Catherine, of Charleston, are visiting the home folks.

SALUDA
SALUDA STANDARD.
The prosecution failed to appear before Magistrate Etheredge last Thursday in which the depot agent at Wards had preferred charges against the conduct of two young men of that place, and the magistrate dismissed the case. The defendants were on hand, with able counsel.

Mr. M. L. Long was in town Saturday.
Mr. R. L. Prater was here yesterday.
Misses Emma and Julia Daniel attended teachers Association here Saturday.
Mr. J. C. Snelgrove passed through Saluda on Monday on his way home from Williamston, where he went to attend to some special business on Sunday.
Messrs. W. D. and James Padgett were in town one day last week. Mr.
W. D. Padgett reports considerable reduction of cotton acreage in his section.

Rev. W. R. McMillan, the popular pastor of Chestnut Baptist church was in town on Wednesday.
Miss Sude Davis indulged a crowd of children in a very enjoyable egg hunt near the school grounds on last Saturday.
Rural Route Inspector Veasy has been in town this week.
Misses Carrie and Lula Bouknight were in town Saturday.
Prof. Jesse Lott was among the visitors here Sunday.

Miss Wakefield Madison, of the College for Women, spent Easter with her grand-parents, Mr. and Mrs. H.
A. Spann.
Mr. and Mrs. J. L. Eargle were in Batesburg last Saturday having their family carriages repaired. They brought their children to the Advocate office to see into the mysteries of the publishing business.
Miss Mary Eliza Fox and her friend Miss Annie Rogers of Union, S. C. have been spending their Easter holidays in Batesburg with Miss Fox's mother Mrs. Mamie Fox.
Miss Marie Boatwright one of Mrs.
Louisa Boatwright's charming daughters has paid Batesburg several visits of late.
Mr. W. C. Farber has returned from New York where he has been on business.
Mr. E. J. Hite, while playing in the house with his little son on Sunday fell backward on the floor, breaking his left arm just above the wrist.

Lexington Letter.
Easter has just past, and the hens are now taking a recreation.
Col. G. T. Graham has let the contract for the building of his new dwelling, which is now in course of erection.
Mr. A. D. Martin, a prominent young lawyer, of the Lexington Bar, made a business trip to Columbia Monday.
Little Ethel Derrick; daughter of Mr. Abner Derrick, died last Monday morning.
Dr. Crosson of Leesville, was seen on our streets last Monday. Come again Doc, we are always glad to see you.
Mr. S. P. Little has returned home from New Brookland, where he has been employed for several weeks.
The machinery is now being stationed in the new department, of the Lexington Cotton Mill.
Miss Kate Shull, the accomplished and charming daughter of Mr. Monroe Shull, who is now attending College in Columbia, spent Easter with the home folks.
Mr. Willie Schwartz of Columbia, came over and spent Easter with the old folks at home.
J. E. Boyd, of New Brookland, was arrested last Wednesday, charged with arson, and had a preliminary hearing on Friday following; but, there not being sufficient evidence to warrant the magistrate in sending him up, he was released, but, on Saturday 22nd he was rearrested and lodged in jail here, to await another preliminary trial which will be on the 25th instant.
The Old Soldiers will be glad to hear that the pension funds will reach Clerk George on May the 10th.
It is now a progressive age for Lexington; to see the new buildings going up will speak for itself.

EDGEFIELD NEWS.
On Friday night of this week, April 28th, the ladies of Trinity Episcopal Church, as heretofore announced, will give an entertainment at the home of Mrs. Kate W. Cheatham. The program will consist of vocal and instrumental selections by the best talent in Edgefield, and some numbers will be presented by out-of-town celebrities.
Some high-class recitations will also help to hold the audience with interest and profit. The admission fee will be ten cents. Refreshments will be served, consisting of ice cream and cake, tea, and a salad course, 15 cents. We would urge all our people, regardless of denominational lines, to attend this pleasing entertainment of these always noble women, and help them in their laudable effort to repair Trinity Church.
The musical program was exceptionally good at the Church of Our Saviour, Trenton, on Easter evening. In the absence of Miss Addie Hughes, Miss Lona Tillman presided at the organ, and the regular choir was ably assisted by Miss Ruby Hill and Mr.
Fred Long.
There was a business meeting of the Women's Literary Club at the residence of Miss Linnie Mims last week.
Mrs. Beryl Jones and Mrs. James H.
Tillman were elected delegates to represent this club at the convention of women in Union.
A certain Edgefield lady, while at dinner last week, had occasion to leave the table and go into her bedroom. Her footsteps on the carpeted floor were hardly audible, and her astonishment may be better imagined than described when it is stated that as she passed through the door she beheld her ladyship, the cook, posing behind the dresser mirror in lady's Easter bonnet on her head. A recital of what followed might not look well in print, so we omit details.

GILBERT NEWS.
Mr. T. P. Beard, the Southern's
Chief Dispatcher, was in town a short while Sunday afternoon.
Miss Frances Lindler of Leesville College came home last Friday to spend Easter.
Misses Smith and Miss Bannister, three of the finest in Leesville County, spent Easter with their parents.

VERN SPARROW.
Severn Twitterings.
Mrs. J. B. Stokes returned to her home at Batesburg Monday night after spending a few days with her father Mr. Ucal Gunter.
Miss Susie Shull, one of our popular girls, visited friends and relatives in Wagener last week.
Mr. E. B. Gunter was in town Monday on business.
We were glad to see our friend Mr.
Joe Harman, carrying the mail again, after being off duty for many days.
Mr. W. S. McGraw went over to Columbia Sunday to attend Easter services.
Misses Lizzie and Estelle Rawls visited their sister Mrs. Gunter at Steedmans Sunday.
We were glad to see Mrs. Jim Cof-er in town Sunday after being absent for one week.
Mrs. Della Jones accompanied by Mrs. J. B. Stokes' children returned to her home Saturday.
Misses Agnes, Lizzie and Brittie Gunter attended Easter services at Bethel church Sunday.
Mrs. Swinton Gunter spent Sunday at Steedmans.
Mr. Bunch Seigler spent Saturday and Sunday with Mr. J. S. Lybrand of Sardis.

ter of Lexington, Co., in town Saturday.
Miss Lillie Lybrand one of Waganer pretty girls spent Sunday with Miss Susie Shull.
The folks here will organize a Sunday School next Sunday. This much needed and we wish them much success.
Mr. Ed Shull has set himself up to beat the record, 1901 for miles, and two dandy something.

EDGEFIELD NEWS.
On Friday night of this week, April 28th, the ladies of Trinity Episcopal
give an entertainment at the home of Mrs. Kate W. Cheatham. The program will consist of vocal and instrumental selections by the best talent in Edgefield, and some numbers will be presented by out-of-town celebrities.
Some high-class recitations will also
help to hold the audience with interest and profit. The admission fee
be served, consisting of ice cream and
cake, tea, and a salad course, 15
cents. We would urge all our people, regardless of denominational lines, to
attend this pleasing entertainment of these always noble women, and help
them in their laudable effort to repair Trinity Church.
The musical program was exceptionally good at the Church of Our Saviour, Trenton, on Easter evening. In the absence of Miss Addie Hughes, Miss Lona Tillman presided at the organ, and the regular choir was ably assisted by Miss Ruby Hill and Mr.
Fred Long.
There was a business meeting of the Women's Literary Club at the residence of Miss Linnie Mims last week.
Mrs. Beryl Jones and Mrs. James H.
Tillman were elected delegates to represent this club at the convention of women in Union.
A certain Edgefield lady, while at
dinner last week, had occasion to
leave the table and go into her bedroom. Her footsteps on the carpeted
floor were hardly audible, and her astonishment may be better imagined
as she passed through the door she be-
held her ladyship, the cook, posing be-
bonnet on her head. A recital of
what followed might not look well in print, so we omit details.

GILBERT NEWS.
Mr. T. P. Beard, the Southern's
Chief Dispatcher, was in town a short while Sunday afternoon.
Miss Frances Lindler of Leesville College came home last Friday to spend Easter.

the Penitentiary last week and came home to see "pappy" on R. F. D. No.
1. You are always welcome Muller and we are glad to shake your hand at any time. Come again.
Mr. A. Crum Reynolds one of our boys, but, who is now working for J. C. Reynolds of Swansea, was up to see "Pa" last week and we hear on the 9th, that Crum was led here by old brother Cupid, if so Crum we wish you God speed on the matrimonial road.
Mr. W. W. Gilbert of Darret, Va but who is working for the U. S.
Agricultural Department has been spending a few days at Mr. Joe Johnson's in the interest of the Government experimental farm.
If any of you owe for a ms' box, why dont you pay for it?
Good luck to you fellows holding cotton.
FOR SALE.
