FRIDAY, JULY 27, 1906.

FOREWORD.

In the absence of Mr. N. Rogers Bayly I have consented to assume the duties of editor of this issue of the Advocate.

Wm. M. CARTER.

A WORTHY CANDIDATE.

Circumstances, happily open an opportunity of saying a word of praise for a candidate for the legislature in a sister county, and it is with great pleasure that the opportunity is grasped.

The Cashier of the First National Bank of Batesburg being a member of the state militia has arranged to take a two weeks holiday during the first part of August and in order to get away from his duties has arranged to have Mr. Ira C. Carson, of Johnston, an old bank man, fill his chair during his absence.

Even were it not for the personal interest which we could not refrain from thinking of the memorable words of Henry Clay, "I'd rather be right than be President."

PROGRESS--THE GOLDEN OPPORTUNITY.

We desire to point out to the citizens of Batesburg a mistake which they are about to make, and in doing so we earnestly trust that our motive will be understood and that this word of warning may serve to start rolling a sentiment for the continued prosperity and progress of our town.

It is a well established fact that we have one of the best towns in South Carolina, with opportunities and advantages which few sister towns of our size are favored; but the progress which has given Batesburg such a wide advertisement during recent years, will not, of its own weight, continue the upbuilding of the town in the face of the competition which our sister towns are developing.

There is beginning to show a decided tendency for trade, which is now ours, to drift to neighboring towns, and unless some decided effort is made on our part, more trade will follow the more enterprising markets, and finally the golden opportunity will have passed.

We call on the business men of Batesburg for serious thought of this matter, discuss it among each other
