An "At Home" at Leesville.

An at home party given by Dr. and Mrs. Efrd of Leesville in honor of the young ladies who had called on her since her short stay in Leesville. No young lady was invited that had not called. Mrs. Efrd is a charming hostess and the r with his genial ways, wit and humor, helps her in a way that lends a charm and success to all her efforts. Mrs. Efrd has rare accomplishments, the way she goes at things show that she has ability to carry out anything that she might undertake. The evening was delightfully spent. The principal game a test of the five senses. Something new and very amusing consuming 1 to 3 prizes awarded to the couple guessing things under that head "feeling," a number of things thrown in a bag, each one feeling in and guessing what they feel and so on through all the senses. Mr. Swearingen and Miss Able won first prize, Miss Madison and Mr. Kuard second and Miss McCartha and Mr. Etheredge bore away the booty. Seven other amusing things took place. 12:00 o'clock found us so well entertained that we had forgotten to look at the time. Refreshments were served in dining hall, beautifully decorated with ferns and palms. Cakes and ices were served in abundance. The delicious refreshments proved Mrs. Efrd's kitchen accomplishments. Remarks were often made during the evening of how well she entertained. This is the second entertainment Mrs. Efrd has been connected with since her short stay in Leesville, marked with success. Those invited were; Misses Hattie Lee Haynes, Lillie Haynes, Essie Major, Mary Derrick, Nettie McCartha, Ida Bell Crouch, Carrie Mitchell, Pearl Spann, Wakefield Madison, Ella Lou Able, Mary Mack, Mand Mack, Lila Hook, Hattie Gro cloth, Mrs. McCracken, Pierce Etheredge, C. I. Jones, Ed West, Jonas McCartha, R. L. Kinard, Wilbur Mitchell, William Bodie, E. Rawl, Drs Quattlebaum and Timmerman. We truly hope that Dr and Mrs Efrd will let us come again real soon.
