FRIDAY, MARCH 20, 1908.

It is understood that Mayor Schmitz is preparing a remunerative magazine article on "Laws I have laughed at."

If you don't like what the newspaper said about you, just think how you would have felt if it had told all it knew about you.—Chester Lantern.

There is an appropriation now for building an addition to the White House attic. Probably as a storage place for a lot of the advice the President is always getting and never using.

Abse Hummel has nearly served out his term in the penitentiary and will be released in a few days. That shows how the old rascal was lying when he begged for a pardon because he was sick unto death, and would surely die unless released from prison at once.—Augusta Herald.

It is related in the press dispatches that a dozen mules that were lowered into an iron mine at Reno, Nevada, 30 years ago were recently raised to the surface again, where they displayed a curious interest in their surroundings, finally becoming stampeded by a snow storm that set in. The story is a good story and those that like it will like it, but mules must live to a good, ripe old age in Nevada and retain their youthful spirits to a remarkable degree. The ordinary South Carolina mule after surviving 20 years of hard labor, even if he is an animal not likely to take fright at so insignificant a thing as a little snow storm; the fact is, unless he were a white mule he would likely not be alive at all.—Sta. 3.

NEVER SATISFIED.

This is a sort of topsy-turvy world. No one seems to be satisfied. One man is striving to get justice, and another is flying from it. One man is saving up to buy a house, another is trying hard to sell his dwelling for less than it cost to get rid of it. One man is spending all the money he can earn in taking a girl to a theatre or show and in sending her presents in hopes that he may eventually call her his wife and his neighbor is spending all his gold he has saved to obtain a divorce. One man keeps a pistol to protect himself against burglars while another doesn't keep one for fear of shooting himself or some member of the family. One man pays for his paper in advance because he can read it with a great relish, while another takes it four or five years without paying one cent for it, and cusses the publisher if he is asked for a settlement. Surely a queer world this is.—Ex.

ONE AMONG MANY.

As a religious newspaper and as a representative organ of true and distinctive Baptist principles we know of none that can compare with the Western Recorder of Louisville, Ky. If we were the possessors of wealth like Carnegie, Rockefeller and others, instead of establishing libraries, endowing colleges and so on, we would put this paper in as many homes as our wealth would allow. To instill into the hearts of men and women the principles that it boldly sets forth is vastly more important and is fraught with greater possibilities for good than education, temperance or any other of the refining influences of the world. To educate the heart to such an extent that we may forget that we have a mind of our own and thus be able to live and speak the mind of God, seems to be the spirit and purpose of those who write for the Recorder. It stands not for itself, not for any man-made organization or opinion but for the truth as it is laid down in the word of God.

No Use to Die.

"I have found out that there is no use to die of lung trouble as long as you can get Dr. King's New Discovery," says Mrs. J. P. White, of Rushboro, Pa. "I would not be alive today only for that wonderful medicine. It loosens up a cough quicker than anything else, and cures lung disease even after the case is pronounced hopeless." This most reliable remedy for coughs and colds, lagrippe, asthma, bronchitis and hoarseness, is sold under guarantee at All Drugists, 50c, and $1.00 Trial bottle free.

Tickling or dry Coughs will quickly loosen when using Dr. Shoop's Cough Cure. And it is so thoroughly harmless, that Dr. Shoop tells mothers to use nothing else even for very young babies. The wholesome green leaves and tender stems of a lung healing mountain shrub give the curative properties to Dr. Shoop's Cough Cure. It calms the cough, and heals the sensitive bronchial membranes. No opium, no chloroform, nothing harsh used to lull or suppress. Demand Dr. Shoop's. Take no other. Gunter's Drug Store.
