlemanly manner in which he has served his patrons has placed his rural patrons especially under many obligations to him.

INTERSETING NEWS ITEMS.

Picked up by our Regular Correspondents Through out Lexington, Saluda and Aiken Counties.

Aiken.

AIKEN, S. C., May 6th, 1901.

The opening up of beautiful spring weather give hope and cheer to both city and country people. While many farmers had to replant a large part of the cotton crop they are not at all discouraged and are moving on without complaining of hot weather.

We have very few northern tourist among us now, many came and went without giving notice of their arrival or departure.

One thing can be said much to the credit of our northern friends, they are not deadbeats. They pay all bills and leave on friendly terms with the natives. Since my first communication, two weeks ago, another land deal has been made. Capt. Jno. M. Bell sold the lot owned by him on Park Avenue, to a northerner for the handsome sum of $7 500, and it is reported that another fine house will be erected on this same lot during the summer.

At this time there is very little being done in the way of building or contracting. Mr. J. T Matthews has broken ground for a new house on Colleton Avenue for Mrs. Hahn. Mr. E. R. Baggot of Monetta, has the contract for a ten room cottage on Richland Avenue. It is presumed that within the next few months quite a number of cottages will go up, and improvements and repairs will be made on houses already built.

The Aiken S. S. Convention held its annual meeting here last week, but owing to the push of the farmers to replant their cotton crop and other causes the attendance was very poor. Rev. N. N. Burton of Graniteville and G. P. White of Langley attended for the first time a service of our S. S. Convention, and contributed a very helpful part towards the success of the meeting. Their sermons and addresses made good and lasting impressions upon their hearts. We hope the lines of God's providences have fallen to them in pleasant plans, and that they will both remain among us.

The revival meeting which was to begin at the Baptist Church on last Sunday, has been postponed one week on account of the pastor, Dr Miller.

The Memorial exercises under the auspices of "The Daughters of the Southern Confederacy" was held last Thursday afternoon at the Aiken Institute.

Our popular Mayor, P. A. Emanuel Esq delivered an address to the veterans present, after which a Red Cross was presented each surviving soldier The attendance was perhaps the largest ever enjoyed on a similar occasion here, and the greatest regret was the absence of Capt. J. Rice Smith, the chosen orator for the hour, he having been called away to attend the funeral of his most intimate friend, Hon. W. C. Davidson. The ladies in beautiful equipage were driven to the different cross crypts where the graves of dear old soldiers were decorated with the choicest flowers, plucked from the rose bushes of our own little city.

Leesville.

The picnic last Friday was a grand success. Everybody seemed to enjoy themselves to the fullest. There were lots of good dinner and pretty girls—the two essentials to a picnic. We were glad to see some of Batesburg's charming young ladies there.

Several of our citizens will attend the reunion in Columbia this week.

The Y. W. C. T. U. contest for a silver medal on last Thursday night, was one of the best we have had in some time. Messrs. H. B Hardy, J. F. McClellan, O. M Mitchell, E. C. Lewis, F. S. Smith and D. P. Roof, were the contestants. Each of them spoke well. The committee after being out some time, decided that Mr. F. S. Smith had one the medal which was presented to him by Rev. Knard.

Dr. Hall gave an interesting lecture on "the evolution of a girl" Saturday night. He gave a vivid picture of the girl from a baby until old age.

Rev. J. F. Anderson preached an excellent sermon in the Methodist church last Sunday morning.

The Lutheran Sunday school will picnic near Mr. Roof's on next Saturday.

We are glad to see Miss Lula Oxner, who has been teaching at New Brookland, at home again.

Mr. J. E. P. McCarthy is making some improvements on his house.

Smith & Creason are having the front of their store repainted which adds much to its appearance.

Mr. James Knard now has his hotel painted and opened to the weary traveler.

We are glad to see Prof. Mobley at his post of duty after several days sickness.

From Delmar.

This is the most distressing time that the farmers have experienced for many years. Thousands and thousands of dollars worth of labor, fertilizers and land have been lost. Four times as much plowing as usual has been done and still much of the land is in a worse condition than if never touched. A large per cent of the manures have been washed and leached away. All of the best seed have been planted and are lost. Farmers have worked, studied and managed every way, and still the 1st. of May finds them with absolutely nothing in their fields. All cotton that was planted more than ten days ago, will have to be planted again and the seed is not in sight, because our farmers have exchanged their seed for cotton seed meal, keeping back just enough to plant their crops. It is a very rare thing to miss some kind of a stand of cotton.

All corn that was planted the last half of March failed to make a stand and that remains, shows very little life. There is a little corn that was planted March 1st, that made a stand There will be comparably no early corn this year and no early cotton. At least one third of the crop will be planted in May and it will all come up in May.

These are very gloomy conditions that confront farmers; and are naturally very discouraging, but no man can forecast the result.

Providence has interfered to deliver the farmers of the South the two past years, and it seems that he is now checking the wild desire to make a 12 or 13 million bale crop If this calamity will result in an 8 million bale crop, then the farmer will be immensely blessed as any one can plainly see. After all, there is a bright side to the situation.

The wheat and oats crop is very promising. There is at least one third more this year than ever before; and it was sown better and fertilized more than ever before.

It has become a very common practice for farmers to use nitrate of soda and the results are very apparent. This means less corn and less flour to pay for out of the cotton crop.

The recent cold has left our fruit crop uninjured, and has at the same time seriously injured the Georgia and other sections. This means that good fruit will bring a fancy price this summer.

Then let us look at the bright side and see the hand of Providence, delivering us from plunging into ruin if left alone.

W. AUG. SHEALY.

Steadman's.

The weather is nice, pleasant and Spring-like.

On last Sunday the congregation at this place had the pleasure of hearing a most excellent sermon by Rev. N. G. Cooner.

Mr. Willie Steadman of Columbia, has been visiting Mr. R. G. Able this week.

Messrs. Elbert Padgett and J. L. Matthews of Leesville, were here on business Wednesday.

Misses Rosa Spradley and Susie Shull of Seivern, visited friends and relatives here last Sunday.

Mr. and Mrs. John Gantt of the Convent section, spent Wednesday with their daughter Mrs. Haskell Gantt.

Messrs. Gunter & Gantt are doing a lively business with their turpentine still.

Mr. Smith, the Supervisor of the So. Ry., was here Friday in the interest of the company.

The small grain in this section is not as promising as it was before the recent cold.

Wagener.

Wagner is to be the two Mr. J. W. Lybrand is now completing a fine roller mill and improved ginnery and at an early date, a oil mill will be erected and before many Moons, we expect to start a subscription for the purpose of organizing a National Bank; and some of our citizens are in correspondence with Northern Capitalist, in reference to a large cotton mill and we have just completed a nice, one school building 32x48; and we are now looking about for a corpse of teachers that will give us a school second to none.

The last Legislature gave us a special school district to be governed by seven trustees; three from the district at large and four from the town; elected by the town council. The following have been elected—C. J. Dampier, T. E. Busbee Cyrus Poole. Town: J. H. Sandifer, J. F. Watson, J. E Busbee and C. L. Jones. Any gentleman that feels that he can build a first-class school, would do well to apply to one of the above trustees.

Our Sunday school will picnic the 17th of May. The following gentlemen are expected to be with us and make short talks after our little ones have their orations—Col. R. B. Watson, Rev. H. L. Baggott, Rev. T. P. Garrett, Rev. J. R. Poston, Messrs. J. A. Gunter and John Bell Towill.
