Mr. Arrowood is an able and eloquent divine, and we congratulate our Presbyterian friends in being able to secure his visit. The public cordially invited to each service.

Book to Home Row.
A number of public graduates to the wants of suffering Neighbors have been provided for and in the next crop to be purchased for the State. Now let our people not overlook that we too have some need, and if occasion requires need be prepared to respond.

More Rough Weather.
Hicks' prediction that everything would be frozen Monday morning was fulfilled. Now, for the 22d and 24th, when all storms are to be eclipsed with one that will strike terror to man and beast. Prepare plenty of wood and make provision to house your cattle.

Painters for Bennettsville.
A new industry at Greenville is a broom factory, which, it is said, is doing an excellent business. The company proposes to buy all the broomcorn in its section of the State, and it is expected that the demand will start up the industry of growing broomcorn, and the farmers will have a new "cash crop."

A company has been formed at Westminster, Oconee county, starting a factory for the manufacture of shuttles and bobbins used in cotton mills, and its establishment is assured. The best of timber for the manufacture of these articles abounds here.

PROTECTION & PROTECTS.
The Fidelity Mutual Life Association of Philadelphia, one of the safest, soundest and securest life insurance companies in the world, will insure your life at much lower rates than the old-fashioned, legal reserve companies. The Fidelity Mutual has had a steady and healthy growth during the sixteen years of its existence. Its total assets are now over fifteen times its total liabilities. It places insurance at as near actual cost as practicable, while, at the same time, its safety clauses make failure impossible. It will pay you to investigate this matter.

Messrs. W. D. Evans, H. M. Stackhouse and John C. Campbell attended the meeting of the State Alliance at Columbia on Tuesday.

Mr. Julius T. Dudley, who has been absent in the north for over a year, came home on Monday. He shows his recent illness, but will soon recuperate at home.
Mr. Walter R. McLaurin, of McCol, was in town Tuesday and smiled on the DEMOCRAT. With large hearted, patriotic citizens like him hard times never come.

Rev. W. I. Herbert, of Florence Station came over Saturday, took dinner with Mr. L. E. Gaston and was taken to Bennettsville by Presiding Elder J. B. Wilson in the afternoon. He is on a visit to his father, Rev. T. G. Herbert of Bennettsville circuit.

His Honor Judge D. A. Townsoul, who is now holding the Courts of the Fourth Circuit, came over from Cheslerfield on Friday and spent the night with Mr. C. F. Moore, who married a niece. He came to town on Saturday and is the guest of the Commercial Hotel. The Judge is at home in Marlboro, having been born and raised on the line between Clio township and the Marion line. He graduated at Davidson college with 1st honors when only 19 years of age. Soon after he went to Union, and made it his home.

He fills the chair with ease, grace and dignity and despatches business with the celerity of an old veteran. His friends everywhere are proud of him.

Pythian Journal.
Rev. A. W. Moore, of Florence, and a noted journalist was in town Monday soliciting subscribers for this new paper recently started in Columbia for the benefit of the order. Mr. Moore is traveling correspondent and his letters are full of interest.

Marlboro Menagerie.
Mr. W. W. Evans, one of Marlboro's bright young men, has been appointed Assistant Adjutant and Inspector General of the County Militia, with the rank of Colonel. His home is now in Columbia.

Change of Schedule.
Another change in the running of the passenger train on the C. F. & Y. V. Ry. went into effect on Sunday last. The hour for leaving now is 7 o'clock in the morning instead of 7:30. The evening train arrives at 7:25 instead of 8.

The Prettiest Yet.
The editor returns thanks to the New York Engraving Co., one of the best photo engraving companies in the world, for a superb calendar for 1895—one of the handsomest we ever saw.

Comes to the Rescue.
It is said that the human frame like the stove requires more food to keep up the heat in cold weather. Mr. A. J. Rowe has acted on the suggestion and is prepared to enter to the wants of any family at the lowest prices. Just read his bill of fare and see how cheap you can satisfy your wants this cold weather without much cooking.

DEATHS DOINGS.
The friends and acquaintances of Mr. and Mrs. Essinger, sympathize with them in the loss of their infant babe on Saturday morning last.

Died on Sunday night at his home in Bennettsville, after a protracted illness, Mr. Joel Hall, one of the oldest citizens of that township—89. He was a good man, of whom we can write in the language of the Psalmist, "A good man shall abide in the tabernacle. Who shall dwell in the holy hill? He that walketh uprightly and worketh righteousness." Of him it can be truly said "he wore the white flower of a blameless life." Peace to his ashes.

More Changes.
Mr. Willie Esterling, who was superintending of J. N. Weatherly's Adamsville farm last year, is now doing business for Mr. W. P. Breeden.

Mr. Sidney J. DuPree has moved up to the Barnes farm above town, now owned by his uncle, J. R. Webster, and will run that place this year.

The experience of Mr. R. D. Whitley, an influential and prominent citizen of Marlboro, North Carolina, will no doubt be perused with interest by people in all parts of the country. For years he has been subject to violent attacks of inflammatory rheumatism; on the first of February he had an attack, which settled in one of his knees and caused almost unbearable pain, for two days. He obtained a bottle of Chamberlain's Pain Balm from W. M. Houston & Co., merchants at Mecklenburg City, N. C. He writes that it gave him immediate relief and gives Chamberlain's Pain Balm the highest praise, and advises all persons troubled with like affections to use it and get relief. For sale by Douglas Jennings, Bennettsville, S. C.

A Des Moines woman who has been troubled with frequent colds, concluded to try an old remedy in a new way, and accordingly took a tablespoonful (four times the usual dose) of Chamberlain's Cough Remedy just before going to bed. The next morning she found that her cold and almost entirely disappeared. During the day she took a few doses of the remedy (one teaspoonful at a time), and at night again took a tablespoonful before going to bed, and the following morning awoke free from all symptoms of the cold. She then also has, on several occasions, used this remedy in like manner, with the same good results, and is much elated over her discovery of so quick a way of curing a cold. For sale by Douglas Jennings.

Attention Taxpayers.
THE TIME for the payment of taxes expires beyond a doubt on the 28th of February. Not that the taxes have yet been paid, and there is now only eight days in which to pay. I will leave to you three hundred receipts per day in order to finish up by the time the books close, which I could do by writing steadily from daylight until dark, provided you commence now, but if this matter is deferred until the last two or three days, it will be an impossibility to wait on all of you. The law is inexorable that the 15 per cent. penalty must be imposed immediately on the close of the books, but my friends you cannot afford to be caught in this dilemma these hard times when a dollar means so much. I will be in the Treasurer's office early and late, until midnight if need be, from now until 28th February.
R. H. HODGES,
County Treasurer.

Wilson, 371 Clay St., Philadelphia, Pa., says he will not be without Dr. King's New Discovery for Consumption, Coughs and Colds, that it cured his wife who was threatened with Pneumonia after an attack of "LaGrippe," when various other remedies and several physicians had done her no good. and various ones who are bent on hoarding. There is only one ultimate source for the gold coin held today in the bank vaults subject to statistical enumeration, and in the scores of deposit companies and private vaults out of all numerical ken. That source is the United States government vaults, and the several deals shows a profitable business in the process of the gold out and putting it about the street.

It is a standing joke about the gold out and putting it about the street. It is a standing joke about the gold out and putting it about the street. It is a standing joke about the gold out and putting it about the street.
