 Oak Grove, August 30
 Pleasant Hill, September 13

TILL AHEAD.

We hear from good authority that C. T.
 Moore has the finest cotton in the county—50 acres estimated at 200 bales.

UNITED STATES JURORS.

Messrs. James A. Drake and J. N.
 Weatherly have been drawn to serve as Grand Jurors, and Messrs. Colin Byrd and J. M. Gardner as Petit Jurors at the Columbia term of the United States Circuit Court, which meets on the fourth Monday in November.

RAILROAD DOT.

One morning last week a merchant of this town handed a young man from the country, who was going home by the depot, a couple of letters to mail for him, as the mail had already gone down. The young man responded to the request, with the proviso, that he would certainly mail them, and if the train was gone when he did, these he would not run to "Baltimore" and read them there.

THE RIVER.

One of the correspondents in a notice in Monday says: "The river is very full and rising rapidly. Corn and other crops on the low land are lost. Cotton in shedding is killed from excessive rains. Mosquitoes and gnats can be stirred with a stick, and a man don't keep his mouth shut he will not require much to eat. Persons suffering from anti-fa can be cured by coming on the river."

DOWN TO WILMINGTON.

The Democrat returns thanks to Mr.
 Henry L. Cook, chairman of committee of arrangements for round trip ticket to Carolina Beach on the 20th, instant, from Fayetteville. The excursion is under the auspices of Cumberland Lodge No. 5 K. of O. The Lodges of Bennettsville, Tatum, Maxton, Laurinburg and Gibson Station have been invited to join Cumberland in this day's pleasure. If it is possible the Democrat will accept the invitation and be on hand.

NEW STORE TO BE OPENED.

Messrs. Brown and Granson, of Lancaster, will open a branch of their mammoth Dry Goods House in our town about the first week in September. They have secured the new brick store next door to P. P. Campbell on Front Street, where they will open a strictly Dry Goods Store.
 With a thorough knowledge of the trade, they hope to secure a fair share of the business done in that line. Remember the time and place.

THE NEW SCHEDULE.

The new schedule on the C. F. & Y. V.
 R. R., which went into effect on the 4th, does not effect us yet, though we were informed it would. It starts the train for Bennettsville at the same time the train leaves for Wilmington. This change would give us the mail one hour earlier and be of great advantage to our people at present, the schedule is in the interest of Fayetteville without regard to the wishes of the patrons on this end, which is a serious wrong, and one which we do hope in the interest of justice will be righted soon.

THE CAMPAIGN MEETINGS.

The county campaign meetings open today (Friday) at Blenheim. The hour fixed by the chairman of the two clubs which meet there is 2 o'clock p. m. Everybody of course is invited to be present.
 As most of the candidates will have something to say at these meetings, the hour of 2 o'clock is none too soon, so try and be on hand promptly at the time that you may hear all the addresses. There will be but five appointments—Blenheim, Clio, 19th, Newtonville, 20th, Grant's Mills 22nd, and Bennettsville, Monday 25th. Remember that the hour for all the meetings is 2 o'clock.

A GENTLEMAN FROM BENNETTSVILLE.

A gentleman from Bennettsville went up to Red Springs on Tuesday and says he is going to attend the Fair sure—he was delighted with the Fair Grounds.

LOCAL DOTS.

Items of Interest Gathered Here and There and Briefly Noted.

—The colored Odd Fellows have rented the upper part of the old Rowe building on Marion or Depot Street, and will fit it up for their use.
 —It is a little strange that the officers of the law can't catch up with those fellows who sell whiskey in this com' unity.
 —The heavy rains are filling up the wells and are giving us plenty of surface water to drink.

—It is said that a bunch of clover hung up in a sitting room or bed room will clear it of flies. You can find enough to test it.
 —The base ball fever is now the prevailing epidemic of our town Some of our boys seem to have a severe attack.
 —Fodder pulling has commenced, and the farmers are having a time getting it cured dry.

—The rains have helped to make a good crop of grass, which the farmers should save if they neglect out-town.
 —It was said of a loan horse the other day that "he was so thin that the sun struck through and set the hay inside on fire."

—Oh, I'm engaged to Peter and John, And Abner, James and Earle, And Henry, William, George and Don, For I'm a Summer girl.
 —Zeb Vance, the best stump orator in North Carolina, will address the crowd at Red Springs to-day (Friday) before and go.

 accommodation of the traveling public.
 Orders by mail from Drummers will receive land on Monday, that weighed 66 lbs.

 This is the largest melon seen on our streets this season.

—Marlboro is going to Red Springs this week. Ain't you going too?

—Everybody blesses the Railroad for keeping the mails at Fayetteville without just cause. It seems that this end of the road has no rights that the authorities are bound to respect, and when we get the road south, we should remember the kind treatment received in the interest of Fayetteville through for the Atlantic Coast Line.

—You will find all kinds of the specialties at the Clio Drug Store.
 Bald headed men can be suited to a T., —any others just as well.

 man in the county can pay for it. Eggs,

J. B. Killough & Co., of Florence, S. C., report a large success in business and territory. They are now supplying towns with Pianos and Organs from Georgetown on the sea coast to the Blue Ridge Mountains in North Carolina. See their new advertisement and write to them—all advertisement of the Moore High School.

 introduction.

PERSONAL.

Mr. Clarence P. Moore is on a visit to Union this week.
 Mrs. T. W. Boucher and little Henry, and Mrs. D. J. Fraser, who have been spending some weeks at Mt. Vernon Springs, returned home on Thursday evening last.

Mr. M. F. Elerbe, who has been spending a short furlough with his family at Wadesboro, returned to his post on Friday.

The DEMOCRAT rejoices to record the continued improvement in health of Mr.
 H. P. Johnson. He is now at Red Springs with his family.

We are glad to see on our streets the smiling face of Mr. C. B. Jordan, who is on a visit to friends and relatives of our town. Charlie looks well.

Mr. H. W. Carroll left on Tuesday morning for the north to buy his fall stock and take in Saratoga.

Our young friend, Harris Bristol left on Tuesday to try a session at the famous New Garden School.

Miss Etta Campbell, a charming young lady of Mullins has been spending sometime with the family of Mr. A. B. Bryant, of Parnassus. She expects to return home on Saturday, much to the disappointment of several young gents, especially one from Clio.

HOW TO KILL WORMS.

The Alabama farmers have been experimenting and claim that the best way to kill cotton worms is with dry paris green shaken over the plant by means of a bag and pole. With a bag and pole one man with a horse can poison a one-acre crop in two days. With proper precaution there is no danger, and the man should change his clothes daily while working it, and the animal should be washed and thoroughly brushed. The plan is cheap and safe, and there is no reason for losing any cotton by these pests.

UP FOR COURT.

On Saturday afternoon last, complaints were made to Coroner Sampson, that the brutal treatment of a mother had resulted in the death of a little colored girl named Charlotte Williams. He at once impaneled a jury of inquest, and after hearing testimony, a post mortem was made by Dr.
 David, which fully substantiated the testimony. The jury, composed of 9 colored and 5 whites, being satisfied that it was a clear case, returned a verdict that the child came to its death from ill treatment at the hands of its mother. The Coroner at once committed her to jail.
 The woman's name is Violet Williams, and has been living around town for two or three years. She was raised in Brownsville, and those who know her, say this makes six or eight that have died from her ill treatment. The case is a bad one and if the jury believe the testimony, she may pull hemp in November.

FIVE AT THE DOOR.

The last Maxton Union says there are five petitions before the Commissioners of that township praying for the privilege of selling liquor in that town. It is to be hoped they won't be successful. What a picture! Five men praying for a license to work for the Devil in a civilized community.

RELIGIOUS NOTES.

Rev. W. H. Kirton has had a glorious meeting at Beauty Spot. On Tuesday night there were some 20 mourners at the Altar. There has been a general awakening up in the church—several additions, a large number of conversions, and a who-some influence set to work that will result in a great good in that community. Rev.
 Mr. Kirton grows in favor with his people, and God is blessing his faithful labor on this circuit.

OLD WOFFORD.

The attention of parents and guardians is directed to the advertisements of Wofford College and Wofford College Training School. The Methodist boys call it "our school," and from the number registered there last year from this county, it seems they were right. Prices compare with other colleges.

Statistics show that a large proportion of the children die from what is known as Summer Complaint, Diarrhea, Cholera Infantum and Dysentery. Hum-are safe and certain.

 God, and acknowledge His right to dispose of us and our interests as seems good in His mind.
