Our Next Council.

Pursuant to notice there was a general turn out of voters Wednesday afternoon to nominate a ticket for the next two years. Business generally was suspended for near two hours, and not in the history of the town has there been as much interest taken in the selection of a ticket. The choice made is as follows:

For Mayor—C. S. McCall.

For Wardens—J. F. Breeden, C. E. Exum, John T. Douglas W. S. Rowe.

The Ticket is a good one and gives general satisfaction.

The election takes place next Tuesday.

Meeting of Camp Henegan.

There was a large and enthusiastic meeting of Camp Henegan in the Court House on April 1. Commander J. H. Hudson called the Camp to order, and the annual collection of dues was taken up by the Adjutant. On motion of Comrade Henegan, the faithful officers of last year were renominated for re-election for the new year and unanimously elected as follows:

Commander—J. H. Hudson,
Lt. Commander—P. L. Breeden,
Adjutant—C. M. Weatherly,
Chaplain—J. G. Richards,
Surgeon—J. L. Napier.

After remarks by the Commander on the interest the Camp should take in the State reunion in May, the Camp proceeded to elect delegates as follows:

J. H. Hudson, P. L. Breeden, Rev. J. G. Richards, and should either of these fail to go, those representatives of the Camp present were enpowered to appoint delegates.

Miss Lula Rogers, daughter of Col B. A. Rogers of our town, was unanimously elected Sponsor for the Camp at Columbia.

The Commander then read a circular letter from Gen. Gordon in reference to the reunion at Memphis and the following delegates were elected:

C. S. McCall,
S. J. McInnis,
J. H. Davis.

Alternates J. H. Hudson, J. L. Napier, P. L. Breeden. Sponsor Miss Tennessee Calhoun of Olio.

There being no further business the Camp adjurned.

J. H. HUDSON,
Commander.
C. M. Weatherly, Adjutant.

PEN AND SCISSOR GRAPHS

Mr. B. F. Newcomer, one of the moving spirits of the A. C. Line, died Saturday in Baltimore.

M. L. Clark, formerly editor of Marion Star, has joined the army and will go to the Philippines.

General Edward McCrady's third volume of South Carolina history has just been published.

Senator Tillman has been elected anniversary orator of the commencement of Erskine college in June.

The Abbeville cotton mills shipped three car loads or 210 bales of cloth to Shanghai, China this week.

Senator McLaurin is pulling for the Charleston exposition. All doubt of his being in the field for reelection is now set at rest.

It would be rather a good joke if McLaurin lands for the Charleston exposition the government exhibit that Tillman couldnt get.

Two young ladies of Charleston have just graduated at the Charleston Medical College. Now what will the State Board do about their recognition as M. D's.

Remember the bargain counter sale this week at Mittle's store.

OLIO CORRESPONDENCE.

Items of Interest From This Hustling Little City.

I received a letter from a subscriber to your paper on Friday asking me to comment on the treatment Dr. Carradine met with in Denton Texas. I don't like to place myself on record as a champion of any man's cause, unless he is right, and I of my own knowledge know that he is right. In this case, my mind tells me that if Dr. Carradine is the same man that he was when he was in Bennettsville—if he preaches the same religion that he preached while in Bennettsville; if he is living the life he lived while in Bennettsville; if he is still doing the good that he did in Bennettsville and surrounding country—that he is head and shoulders above Harless and his entire board of Stewards, so far as genuine religion is concerned. It was my privilege to hear Dr. Carradine preach. I did not like some of his gestures and illustrations but I liked his earnestness and the gospel that he preached—a forgiving spirit Benevolence and higher living. If that is not in accordance with the life of Christ, then Harless and his crowd are right. If it is in accordance with the life of Christ Harless and his crowd in Texas Hairless and his crowd in S. C., had better get right. Somebody has got to get right and I had rather be Carradine than the other crowd, and not have to get right. I have been asked to comment on this and I have done so. It is time to quit ceremony and fixed laws and get the old time genuine religion that makes a man keep sober, do unto others as he would be done by, not use the church as a cloak to hide his infernal meanness and let such men as Dr. Carradine help and show them how to live and preach the gospel as well.

I am sick and tired of seeing people go to Church and sit back and sing "oh! that with yonder sacred throng I at his feet may fall" and never do anything, however little it may be, to entitle them to fall at the feet of the merciful Saviour only on Sunday morning at Sunday School or when there is preaching at Our Church.

Dr. Carradine is not allowed to preach in churches, but there are others that can to "Men Only" and use language that would make a dog hide his head in shame and that too in God's house. Lord deliver me any more from hearing a sermon preached, where the pure women of our land are not invited to be present. Somebody won't like this. If people will not ask me as in this case to write on these things you won't hear from me on this line, but if they do ask me through the mail. I always give my own opinion and no one else's—uncaring consequences.

Bennett's Spring opening was up to-date. More pretty girls to look at the pretty hats. Everybody in the store as busy as bees, for the sweetness was certainly there if I am not blind, and I don't think I am. But I have been ordered to stop this writing about pretty girls, by one who (?) is in authority over my bald head. One more word and I'll quit. Lord knows there was pretty women and pretty hats at Bennetts on Thursday, you neednt say anything about it but some of them, I mean girls are there yet, and I reckon will be till the seminar is over. God bless the women of our country, on them hangs the destiny of our future. Pure girls, model wives, noble mothers who teach their children by precept and example that a good name is rather to be chosen than great riches.

The case against Thos Dean for false arrest was dismissed. Evidence was not sufficient to bind him to court.

Town election going on here to-day—everything quiet.

Two of the burglars have been caught. As there have been lies enough told about who saw them and where they got dinner and supper and break fast at, I won't try my hand although I am pretty good. Some of them can beat me drawing on she imagination, you bet. I never saw them and don't want to unless they are securely confined, I am afraid they might "bust my safe."

The Town Council has acted wisely and ordered the bicycles to keep in the middle of the road. No more grinning monkeys to ring ladies off the street into the ditch and then ride on and laugh at them.

The town election is now over. The ticket elected is as follows:

Intendant—J. E. McLeod.
Wardens—J. H. Barentine, J. P Edens, J. A. Herring, S. L. Bristow.

This gives us a set of town officers that suits everybody in town.

No news unless we have another safe blowing, fight or capture a blind tiger, which is not at all likely.

ReVival Services.

Rev. Coates an earnest and zealous evangelist of North Carolina is holding revival services at the Cotton Mill this week. The services are being held in one of the houses and it is regretted that they have no building large enough to accommodate all able and willing to attend. They deserve a chapel, and we are glad to learn that a movement is on foot to get one, and already over $200 has been subscribed.

There are some good families living down there that are alive to needs and with some outside help have an organized Union Sunday School that is doing a good work. They need encouragement and help and they should have it in the way of a large house for worship.

DEAHT'S DOINGS.

Died at his home in Brightsville township on Friday last after a short illness of typhoid fever, Mr. Peter Breeden, son of the late Thomas Troy Breeden—aged about 23 years. He was buried at Smyrna cemetery on Saturday.

See Mittles line of baby caps then you will buy.

DOTS FROM KEY.

Farmers are very busy some have planted corn though the heavy rains last week stopped work.

Gardens are looking well.

The recent rains have caused the streams to swell, some of the creeks are so deep they can not be crossed, there is a big freshet.

Mr. George Miles died Sunday night Morch 24, he had been sick quite awhle, he was buried at Brownsville Tuesday 26, the funeral services were conducted by Rev. J. G. Richards of Blenheim.

Miss Mary Clyde Hodges of Florence who has been teaching in the Brownsville High School closed her years work last Friday She spent Friday to Sunday with Misses Etta and Eliza Rogers, she returned to her home in Florence Monday, much to the regret of her many Brownsville friends.

Mrs. Corkhill of Chester S. C., mother of Mr. Giles P. Corkhill who has been teaching at Key spent last week with her son. Mr. Corkhill closed his school last Friday night with quite a nice entertainment. He has made many friends during his stay among us who wish much success wherever he may go.

Messrs R. L Freeman and Harris Bristow passed through our country one day last week.

Methodist S. S. Conference.

The next conference of the Methodist Sunday Schools of Marlboro will be held at Beauty Spot May 3 and 4. The Secretary has written the pastors of the charges in the county, and, as every Superintendent is a member, it is expected with a hearty cooperation, that every Sunday school will be represented. The success of the conference depends largely upon the attendance and interest shown by the active workers in the county. Then give your interest by your presence at the coming conference. Let every school elect delegates who will be willing to give at least two days to this work. Beauty Spot will do her part and workers in the Sunday School should do theirs.

A Want Supplied.

It is with pleasure we chronicle the fact that Bennettsville is now supplied with a Bakery. Through the public spirit of Mayor McCall, who built a large oven and necessary conveniences, Mr. Shultz, an experienced baker, has come and opened up, and is now prepared to supply our citizens with choice fresh bread, cakes, pies, and will take orders for any quantity for parties, weddings, &c. Call and see him at his store, northeast corner of the public square.

Salesday in APril.

The first Monday in April was clear but cool, and a fair crowd came to town. There were no official sales, but antioneer David sold a number of horses and mules. Mr. J. S. Covington had some Plymouth Rock and Leghorn eggs for sale and Mr. C. F. Covington had a fine Jersey cow on exhibition. Camp Henegan had an interesting meeting and an effort was made to hold a meeting of cotton growers, but our people it seems need no talk or pledges to protect themselves. Very many, we learned, have given up cotton and are now going into stock raising, poultry and truck farming. The large purchase of fertilizers many of them tell us means more corn and bacon, and plenty to eat.

C. experiment station if you are after the number, and are not particular as to the flavor of the eggs your hens lay, feed them wheat shorts, cotton-seed meal and skim milk, but if you want a nice flavor, with fewer but larger eggs, feed them on cracked corn and corn dough.

The Law must Be Obeyed.

With all that has been written on the subject it seems not yet to be generally known that the law of our State Board of Health forbids the shipping of or removal of dead bodies from one place to another without being embalmed or specially prepared for same by some licensed undertaker or embalmer. This is absolutely necessary, and if it is not done, and the certificate of the undertaker or embalmer does not accompany the body, the railroads will not take it for transfer. The embalming takes but little time, and while it costs something it should not deter one from having it done if they desire to preserve the body any length of time. This duty is imposed by the State Board for the public good. Mr. R. T. Barfield of our town is the only commissioned embalmer in this section and will promptly attend all calls, which, for safety, should be as early as possible after death to insure perfect preservation. He is supplied with all the necessary articles fluids &c, and as the warm weather is approaching we deem it due the public to give them this information in time to save annoyance to those who may not know or overlook these details when needed for a traveler or for the purpose of delays in burial at home.
