Marriage.
On Sunday, the 10th inst., by W. A. Schrock Notary Public, Mr. Robert Lowrey was happily united in matrimony to Miss Anna Atchison in the presence of a number of relatives and friends. The groom is one of the most substantial citizens of Dulzali, and the bride a very handsome young lady of this place. We wish them much happiness.

Death.
We regret to have to record the death of a young son of Mr. and Mrs. L. T. Dixon which sad event occurred the early part of last week. The death was reported too late for last week's issue.

A Narrow Escape.
G. W. Cloyd, a merchant, of Blunk, Mo., had a narrow escape four years ago, when he ran a jinnsun bar into his thumb. He says: "The doctor wanted to amputate it but I would not consent. I bought a box of Bucklen's Arnica Salve and that cured the dangerous wound." 25c. at F. Leslie Zemp's, Camden. Drug Company and Zemp & DePass druggists.

PERSONAL.

—Mrs. W. M. Hinson of this city left us on Monday for Union.

—Hon. W. R. Pinckney of Surveyor fame spent an hour or so in the city on Sunday.

—Capt. S. J. Benton, the famous hotel man of Kershaw was with us on Saturday.

—Mr. H. L. Ledford of Supter, a valued subscriber, was with us on Monday.

—Dr. L. B. Pultz of Port Kent, N. Y., has returned to us for the season. We are glad to see him again.

—Mr. J. Melvin Hall and party of friends left on Friday for Charlotte, N. C. We wish them a pleasant trip.

—Our good friend, Mr. D. M. McDonald of Bethune was here a few hours on Sunday. He is as jolly as ever.

—The condition of Mr. E. S. Nettles, Sr., continues practically unchanged. Strong hopes are entertained that there will be a marked improvement when real cool weather sets in.

—Rumors that Dr. I. H. Alexander has gone north are unfounded. He is doing business at the same old stand, and can extract or fill a tooth with more ease and grace than any dentist we know.

—Mr. Jackson, Agent for the Oliver Type-Writer was in the city on Saturday. He wouldn't agree to pay the boot we charged him on an exchange for our Remington, so we didn't trade.

SPARROW'S EMPRESS CHOCOLATE.—An elegant present for your sweetheart. For sale at Crosby's Ice Cream Parlor.

Sewerage.
We would like to know something about how this Sewerage business is getting on. After all the hullabaloo about it results ought to be forthcoming. So far, we have seen nothing.

Homicide—A Killing at Blaney.
On Thursday, November 7th, Mr. Warren Sanders of Blaney shot and killed Henry Moore, a negro working on a section of the S. A. L. The particulars of the occurrence have not reached us, but we are informed that at the inquest on the following day, held by Magistrate W. T. Jeffers, the jury brought in a verdict of justifiable homicide. Mr. Sanders is at liberty under a $500 bond for his appearance at the next term of court.

SPARROW'S EMPRESS CHOCOLATE.—Nothing finer. Packages from 5 cents up at Crosby's Ice Cream Parlor.

Third Semi-Annual Convention of the 5th District I. O. O. F. of South Carolina.
The 5th District Annual Convention of the Order of Odd Fellows convened with the Camden Lodge on the 12th inst., and a very pleasant time was had. Our space doesn't permit of an extended account, but we may say that the address of welcome delivered by the Hon. M. L. Smith fairly electrified his audience. The response by Mr. DePass was a gem.

This was, you will understand in open session, as were several other addresses, notably those delivered by Spec'1 Dis. D. G. M., S. A. Summersett and Rev. T. G. Scruggs, a representative to the Legislature from Chesterfield county.

We enjoyed the meeting hugely as good fellowship reigned throughout.

We have not ascertained the results of the secret session which immediately followed the public meeting. (IT IS MUCH REGRETTED THAT SO MANY OF THE SCHEDULED SPEAKERS WERE ABSENT.) Talks by Grand Master, Chas. L. Kelly, Col. E. H. Aull, Gen. Geo. Bell Timmerman and Hon. Cole L. Blease, would undoubtedly have added interest to the occasion.

The session of the order at night, followed by a banquet to the visiting brethren, were productive of good and good fellowship. Good to the order, and the re-coming of fellowship that had in many instances been estranged through trivial causes.

Executive Board Meeting.
The Executive Board of the Kershaw Association will meet in the Chronicle office in Camden November 25th, 1907, at 11 a. m. Any church wishing to join the Association, or any feeble church needing aid for the coming year, will please send application at once to the chairman at Kalb, S. C., and it will receive due consideration. The members of the Board are L. L. Clyburn, E. L. Copeland, W. D. Seegars, J. C. Price, J. M. Sowell, J. O. Moseley and Rev. W. S. Walters.

As there may be some very important matters to come before the Board at this meeting I will ask every member to be present if possible.

L. L. Clyburn,
Chairman.

Indigestion, Constipation and Insomnia.
I cured myself, Physicians and remedies failing. MARVELOUS DRUGLESS CURE, (no bread stuffs) all particulars free.

My Best Friend,
Alexander Benton, who lives on Rural Route 1, Fort Edward, N. Y., says: "Dr. King's New Discovery is my best earthly friend. It cured me of asthma six years ago. It has also performed a wonderful cure of inopulent consumption for my son's wife. The first bottle ended the terrible cough, and this accomplished, the other symptoms left one by one, until she was perfectly well. Dr. King's New Discovery's power over coughs and colds is simply marvelous." No other remedy has ever equaled it. Fully guaranteed by F. Leslie Zemp, Camden Drug Company and Zemp & DePass.
