WHERE IS THE REMEDY?

The Wallhalla Courier estimates that the various taxes to be imposed upon the poor tax payer this year—State, county and school taxes—will foot up over two million dollars, and thinks this enormous tax should be a living issue in the coming campaign. Well, suppose it is, how is it to be remedied?

PEN AND SCISSORGRAPHS.

The postage stamp will celebrate its fiftieth anniversary this year. — Mr. C. H. Suber, a prominent lawyer of Newberry, died on the 12th inst. — The merchants excursion to Wilmington from Fayetteville will take place on the 16th and 17th of April. — La Grippe is still doing sad work over the State, and many good people have fallen victims. — Of the twelve New York cities that had elections for mayor the Democrats were successful in eleven. — The demand for fertilizers is so great in Charleston that the railroads can't haul it away fast enough. — Mr. Julius Levy has been appointed Probate Judge for Georgetown county.

— Joseph W. James, charged with hiring three colored men to kill his father over in Darlington, has again been convicted. — The Senate has confirmed the nomination of George I. Cunningham to be United States Marshal for the District of South Carolina. — Siberia is said to have a spot of ground about thirty miles square that has not thawed out for a hundred years, and is frozen to a depth of sixty feet. — Sam Jones says that he would not give ten cents to hear Ingersoll on "The Mistakes of Moses," but he would give ten dollars to hear Moses on the mistakes of Ingersoll.

— Under its present management Frank Leslie's weekly newspaper is one of the most violent and bitter enemies that the South has. The Wilmington Messenger says no true Southerner should patronize it. — In the race for Mayor of Columbia McMaster received 511 votes and Rhett 509. The race will be run over on the 1st of April, as it was a primary race. — Gen. Johnson Hagood took occasion to say in a speech before the Farmers' Convention in Barwell that he was not a candidate for the office of Governor, and could not accept the nomination should it be tendered to him. — A leading Chinaman in New York, being chaffed on his custom of spreading a splendid feast for Joss, replied, with a broad celestial grin: "Chinaman teedee his God, lazy Christian man waitee for his God to teedee him."

— Col. James A. Hoyt, of Greenville, editor of the Cotton Plant, the State organ of the Farmers' Alliance, has been elected Chairman of the State Democratic Executive Committee. — All the sin that has darkened human life and saddened human history began in believing a falsehood. All the power of christianity to make men holy is associated with believing the truth. — It is proposed when the statue of General Robert E. Lee reaches Richmond, Va., to place it in a wagon to be drawn through the city by a rope a mile long. Men, and women even, are clamorous to have a hold of the rope. The unveiling will take place in May. — The Adjutant and Inspector General has received a request from Brigadier General C. J. Anderson, commanding 1st Brigade Virginia Volunteers, for the names and addresses of the military and Confederate veteran organizations of South Carolina in order that invitations may be sent them to attend the unveiling of Lee's statue in Richmond on the 29th of May.

— The period of prosperity through which our country is passing presents problems that call for thought and solutions. Two thousand capitalists own more than all the rest of the sixty-five millions of our population. Two hundred and fifty thousand rich men control 75 per cent. of the national wealth. The American Republic is therefore practically owned by less than one quarter of a million of persons. If present causes which produce concentration of capital continue, the Republic will soon be owned by less than fifty thousand men. This rapid concentration of wealth in a few hands gives to trusts and monopolies the power to control the government and tax the people indirectly for their support. If it be true that the rich are growing richer and the poor poorer, it will require the wisdom of true statesmen to prevent the clashing of interests and collision of classes. — A. R. Presbyterian.

— The weather has trumped us. We have been reading upon the weather signs, Horschels, Hicks, &c., and all have failed and vegetables killed. I think Uncle Joel could be of more service to his community and ours if he would quit cutting stove wood and devote more of his attention to his weather signs. I am told that he has a pet sign by which he is entirely governed as to rain which never fails. He has two weights suspended by a cord and he can tell very accurately when it is going to rain. Will Uncle Joel tell us all about some of his signs, especially this one? GUESS AGAIN. March 18, 1890.

— The recent cold spell caused a great many to replant their gardens. Some had plants big enough to set out, but they got killed. We are glad to report the improved condition of Miss Sue Beverly, who has been quite sick for some time with a severe case of the grip. Mr. W. J. Pate is doing a good business with his grist mill. Mr. Alvi Newton has rented Mr. A. W. Moore's engine and saw mill and moved it on Mrs. Lizzie Pearson's place, where he is receiving large orders every day. We wish Alvi much success in the mill business. Mrs. Mary Gray has a good school at the Moore school house. Boy. March 18, 1890.

Dots from Red Hill.

Mr. Editor:—Please allow us a little space in your most valuable paper.

We have had another heavy rain accompanied by some freezing weather. Your reporter was talking to that big-hearted neighbor of our Mr. J. H. Thomas. He told us that he had charge of the same at Hunt's Bluff Friday, and only caught one hundred and thirteen. God bless you, Mr. T., we are very fond of shad.

We are sorry to report that Mr. James E. Cox is very ill with a rising in his head.

Mr. G. B. W. Dunn and family are all sick with the grip.

The next time that we see Mr. H. G. P. we will inform him that five drakes were seen last Sunday night week. So the next time he goes hunting he had better carry "back shot" in the place of "snow balls," as he will find them much harder to kill than "ducks."

Some of our roads are in a fearful condition. The boys say that it is the "cow track."

Your reporter heard that there is a young man in our community that has made five hundred dollars and a horse and buggy this year by courting. It must pay; wish I was single again.

Can you tell us, through your paper, why it is that some people go to God's house to misbehave? Also, why the back seats in our churches are so popular?

What a happy world this would be if every man would attend to his own business and let his neighbor's alone.

Some people wear two faces, And that is very unfair, For when you look for a man You expect to find him there.

Don't always be finding fault, And talking about your brother, For if you talk about another You'll talk about another.

Oh, no, don't never shake his hand, Wearing that false face, And then go off and hand him around, Saying he is not fit for the place.

If there is a man You think hasn't done you right Don't sneak around And try to stab a harmless man for spite.

Some people love to tell you news, They think it very kind To tell you something they think Will always please your mind.

But if they knew What other folks were thinking, Perhaps they would see what fools they were For trying to be kind.

We cannot blame some people though, They cannot help but tattle, For long ago I heard it said An empty cart would rattle.
