GRAND * FALL * OPENING

For 1892.

We are now opening one of the Largest and Most Complete Stocks of GENERAL MERCHANDISE ever brought to this market, and WE PROPOSE TO SELL these Goods at a price which will not only amaze but terrify our competitors and make our Customers Laugh for Joy. Our highest ambition is success, and this is obtainable only through the assistance of our customers, and in future we intend to Devote our entire time to their interest, and all we ask in return, to insure our success and their prosperity, is a "helping hand." We advertise what we have, and customers calling for goods advertised will not be answered with that old phrase "Just out, but expected to arrive on next train." Now, to convince you that we mean every word we have said, we will quote a few prices on each line of Goods we handle—

DRY GOODS.

McCOLL MARBLE WORKS,

McColl, S. C.

To My Friends and the Public generally—GREETING:

HAVING sold my interest in the McColl Marble Yard to J. W. McElwee, I take pleasure in saying I have opened the McColl Marble Works, where I shall continue to offer for sale anything needed or desired in Monumental or neat Headstone Work. Any one in need of work in this line I especially invite to correspond with me or visit my place of business at McColl, S. C., before placing your orders, feeling assured that I can make it to your interest to do so.

If you should visit McColl with the view of purchasing in this line, I am located on Front Street next door above Gibson & Morrison's store from depot.

Designs and Prices Readily Furnished on application, either by mail or in person.

Thinking my friends both white and colored for past favors, I only ask a continuation of the same in the future.

Very respectfully,
W. W. PATE.

REOPENED!

I take pleasure in announcing that I have rented and reopened the LIVERY, and FEED STABLES at corner of Cheraw and Darlington Streets, so well known for room and accommodations, and am prepared to serve the public with good teams. I pay special attention to drummers. Parties wanting teams on Sunday must leave their orders on Saturday, as the Stable is not open on Sunday except for delivery and re-ception of teams. Respectfully,

SMITH NEWTON,
Bennettsville, May 12th, 1892.

YOUR ATTENTION—PLEASE!

IF YOU WANT TO SAVE MONEY!

I AGAIN COME BEFORE THE PUBLIC ANNOUNCING MYSELF AS a candidate—not for office, however—but for business. You can still find me at the same old stand, but you will find my Horses, Mules, Buggies, Wagons, Road Carts and Harness at my new stables, recently built alongside my Holidy stables, which are now run by Mr. J. H. Blanton. I have on hand now, a good lot of WILL BROKE HORSES AND MULES, at the lowest prices; I have bought them to sell, and I will be glad to see and make prices with any one wanting such things. I have still on hand a full supply of the OBLIATED both open and top. Also, the TYSON & JONES BUGGIES, HAYDOCK & DAVIS Buggies, both open and top, Road Carts, etc., all at the same old price except the Road Carts, which are cheaper.

Patronize Home and I will GUARANTEE SATISFACTION.

I keep constantly on hand a supply of LUMBER, both dressed and undressed, also a lot of Shingles. I can furnish WOOD at an hours notice. Five hundred loads now on hand ready for market. Situated between my residence and Dr. Jordan's place, in the healthiest portion of East Bennettsville, I offer 25 NICE BUILDING LOTS FOR SALE. I have them so I can sell them; so come and look at them and get prices. We need more people in our town to take advantage of our elegant school here. By living in town you can get your children educated free; so come and buy some lots. Remember where I can be found.

To you dear friends, who owe me a little balance, and have not made satisfactory arrangements, you had better come and see me before you find yourselves in the hands of the Mercantile Association and Farmers' Alliance.

W. P. Breeden.

April 26, 1891.
