PERSONAL

—We were pleased to meet again on Monday our old-time friend, Mr. G. E. Taylor, who has been absent for some time clerking either at Bishopville or Darlington. We hope to have him with us permanently.

—Mr. J. Miles Johnson, of Columbia, was in our sanctum on Friday. He is a clever fellow and we hope to see more of him.

—All who have met him are pleased with Mr. J. Cohen Morrison, of Hickory, N. C., who has been with us some weeks in the interests of an organ and piano concern.

—We were pleased indeed to see on our streets Monday, Captain L. L. Clyburn of DeKalb. He has been rather seriously ill with LaGrippe. We've been there, and are there now, so we can appreciate his former feelings.

—Mr. T. A. Myers, one of our valued friends is in bed with that miserable complaint, LaGrippe. We wish him a speedy recovery.

—Judge H. M. Fincher has been quite sick for the last few days, and is still considerably indisposed. LaGrippe. Hang it. There may be some wise purpose in the introduction of this disease in a community, but some things are hidden from mortals, and we confess that this is one of them.

—Brother J. J. Myers of Providence spent a too short time with us on Monday. It is needless to say that we are always glad to see him. If there is any class of men in the world that we hold in high respect and esteem, it is the preachers, and especially as broad-minded a member of the profession as Bro. Myers.

—Mr. R. L. Voss, who is engaged in work at the oil mill met with the painful accident of having two of his fingers broken last week through the breaking of a belt. He is getting along alright with them however.

—Captain S. C. Zemp deserves to have his hands held up by the members of the Kershaw Guards. The number who turned out for inspection was gratifying, but the boys can do better if they will.

—Mr. Will Adams, of Cheraw, spent Sunday with friends in Camden.

—Miss Katie Wilson is visiting her mother, Mrs. H. Wilson, at Charleston.

—We ran into a conference at the Baptist church last Sunday thinking we were going to preaching. A Rev. J. D. Moore was called to the pastorate here. He is now at Baruwel.

—Mr. W. A. Lazarus, who represents the Columbia Liquor Company, of Augusta, Ga., was in the city this week. Mr. Lazarus married Miss Adeline Hirsch, a sister of Mr. Gus Hirsch.

—Mr. Wm. B. Horne, of Washington, D. C., was in our office on Tuesday. He is a representative of the bureau of the census, and informed himself thoroughly concerning our business. We think our report to him was rather fair, considering the age of THE PEOPLE, but if our friends will continue to back us up as they have so far, we will give Mr. Horne a whole lot better one on the occasion of his next visit.

For Sale.
A desirable piece of property on Broad Street. Apply to Dr. I. H. Alexander.

Lost Pistol.
If the party who stole an Iver-Johnson pistol (a 32) out of the drawer of our table on last Thursday, will slip the same back quick, we will take no legal steps in the matter. We know who it is that committed the theft, and will await the return of the weapon only one week from this date. If we haven't it in possession by that time, look out.

Bucklen's Arnica Salve.
Has world-wide fame for marvelous cures. It surpasses any other salve, lotion, ointment or balm for Cuts, Corns, Burns, Bolls, Sores, Felons, Ulcers, Tetter, Salt Rheum, Fever Sores, Chapped Hands, Skin Eruptions; infallible for Piles. Cure guaranteed. Only 25c at F. L. Zemp's Drugstore.

Pianos and Organs.
Thoroughly tuned, cleaned and repaired.
R. B. Shaw.
Truesdell House.

Shoes at Cost for 10 Days.

For the next 10 days I will sell my entire stock of Ladies' and Gent's shoes at cost. I have a good stock of nice dress shoes as well as coarse shoes. I want to convert this stock into cash, hence I will sell my entire shoe line at cost for the next 10 days, for spot cash. I will also have a few nice trunks, which I will include in this cost sale.

BREVITIES.

—The Miles Orton show on Thursday and Thursday night was well attended, and it is only fair to say that it was about the cleanest and best show that it has been our pleasure to attend. Every act was a gem, and every actor a genius. Owing to the lateness of the train which brought them in, the high dive act that was advertised did not come off. We honestly think that the band, small in numbers as it was, was one of the finest we ever listened to. The selections played by them both on the street and at the tent were something of a revelation to music lovers, being of much higher order than is usually heard in travelling shows.

—Don't forget that we have an almost complete line of Legal Blanks.

Send your orders to the United Syndicate Buyers, 450 Broadway, New York City, N. Y., big or little, they are in the center of the metropolis and execute all orders to the very best advantage, looking out for their clients interests.

—Sanitas, after being exposed to the air for 24 or 36 hours, will lose the odor of paint and oil.

—Read, reflect and act on our clubbing offer. There is none better, few as good. The Augusta Chronicle is international in character. The People fairly well commended as a good county paper, the chart we offer is unexcelled and the whole business only $2.25 in advance.

—Coffins, cheaper than the cheapest at Geisenheimer's

—The fine weather we have been having lately has been the life of gardeners and truckers. May it still continue. We haven't all of our garden planted yet, but give us a few more good days, and we won't care whether our country friends bring us in those cabbage and the okra they promised us or not. We will want a watermelon occasionally however.

—Hang Sanitas the same as you would wall paper—the same paste, the same treatment. The goods butt easily, as Sanitas will stretch.

—Hang Sanitas the same as you would good paper and you will have no trouble. Sanitas was first introduced last year, and nearly 200,000 rooms were covered with it without one complaint as to its hanging properties.

—Read and take advantage of our clubbing offer. You will never have a better one, and this combination of The People with The Augusta Chronicle will make life for you "One Grand Sweet Song."

—All nature is springing responsive to the call of Spring. We have never seen a more beautiful opening or promise of a great fruit crop. This crop is a great blessing to the poor, and we earnestly hope that God, in His wisdom, will vouchsafe us this year an abundant harvest of it.

—Steel Ranges at all prices at Geisenheimers.

—We think all of our readers will be pleased with the change in the make up of THE PEOPLE which goes into effect this week. This is now the season when a farmer, if a farmer, has no time to read out an eight page paper, and a townsman rarely takes the time even if he has it to take.

—We want a purchaser for those two white squirrels. Some one of our Northern visitors can gain a little credit in presenting them to their favorite Zoo. $25.00 secures them.

—We have a number of very attractive ads. in the paper this week. Read them, and if in need of anything, call on the advertisers. Mention that you saw the ad. in THE PEOPLE.

—Sanitas is the best material for covering board partitions.

—Do you want to sell or buy property? Do you want to lease or rent property of any description? Do you want to buy or sell a cow, a horse, or anything animate or inanimate? If so, ask for what you want through the columns of The People. An advertisement with us never fails to bring results.

Nimrod Nunn Kills Himself.

We came across a newspaper item in an exchange the other day, and couldn't refrain from our besetting sin of writing poetry. Our poetry is a little off in quality as a rule, and if this happens to meet the eye of any member of the family, we hope that they will take no offense as none is intended.

A couple of weeks ago we discovered the following as a news item in an exchange and thought that some comment on it would be in order. We will not inflict the whole item on our readers, but will merely say that the party in question (a Mr. Nimrod Nunn) was a prosperous farmer, had a wife and six children, but was despondent because of ill health.

This explains the following lines, which will we hope deter others, under similar circumstances from following the example of Nimrod Nunn.

Mr. Nimrod Nunn was in very bad health.
Zest in life was lost, tho' well up in wealth.
He therefore concluded to take his life,
Though possessed of six children and a very good wife.

So about noon of March 21 he went to the river,
In weather that would give almost anyone a shiver,
Jumped into it a half mile from his house,
Now, don't you think he got a cold douch?

At any rate he was found on a raft,
As dead as any herring on a fishing craft,
So this is the last of Nimrod Nunn
He has made his fight and his race is run.

But where, oh where is Nimrod Nunn?
In the place of the blessed or the other one?
He is sitting right now on a bed of hot coal
Shovelling in with a trident on a red hot pole.

Fearful Odds Against Him.
Bedridden, alone and destitute. Such in brief, was the condition of an old soldier by name of J. J. Havens, Versailles, O. For years he was troubled with Kidney disease and neither doctors nor medicines gave him relief. At length he tried Electric Bitters. It put him on his feet in short order and now he testifies: "I'm on the road to complete recovery. Best on earth for Liver and Kidney troubles and all forms of Stomach and Bowel Complaints. Only 50c. Guaranteed by F. L. Zemp, Druggist."

GET THE HABIT

Never forget that a Clothier right,
A man who can fit out his patrons tight,
That is always and ever suave and polite,
Has the confidence of the people, black and white,
A man of the people, who according to his light
Never charges more than is just right.

Let us reason together on what goes above;
Everything in it is dictated in love.
Very few can say that, but all the same,
You can tell it to your neighbors and we'll bear the blame.

That prices are low is no fault of ours
He who doesn't buy now is burning hours
Eager patrons are claiming Levy as ours.

Come on, friends to our place,
Let us show you something good.
On the square this we can tell you,
That he can please you in any mood
How many have tried to give you ease,
In a mercantile way and failed to please?
