Mr. J. A. Usher of Brightsville was down Monday and made us a pop call. He reports cotton seed short for those who may have to plant over.
Dr. J. A. Woodley, who has spent the past two weeks at the bedside of his sick daughter near Tatum, was in town Monday and called. He reports his daughter now getting on nicely.

Mr. T. L. Crosland has received his commission as Magistrate. He is no stranger to the work, and when in service before made a good faithful and impartial official.

The Tent Services.
Which have been held for the past two weeks at the Cotton Mill, under the management of Rev. Coates and Hare closed Monday morning. The interest has been wonderful; the order, praise worthy and the benefit derived by those who attended eternally alone can tell. The good people at the mill certainly enjoyed the visit of the tent and the faithful workers who were present during the meeting.

Flowers! Flowers!
Mrs. Jno S. Moore has a fine lot of Geraniums, Begonias, Ferns, Palms and other plants, well rooted, that she desires to sell. Cuttings 25c per dozen.

CHILD'S WORK.
Mr. N. J. Thompson and Miss M. B. Long were united in marriage at the Methodist church on Sunday—A. M. Knight officiating.
Mr. Steve Shelton, of Richmond, Va., and Miss Carrie McCall of Bennettsville were married on Saturday morning last at Blenheim.

Mr. Light Townsend of Blenheim, and Miss Bessie McLeod of Red Hill, were happily married on Tuesday afternoon at the residence of Mrs. B. D. McLeod.
Married on Monday evening April 22, 1901, at the residence of T. P. Stubbs, Notary Public, officiating, Mr. Oscar Rogers and Miss Mary Nicholson—both of Richmond county, N. C.

DEATH'S DOINGS.
On Sunday morning last Mr. James Fraser, an operator at the Cotton Mill died suddenly under very remarkable circumstances. On Saturday night he attended a revival tent meeting which had been in progress near the mill for the past two weeks. He was a mourner at the altar service and at the close, professed conversion and became very happy. While giving his testimony and relating his experience he was stricken with paralysis and taken to his home near by, where everything was done for him that medical skill could suggest until death came at 5 a. m., Sunday.
It is stated that he had lived a very careless life—had often professed religion but soon lost it, and had said recently that he hoped if that if he ever was converted again that the Lord would take him. It was indeed a singular death—though paralyzed in body his mind was active to the last and died very happy.
He leaves a wife and 3 children.

Died at the residence of Mr. J. B. Townsend in the Bethel section on Tuesday afternoon after a long illness Miss LAMIE TOWNSEND. Her remains were laid to rest in the Smyrna Cemetery on Wednesday—Rev. J. W. Ariall conducting the funeral service.

The Light Question.
Paris requires every vehicle that traverses its streets at night if only a wheelbarrow, to carry a lighted lamp. Safety is secured and the avenues glitter as if swarming with giant fire-flies.
If every one who went on our streets at night, riding or walking, were forced to carry lights we would hear no complaints in reference to light. Suppose we try it, lamps are cheap.

Burned near Wilmington.
The many friends of Mr. Junius D. Webster, the Dentist, will regret to know that he lost his dwelling on Carolina Beach by fire on the morning of the 17th. The doctor's home is at Siler City but spends the summer on Carolina Beach. He had gone down to have some repairs made, and before retiring to bed built a fire in the stove to warm by. He said he was awakened by smoke and fire all around him, and he got out just a few seconds before the roof fell in. His loss is about $1000 with $700 insurance. The fire spread to the south and many dwellings were burned with losses amounting to $13,000.

Your Eyes and Ears Please.
While we ask your attention to the spring announcement of Mr. O. S. McCall, who keeps that mammoth store on the east corner of the square you get what you want when you go there. Read what he says add go and prove what we say.

The speech of Senator McLaurin at Charlotte last Thursday night is given in full on our first page. In our next we will give his reply to Senator Tillman's severe criticism of this speech.

TOWN AND COUNTY NEWS.
— Full moon next Friday.
— A swell in the river Friday stopped the seines.
— Court meets next Monday with Judge Gary on the bench.
— Farmers tell us there will be lots of cotton to plant over.
— The merry sunshine drove away the dark clouds Wednesday.
— Early risers Wednesday morning say there was a light frost.

From Hagan's Prong.
Mr. Editor:—It is not only cool but cold in these parts as well as other points. The Bee Martin's have quite been so gay before the sun is up. The frogs have gone in expecting to have to look through glass windows soon, and the poor farmers who have the blues, and have had since the cold rains started, have taken the place of the crows. They have been seen in many places going down the cotton rows scratching up the seed to see if they are sprouting for some Chinese market.

Some of our farmers are going to plant their corn crops over. Some have already replanted.
Small grain is quite small for the season, while the dear old garden is creeping along.
Mr. Clarence Hubbard has cabbage 18 inches across. They are pretty. By the way he says he has been attending services at Beauty Spot for years and some of your correspondents have just now the right to mention it.
Charley McCall of McColl spent a few days in Hebron with relatives last week.
The K. of P. Society of Hebron had a delightful fish picnic at Hunt's Bluff last Thursday. Large crowd plenty to eat.
Mr. D. P. McQuigle is going to add more room to his dwelling.
The cases of "grip" reported are all improving.
