A FRIENDLY ATTACK.

An attack was lately made on C. F. Collier of Cherokee Iowa, that nearly proved fatal. It came through his kidneys. His back got so lame he could not stoop without great pain, nor sit in a chair except propped by cushions. No remedy helped him until he tried Electric Bitters which effected such a wonderful change that he writes he feels like a new man. This marvelous medicine cures backache and kidney trouble, purifies the blood and builds up your health. Only 50c at J. T. Douglas & Bro.

DEATHS & DOINGS.

The many friends of Mr. and Mrs. J. B. Patrick deeply sympathize with them in the loss of their infant babe on Sunday morning after a week's illness. The burial services were held at Oak Ridge Cemetery Monday morning at 10 o'clock.

Diad at his residence in Olio on Tuesday, November 19th, 1901. He was 63 years old.

Having died the office of Sheriff for several terms he was well known in all this section. Few public men had more friends. None knew him but to like him, none named him but to praise. In the trying times of 1876 to 1882 he was among the leading spirits, and possessed of a cool and courageous disposition did valiant service for his county and state. As a soldier, in two wars, he was patriotic, brave and true. As a public officer he was firm, faithful to his trust, yet gracious and sympathetic. As a citizen he was in touch with all good works. As a husband, father, friend, he was devoted, tender, kind and generous. He was a member of Bennettsville Methodist Church.

The remains accompanied by the members and relatives of the family and many friends were taken Wednesday morning to Brownsville and laid to rest in the family burying ground. Rev. C. B. Smith his pastor conducting the service.

A Pleasant Trip.

Rev. Rufus Ford with Solicitor J. M. Johnson left Friday for a visit to Spring Hill over in Richmond county—the home of Mr. Johnson years ago, and a section served by Mr. Ford as pastor about 15 years ago. They both enjoyed the trip and returned to Bennettsville in time for Court on Monday.

Gone to Arizona.

LOU MONTYRE, the Colonel's baby boy, lost last week for Arizona, and the best of friends he made by his upright life. Join his father in regretting the circumstances which made it imperative for him to sever the sacred ties, and they ardently hope his health, by the equable climate of that distant land, will be fully restored, so that he may take the proud position that belongs to one possessing his sterling traits of character. We trust God will bless and shield Lou, in his absence from the counsel and tender care of his devoted father.
