RELIGIOUS NOTES.
 The Union meeting begins to-day at Salem for three days—with an interesting program.
 All the churches were open Sunday and good congregations attended morning and night.
 The ladies of the Methodist church who have undertaken the duty of making needed repairs and improvements at the parsonage are succeeding handsomely. They have already raised over one hundred dollars and are rushing the work.
 Prayer meeting at the Baptist church every Thursday evening at 8:00.
 The men's prayer meeting at the Methodist church is held every Wednesday evening at 7:30. The public invited.
 Rev. J. W. Leak arrived Saturday and began a meeting at the Cotton Mill Sunday morning. Services are being held in the Chapel every night. The weather has been fine and large crowds have been able to attend. He is an earnest worker, trying to walk in the steps of the Saviour, and is winning souls for the kingdom. He is stopping this week with his cousin Mr. W. P. Cavington.
 There will be twenty two acres of midway at the Charleston exposition.
