THE MARIBORA DESTONS. Dr. Talmage Tells of the Sacrifices of Our Savior.

He Speaks of Gethsemane as It Apeared to Him-Sermon from the Texti "Ye Are Bought with a Price."

[Copyright, 1901, by Louis Klopsch, N. Y.]
Washington, March St. In this discourse Dr. Talmage shows the Messianic sacrifices for the sav-ing of all nations and speaks of said to the manufacturer of the coat-Gethseniane as it appeared to him; of-mail: "Put it on now yourself and text, I. Corinthians 6:20: "Ye are bought with a price."

of-mail: "Put it on now yourself and let us try it." And with shot after shot fired from his own pistol the embought with a price."

Your friend takes you through his valuable house. You examine the arches, the frescoes, the grass plots, the fish ponds, the conservatories, the parks of deer, and you say with-in yourself or you say aloud: "What did all this cost?" You see a costly diamond flashing in an earring, or you hear a costly dress rustling across the drawing-room, or you see a high mettled span of horses hernessed with silver and gold, and you begin to make an estimate of the cannot instantly tell you all it is worth. He says: "I will estimate so much for the house so much for the furniture, so much for laying out the grounds, so much for the stock, so much for the barn, so much for the equipage, adding up in all making this aggregate."

Well, my friends, I hear so much about our mansion in Heaven, about its furniture and the grand surroundings, that I want to know how much it is all worth and what has actually been paid for it. I cannot complete in a month nor a year the magnifi-cent calculation, but before I get through to-day I hope to give you the figures. "Ye are bought with a The first installment paid for the clearance of our souls was the ignominious birth of Christ in Bethlehem. Though we may never be carefully looked after afterward, our advent into the world is carefully guarded. We came into the world amid kindly attentions. Privacy and silence are afforded when God launches an immortal soul into the world. Even the roughest of men know enough to stand back. But I have to tell you that in the village on the side of the hill there was a very bedlam of uproar when Jesus was born. In a village capable of accommodating only a few hundred people many thousand people were crowded, and amid hostlers and muleteers and camel drivers yelling at stupid beasts of burden the Messiah appeared. No si-lence. No privacy. A better adapted place hath the eaglet in the cyric, hath the whelp in the lions' lair. The exile of Heaven lieth down upon straw. The first night out from the palace of Heaven spent in an outhouse. One hour after laying aside the robes of Heaven dressed in a wrapper of coarse linen. One would have supposed that Christ would have made a more gradual descent, coming from Heaven first to a half-way world of great magnitude, then to Caesar's palace, then to a merchant's palace in Galilee, then to a private home in Bethany, then to a fisherman's hut and last of all to a stable. No! It was one leap from the top

Let us open the door of the caravansack on the journey." Let the Bethlehem woman who has come in here with kindly attentions put back the covering from the babe that we may look upon it. Look! Look! Uncover your head. Let us kneel. Let all voices be hushed. Son of Mary! Son of God! Child of a day! Monarch of eternity! In that eye the glance of a God. Omnipotence sheathed in that Babe's arm. That voice to be changed from the feeble plaint to the tone that shall wake the dead. Hosanna! Hosanna! Glory to God that Jesus came from throne to manger that we might rise from manger to throne, and that all the gates are open, and that the door of Meaven that once swung this way to let Jesus out now swings the other way to let us in. Let all the belimen of Heaven lay hold the rope and ring out the news: "Behold, I bring you glad tidings of great joy, which shall be to all people, for to-day is born in the city of David a Saviour, which is Christ the Lord!"

The second installment paid for our soul's clearance was the scene in Quarantania, a mountainous region, full of caverns, where are to-day panthers and wild beasts of all sorts, so that you must now go there armed with knife or gun or pistol. It was there that Jesus went to think and to pray, and it was there that this monster of hell—more sly, more terrible, than anything that prowled in that country—Satan himself, met Christ.

The rose in the cheek of Christ—that Publius Lentullus, in his letter to the Roman senate, ascribed to Jesusthat rose had scattered its petals. Abstinence from food had thrown him Into emaciation. A long abstinence from food recorded in profane his-tory is that of the crew of the ship Juno. For 23 days they had nothing to eat. But this sufferer had fasted a month and ten days before he broke fast. Hunger must have agonized every at of the body and gnawed on the stomas's with teeth of death. The thought of a morsel of bread or meat must have thrilled the body with something like ferocity Turn out a pack of men hungry as Christ was a-hungered,

What It Would Do. The sum collected by the internal re-The sum collected by the internal revenue bureau under the provisions of the war revenue act, from June 13, 1898, when the set, went into effect, to and the resulted set of the venue bureau under the provisions of the war revenue act, from June 13, 1898, when the act, went into effect, to February 28 1901, was $281,311,515. This sum of money would have built an inter-oceanic canal, opened the arid lands of the west to cultivation by a system of irrigation and made navigable every desirable waterway in the country. And who will dony that these interesting from municipal rail.

They Are Chummy.

yeil they Would devour you as a kid. It was in that pang of hunger that Josus was accosted, and satan said: "Now, change these stenes, which look like bread," Had the temptation come to bread." Had the temptation come to you and me under those circumstances ve would have cried: "Bread it shall bel" and been almost impatient at the time taken for mastication, but Christ with one hand beat back the hunger and with the other hand beat back the nonarch of darkness. O ye tempted ones! Christ was tempted. We are told that Napoleon ordered a coat-ofmail made, but he was not quite cerperor found that it was just what it pretended to be, a good coat-of-mail Then the man received a large reward.

I bless God that the same coat-ofmail that struck back the weapons of temptation from the head of Christ we may now all wear, for Jesus comes and says: "I have been tompted, and I know what it is to be tempted. Take this robe that defended me and wear it for yourselves. I shall see you through all trials, and I shall see you through all temptation." "But," says Satan still further Jesus, "come, and I will show you something worth looking at." And something worth looking at." after a half day's journey they came to Jerusalem and to the top of the temple. Just as one might go up in the tower of Antwerp and look off upon Belgium, so Satan brought Christ to the top of the temple. Some people at a great height feel dizzy and a strange disposition to jump. So Satun comes to Christ in that very crisis. Standing there at the top of the temple, they looked off. A magnificent reach of country. Grain fields, vineyards, olive groves, forests and streams, cattle in ages and cities and realms. "Now," says Satan, "I'll make a bargain. Just jump off. I know it is a great way from the top of the temple to the valley, but if you are Divine you can fly. Jump off. It won't hurt you. Angels will catch you. Your Father will hold you. Besides, I'll make you a large present if you will. I'll give you Asia Minor, I'll give you China, I'll give you Ethiopia, I'll give you Italy, I'll give you Spain, I'll give you Germany, I'll give you Britain, I'll give you all the world." What a temptation it must have been!

The third installment paid for our redemption was the agonizing prayer in Gethsemane. As I sat in that garden at the foot of an old gnarled and twisted olive tree the historic scene came upon me overwhelmingly. These old olive trees are the lineal descendants of those under which Christ stood and wept and knelt. Have the leaves of whole botanical generations told the the story of our Lord's agony to their successors? Next to Calvary the solemnest place in Palestine is Gethsemane. While sitting there it seemed as if I could hear our Lord's prayer, laden with sobs and groans. Can this be the Jesus who gathered fragrance from the frankincense brought to His cradle and from the lilies that flung their sweetness into His sermons and from the box of alabaster that broke at his feet? Is this Jesus the comforter of Bethany, the resurrector at Nain, the oculist at Bethsaida? Is this the Christ whose frown is the storm, whose smile is the sunlight, the spring morning His breath, the thunder His voice, the ocean a drop on the tip of His finger, Heaven a sparkle on the bosom of His love, the universe the sary in Bethlehem and drive away the | dust of His chariot wheel? Is this the camels. Pass on through the group of Christ who is able to heal a heartidlers and Igungers. What, O Mary, no | break or hush a tempest or drown light? "No light," she says, "save that which comes through the door." What, Mary, no food? "None," she says, "only that which was brought in the through the skin of His forehead! What an installment in part payment of the greatest price that was ever

The fourth installment paid for our redemption was the Saviour's sham trial. I call it a sham trial—there has never been anything so indecent or unfair in any criminal court as was witnessed at the trial of Christ. Why, they hustled him into the courtroom at two o'clock in the morning. They gave Him no time for counsel. They gave him no opportunity for subposnaing witnesses. The rufflans who were wandering around through the midnight, of course they saw the arrest and went into the courtroom. But Jesus' friends were sober men, were respectable men, and at that hour, two o'clock in the morning, of course they were at home asleep. Consequently Christ entered the courtroom with the

Oh, look at Him! No one to speak a word for Him. I lift the lantern until I can look into His face, and as my heart beats in sympathy for this, the best friend the world ever had, Himself now utterly friendless, an officer of the courtroom comes up and smites Him in the mouth, and I see the blood stealing from gum and lip. Oh, it was a farce of a trial, lasting only perhaps an hour, and then the judge rises for sentence! Stop! It is against the law to give sentence unless there has been an adjournment of the court between condemnation and sentence, but what cares the judge for the law? "The man has no friends. Let Him die," says the judge. And the ruffians outside the rail cry: "Aha, aha, that's what we want! Pass Him out here to us! Away with Him! Away with Him!"

Oh, I bless God that amid all the injustice that may have been inflicted upon us in this world we have a divine sympathizer. The world cannot lie bout you nor abuse you as much as they did Christ, and Jesus stands today in every courtroom, in every house, in every store, and says: "Cour age! By all my hours of maltreatment and abuse I will protect those who are trampled upon." And when Christ forsad if they had strength with one | gets that two o'clock morning scene

In Mark Hanna's Town. Tom L. Johnson's success in being candidates .- The State. After a Long Absence.

A Washington dispatch to the Other Interest Spinners are reducing on the President of Carolina white House, It is understood by with House. The President of Carolina white House, It is understood by with House. The President of Carolina white House, It is understood by with House. The President of Carolina white House, It is understood by with House. The President of Carolina white House, It is understood by with House. The President and with House, It is understood by with House. The President and with House, It is understood by with House. The President and with House, It is understood by with House. The President and with House, It is understood by with House. The President and with House, It is understood by with House. The President and with House, It is understood by with House. The President and House, It is understood by with House. The President and House, It is understood by with House. The President and House, It is understood by with House. The President and House House and House House and House Hou and the atroke of the ruman on the mouth and the howling of the un-washed crowd then He will forget you installment paid for our redemption was the demise of Christ. The world has seen many dark days. Many sum-mors ago there was a very dark day when the sun was celipsed. The fowl at noonday went to their perch, and we felt a gloom as we looked at the astronomical wonder. It was a dark day in London when the plague was at its height, and the dead with uncovered faces were taken in open curts and dumped in the trenches. It was a dark day when the earth opened and Lisbon sank, but the darkest day since the creation of the world was when the carnage of Calvary was enacted.

It was about noon when the curtain began to be drawn. It was the swinging of a great gloom all around the God hung it. As when there is a dead one in the house you bow the shutters or turn the lattice, so God in the afternoon shut the windows of the world. As it is appropriate to throw a black pall upon the coffin as it passes along, so it was appropriate that everything should be somber that day as the great hearso of the earth rolled on, bearing the corpse of the King. A man's last hours are ordinarily kept sacred. However you may have hated or caricatured a man, when you hear he is dying silence puts its hands on your lips, and you would have a loathing for the man who could stand by a deathbed making faces and scoffing. But Christ in His last hour cannot be left alone. What, pursuing Him yet after so long a pursuit? You have been drinking His tears. Do you want to drink His blood? They come up closely, so that notwithstanding the darkness they can glut their revenge with the contortions of His counte-nance. They examine His feet. They want to feel for themselves whether those feet are really spiked. They put out their hands and touch the spikes and bring them back wet with blood and wipe them on their garments. Women stand there and weep, but can do no good, It is no place for the tender-hearted women. It wants a heart that crime has turned into granite. The waves of man's hatred and of hell's vengeance dash up against the man-gled feet, and the hands of sin and pain and torture clutch for his holy heart. Had he not been thoroughly fastened to the cross they would have torn Him down and trampled Him with both feet. How the cavalry horses arched their necks and champed their bits and reared and sniffed at the blood! Had a Roman officer called out for a light, his voice would not have been heard in the tumult, but louder than the crash of spears, and the wailing of womanhood, and the neighing of the chargers, and the bellowing of the crucifiers, there comes a voice crashing through-loud, clear, overwhelming, terrific. It is the groaning of the dying Son of God! Look, what a scene! Look, world, at what you have done! I lift the covering from the maltreated Christ to let you count the wounds and estimate the cost. Oh. when the nails went through Christ's right hand that bought your hands, with all their power to work and lift and write! When the nails went through Christ's right foot and Christ's left foot, that bought your feet, with all their power to walk or run or climb. When the thorn went into Christ's temple, that bought your brain, with all its power to think and plan. When the spear cleft Christ's side, that bought your heart, with all its power to love and repent and pray. When the Atlantic cable was lost in an employer he sai and fell into a sound

Eastern and the Medway and the Albany went out to find it? Thirty times they sank the grapuel 21/2 miles deep in water. After awhile they found the cable and brought it to the surface. No sconer had it been brought to the surface than they lifted a shout of exultation, but the cable slipped back again into the water and was lost. Then for two weeks more they swept the sea with the grappling hooks, and at last they found the cable, and they brought it up in silence. They fastened it this time. Then with great excitement they took one end of the cable to the electrician's room to see if there were really any life in it, and when they saw a spark and knew that a message could be sent then every hat was lifted, and the rockets flew and the guns sounded, until all the vessels on the expedition knew, and the continents were lashed together. Well, my friends, Sabbath after Sabbath Gospel messengers have come searching down for your souls. We have swept the sea with the grappling hook of Christ's Gospel. Again and again we have thought that you were at the surface, and we began to rejoice over your re-demption, but at the moment of our gladness you sank back again into the world and back again into sin. To-day we come with the Gospel searching for your soul. We apply the cross of Christ first to see whether there is any life left in you, while all around the people stand, looking to see whether the work will be done, and the angels of Ged bend down and witness, and, sh, if now we could see only one spark of love and hope and faith we would send up a shout that would be heard on the battlements of Heaven, and two worlds would keep jubilee because communication is open between Christ and the soul, and your nature that has been sunken in sin has been lifted into the light and joy of the Gospel. "And, shure, they tell me your hoosband's very litherary?"

"That he is, indade." "That he devours ivery thing in the way of a book or a paper that cooms to the house."

"Bhure, he does." "And vot in the name of goodness does the poor godt get to ate?"-

Too Sensitive. try. And who will deny that these investments would have been better ones than the war for which this money has been spont in the far east?—Atlanta with the defeat of all other Democratic candidates—The State tive woman,-The State.

KILLED HIS FRIEND!

And Employer With Chloroform While He Slept.

A VERY STRANGE CASE.

How a Pair of Villians Planned to Ost the Money a Millionaire in New York.

Without the slightest quaver in his well medulated voice and displaying no outward sign of regret or remorse, Charles Jones, scoretary and valot to the late Wm. Marsh Rice, confessed Wednesday in a New York court under oath that he had ended the life of his cumpleyer and benefactor with chlore form. The confession was the climax ot a remarkable rooitsl in which was laid bare the details of an alleged rub-tle conspiracy which had for its object the seizure of three million dellars in cash and negotiable securities and the conversion of three millions in realty to the alleged chief conspirator. There was a dramatic force in the directness and minute attention to detail with which Jones approched the tragedy-the moment when he covered the face of the sleeping man with the saturated napkin and then waited for him to die. The self confessed murderer told the story of the alleged plot from its irocption. The capital orime he committed and all the minor offenses that proceeded it were, he deelered, at the inetigation and direction of Albert D. Patrick. It was Patrick, he said who conceived the idea of forging a will and forging transfers and conveyances It was Patrick who induced two persons to witress the forged signatures. It was Pariok who determined that Ree should die and it was Patrick who sought to have him killed slowly and hen, becoming impatient, determined uton quick retion. And, according to Jones, remarkable as it may seem. Rice never knew Patrick during his life ime, and never saw him but once According to this remarkable cor fession, Patrick told Jones that the old man was lasting too long, that he must be put out of the way at once, that Jones should do the work and that Jones should do the work and that there would really be no harm in it belows the source Rice had poisoned his own wife years ago and deserved punishmen? Jones described his return to Mi. Rice's apartments and the discovery of the millionaire sleeping peacefully. "Jones, will you state all the converted in the millionaire sleeping peacefully." sation that took place between you and bed; he told of his stealthy search for a nay kin and the fashionir of it into a conc-shape as directed, me said, by Patrick. He detailed the story of the pinning of a small apongo at the point approach to the bed with the saturated napkin in his hand; of the flight from the room; of the wary wait of 31 minutes in accordance with Patrick's alleged instructions; at the expiration of the pills in Rice's presence the half bour he returned and four many the book some. This brought windows to free the room fa of chloroform telephor

Patrick, accreed by witness with attention tos. even the remarkable witness on the stand was more ecol, celm and cor coted than this remarble prisoner. Patrick's hand was firm and steady. Patrick's hand was firm and steady. He displayed neither anger, fear nor resentment. When Jones reached the description of the murder of the sleeping man, Patrick merely stroked his beard and leaned back in his chair, apparently slightly bored by the recital of the details.

Oharles F. Jones, R'co's yalet, when put on the stand said he lad worked as storckeoper at the Capital hotel, Houston, Tex., owned by R co. Ho.

that R'oo was dead at cian and then, after grief at the loss of himself as Mr. Smith, Patrick at that time, Jones said, had a long talk with witness. He asked whether Rice had a legal representa-tive in this city and showed himself in quisitive about the affairs of the old millionaire. In December, 1899, witness swore, Patrick first approached him about the drawing of a will. Jones was to draw the dosument on his typewriter aud get Rice to sign it when his mind was

Jones told Patrick the signing of the window, took the napkin and towel will might be arranged but that it would be more difficult to obtain witnesses.

got the witnesses of the will of 1896.

Jones afterwards approached Weatherbee, the clerk in Swenson & Sons office to get him to act as a witness.

Weatherbee refused and threatened to take Jones' "head off" if he dared to suggest any fraudulent schomes against Rice.

Went to the telephone to tell Patrick that Mr. Rice was pretty near gone. When Dr. Curry came. Patrick was with him. 1 told them Rice was dead.

Dead! Oh, my Gid, dector, that is the worst thing that could have happened to me!" said Patrick.

Jones afterwards approached Weather to the telephone to tell Patrick that Mr. Rice was pretty near gone. When Dr. Curry came. Patrick was with him. 1 told them Rice was dead.

Dead! Oh, my Gid, dector, that is the worst thing that could have happened to me!" said Patrick on the day following that the telephone to tell Patrick.

Jones said: "Patrick wanted me to be a witness to the will but I refused I was very anxious to become beneficiary under the will, though. Patrick said this would never do as there would be a suspicion of undue influonce attached to the will which there-fore would not be admitted to pro-

Patrick then said he would arrange for witnesses and mentioned Moyer and

At the afternoon session Jones said Rice had some papers to execute and Jones took thom to Patrick's office where he met Short who at Patrick's request had become a commissioner of deeds for the State of Texas. Short went to Ricc's house and executed the papers.

''Was the will you saw in Patrick's office dated before it was shown to Meyer?" asked Mr. Oaborne.

''No, it was made in March, but was not dated until June 30. Mr. Patrick

"Did Mr. Patrick ever do any logal work for Mr. Rice?" asked Mr. Osborne.

"He did not."
"Did Mr. Rice sign my will on June 30, during the time Meyer and Short "He did not. I was there all the time and I did not see him ign any will. Had he signed one I would have known it."

later, at the request of Patrick, he wrote his typewriter the assgaments transferring Rice's property to Patrick.

'Patrick asked me," witness centinued, "whether I did think old Rice was

Jones then testified that somewhat living a little too long for our purposes. I said I thought so. Patrick suggested we put him out of the way. suggested Dr. Curry, but Patrick said Dr. Curry would not do anything of the kind."

"Patrick," witness went on, suggested that Jores got laudaum from a drug store at Coney Island for the turpose of posioning Rice." Witness then went on to say that he produced posion from his brother in

"What did you got?" "Chloroform and laudaum."
"How was the poison sent?" "It was sent by express. A small package containing the poison came I think, by the American Express. "Did you sign a receipt?

Jones testified that he delivered the poison to Patrick about three weeks before the death of Mr. Rice Jones then went on to testify that Patrick had never been introduced to Rice up to the time of the latter's

"As far as I know," Jones said "Rice never saw Patrick but onco. This was an evening when Patrick called on me. Rice, against his custom, was up late. He looked in the parlor and saw Patrick, who was there. Next morning he asked who the bald-headed man with the red beard was. I told Mr. Roe it was a friend of mine

Mr. Coborne then referred to the as siguments transferring the property of Mr. R on to Patrick, which were excouted on Sel tember 7th. Jones was handed a deed for indentification. He said it was witnessed by Moyer on September 7.

"D.d Mr. Rice sign any general as signment on that day?"

"He did not."
The witness said Mr. Rice prepared all his meals himself. Witness was Patrick. He detailed the story of the pinning of a small sponge at the point of the cone. Then he teld of saturating the napkin and sponge with ohloproform and holding it over his own nos ment to get the poison. Patrick then reform and holding it over his own nest trils to test its effect. Jones looked told me to give Rice sapolio as that straight into the eyes of Assistant District Atterney Osborne and continued his story without a break, without a tremer in his voice. He describes his approach to the bed with the saturated them to Rice. I told Patrick I could not do that, but I told him I had some mercurial pill which Dr. Curry gave me. Patrick as d I ought to give them to Rice. I told Patrick I could not do to the fight from most do so without taking them muself ook some. This brought ot over this attack to do him good. hat by the same atrick gave him. thing you ward more the medicine that was sont um I had to taste when he saw it." Jones then related what took place on the day of the death of Mr. Rice. "Liaw Patrick at his house," said he. He told me to let him know if Rice grew better. He would then get from to quicken Rice's nerve."

Rice got better and about noon he wanted to get up. He talked cheerfully about going down town and seemed much improved. Jones said he could tot get Rice to take the oxalic acid. He then telephoned Patrick to meet as storekeeper at the Capital hotel, Houston, Tex., owned by R ce. He met Rice in 1896 and had been Rice's secretary, valet and general utility man. Rice, he said, moved to New York in Settember, 1897.

Witness first met Patrick in November, 1899 Pairick represented himself as a commercial man from Texas and wanted to see Rice. Rice was in bed at the time and Pataick introduced himself as Mr. Smith. Rice would probably laugh, but that I should not be seared as that would only show that the poison was beginging to work and that it would soon be

> "I did as Patrick told me. I returned home, took a napkin and saturated it with chloroform. I put it on my own face first and then put it over the face of Mr. Rive and left the room. I waked up and down in the hall several times. The bell rang several times. I did not open the door. Finally after about half an hour I went into Mr. Ricc's room. I raised the

Patrick proposed they should try to went to the telephone to tell Patrick

ing took charge of the apartments. On that day, Jones testified, at the request of Patrick, he made out the checks for $25,000 and 135,000 respectively, on Swenson & Sons and the Fifth Avenue Trust company. Jones said Patrick also took charge of $450 in bills and eight or nine dollars in silver from a drawer in the millionaire's writing deak. Jones said Patrick also took away two gold-watches and all private papers of Mr. Rico.

An Election Row. United States District Attorney Rossir, while at precinct No. 4, of the twenty fifth ward, St. Louis, Wednesday was wounded in the left arm by a stray shot fired by one of a gang of negroes. Mr. Rosier had challenged the vote of one of a crowd of twenty or more negroes. An officer started with the alleged repeater to a patrol box. The leged repeater to a parrel box. The prisoner's friends closed around the officer, fired forty or fifty shots for the turpose of intimidation, and released the prisoner. After the negroes had escaped, it was found that Mr. Rosier had been wounded, not seriously, how-

For Malaria, Chills and Fever

THE BEST PRESCRIPTION IS Grove's Tasteless Chill Tonic.

The formula is plainly printed on every bottle-hence you know just what you are taking when you take Grove's. Imitators do not advertise their formula knowing that you would not buy their medicine if you knew what it contained. Grove's contains Iron and Quinine put up in correct proportions and is in a Tasteless form. The Iron acts as a tonic while the Quinine drives the malaria out of the system. Any reliable druggist will tell you that Grove's is the Original and that all other so-called Tasteless Chill Tonics are imitations. An analysis of other chill tonics shows that Grove's is superior to all others in every respect. You are not experimenting when you take Grove's-its superiority and excellence having long been established. Grove's is the only Chill Cure sold throughout the entire malarial sections of the United States. No Cure, No Pay. Price, 50c.

THE STATE SUMMER SCHOOL.

superintendent of education:

It is still two months and a half before the opening of the third session of the State summer school for teacht a, out the lines of work to be offered have been definitely determined and most of where for years the Dutch have been the proposed instructors have been striving to subjugate the natives, a State are making their plans for sttend- rulers received embassies from the ing the school, and many boards of greatest potentates in Europe, that of trustees are taking sction looking to England included. aiding their teachers to attend. Super-intendent McMahan regards the prospects of the school as most satisfactory and furnishes the following information first with one land, then with another, which will be given in greater detail in the announcement of the courses of in-sistants.

A course in South Carolina history render of the natives. and one in general history will be given A race that can resist for a number by Prof. R. Means Davis of the South of years a well organized invasion of

Dr. J. I. McCain of Erskine college Dr. J. I. McCain of Erskine college will toach English grammar with special reference to Buehler's grammar Achin was in close touch commercially with England. It was the port of Achin large number of teachers were necesithousand men sarily refused admission last year) he in cammand.

State board. Bryos controlled the Evans taught by Superintendent Frank Evans of Spartanburg cits schools; and Superintendent E. L. Hughes of the Greenville city schools will give the G Superintendent E. L. Hughes of the Greenville city schools will give a course in school georgraphy, globe making, etc., along the lines which proved so practical and popular last year. This course will be fuller than last year and will include certain facts of history related to the geography conditions and popular last year and will include certain facts of history related to the geography feet are visible.

Prof. Marshall D. Earle of Furman university will teach mathematics, Prof. A. G. Rembert of Wofford will have charge of Latin and Greek.

Kindergarten principles and primary methods will be taught by Miss Minnie Maofeat of Winthrop college, and Miss Sarah Withers of the Chester graded schools. Miss Sarah Chandler of the Spartanburg city schools will illustrate primary methods with a class of small children. Nature study will be in charge of Miss Sarah C. Thurston of small children. Nature study will be in charge of Miss Sarah C. Thurston of the Columbia schools.

For a great many years doctors pronounced it a local disease, and prescrib-

Courses in podagogies and school su pervision will be given by Prof. Ward-law of South Carolina college and Superintendent W. H. Hand of Chester it is within the range of possibilities to see 4-cent cetten again this fall, if the present tendency of prices be maintained. Farmers should always remember that.

11,000,000 bales at 5 cents means
$275,000,000.
10,000,000 bales at 6 cents means
$300,000,000.
9,000,000 bales at 7 cents means
$315,000,000.
8,000,000 bales at 10 cents means
$400,000,000.
The smaller the even the better are

THE PASSING OF A NATION.

country; others have been forgotten.

Under the later head comes Achin, ongaged. Already the teachers of the race so important that at one time its Achin is probably the most war rid. den State in the world. For a hundryears it has known but little peace, struction soon to be issued and dis-tributed to the teachers:

believed to be within sign at last.

During the last three years the Dutch Free hand drawing will again be taught by Prof. Jas. William Pattison of the Chicago institute, four lady as fall is expected to result in the sur-

Carolina college. That in South Carolina college. That in South Carolina in South Carolina college. That in South Carolina is the country is situated in stressing the personal element in our politics of the past.

European troops is worthy of some attention. The country is situated in the north of Sumatra. It is the only politics of the past.

There is no need to despair, however for there is a tremendous revulsion against war. That is hopeful for the peace of Christendom.—Newport News A course of conversational personal reminiscences on South Carolina history will be given by Dr. James H. ence appears to be now doomed. The population numbers about 328,000.

recently adopted by the State board for use in the public schools. Courses in English literature will be given by Prof. St. James Cummings of the Oitadel.

The effort to introduce into the public schools the teaching of sight singing will be continued by continuing to offer the teachers the opportunity to be themselves instructed in this art. The instructor this year will be Dr. R. H. Peters of Converse college. As d. Peters of Converse college. As near the gate of the King's palace a heretofore, the musical director will couple of brass cannon of extraordinary organize a chorus, whose entertainments size. They were a present from James will prove the means of amusement as I to the ruler of Achin. They still well as culture. The grand organ in bear the founder's name and the date the new auditorium will contribute to legibly inscribed upon them.

make those choruses mynificent.

Prof. W. C. A. Hammel of the Maryland State normal school will continue the course so admirably begun last training. The latter work (to which a large number of teachers were necestarily refused admission last year) he in cammand.

Though ones powerful enough to drive the Portugues out of the island and to have a floet and an army that were the envy of lager countries. Achin has slowly drifted into the limbo of forgotten S. ates, and now appears de stined to disappear from the map altered to ed local remedies, and by constantly failing to cure with local treatment, pronounced it incurable. Science has proven catarrh to be a constitutional graded schools, Mr. James L. Hughes, disease, and therefore requires constitu-inspection of schools of Toronto, Can-tional treatment. Hall's Catarrh Ouro. tional treatment. Hall's Catarrh Oure, ada, will probably give a week's course manufactured by F. J. Chency & Co., of lectures. ours on the market. It is taken inter-Some Facts for Farmers.

Present ruling prices for cotton to be delivered in the fall months will not justify more than 6 to 6 1 2 conts for the farmers. It generally happens that when so much cotton is coming to market in the fall months prices shrink, so it is within the range of possibilities to see 4-cent cotton again this fall, if the

A Good One.

The Danville Register tells a story of a Page county, Virginia, farmer who lost his knife while barreling potatoes having sold his crop to a New York firm. Next seed time he thought he would get something extra, so ordered his seed potatoes from a Michigan firm. When he opened the barrel, he found his long lost knife, and also found that he had paid a high price for potatoes which he himself had sold some months earlier.

April Fool Hoax. Some Facts About It That Will be of Inteseat.

The following information about the annual State summer school to be held this year at Converse college, Spartanburg, has been issued by the State supported by are being carried on daily. Some of pended from the top. When the populathem have never been heard of in this tion started to work on the morning of April I they saw what appeared to be a man hanging from the chimney. top The figure was perfectly gotten up. Sensation where for years the Dutch have been ran high for a couple of hours, when the striving to subjugate the natives, a figure was cut down and the hear exrosed. But the news hadgotten out and for two days people tramped in from the outlying sections to see the man who had been hanged or who had hanged himself from the big smokestack.-

> War Everywhere. War feeling is inten to in Japan. It is threatened in Russia and Germany, But actual war exists with Great Bri tain and the United States. there is uneasiness in several of the South American States that may lead to hostilities. This is the most lamentable condition for the beginning of a new century which many of the states-men and philosophers expected would be the inauguration of universal peace. against war. That is hopeful for the peace of Christendom.—Newport News Herald.

Corn Mills, Cane Mills, Rice Hullers. Boilers, Planers and Saw Mills.

Matchers. Swing Saws, Rip Saws, and all other kinds of wood working mach; my. My Ser-will be able to plan on a larger scale, as he will bring with him an assistant trained in his methods.

Prof. J. V. Lewis of Clemson college will teagh physical geography, using Tarr's book, which has been prescribed for the public schools by the State board. Frye's geography will be taught by Superintendent Frank Evans of Snaytanburg with seasons and seasons.

V. C. BADHAM, 1326 Main St., Columbia, S. C.

Ginning Machinery. Saw Mill Machinery, Planing Mill Machinery, Brick Machinery, Engines, all Types; Boilers, all Kinds.

These are our Specia Ities and we have the most complete and best lines to offer. W. H. Olbbes & Co.,

MACHINERY and MILL SUPPLIES

OF EVERY DESCRIPTION. COLUMBIA, 8. C.

OSITIONS Positions II Pledge to sourse our graduates posi-tions backed by $5000. Courses unex-celled. Good beard cheap. Raier any time. Open to both sexes. Send now for free catalogue. Address,