

TALMAGE'S SERMON

In Which He Introduces Hope to the Invalid and Erring ones.

In this discourse Dr. Talmage would lift people out of despondency and bring something of future joy into earthly depression.

There is an ocean of depth and fullness in the verse from which my text is taken, and I only wade in the wave at the beach and take two words.

These have in the course of our life been many angels of God that have looked over our shoulders, or met us on the road, or called us to the right, or lifted the curtains of the great future, or pulled us back from the precipice, or rolled down upon us the rapturous music of the heavens, there is one of those angels who has done so much for us that we wish throughout all time and all eternity to celebrate it.

When we draw a check on a bank, we must have reference to the amount of money we have deposited, but Hope makes a draft on a bank in which for our benefit all heaven has been expended.

It was hope that revived John Knox who on a shipboard near the coast of Scotland he was fearfully ill, and he was requested to look seaward and asked if he knew the village near the coast, and he answered, "I know it well, for I see the steeples of that place."

Many have full assurance that all is right with the soul. They are as sure of heaven as they are of the ground.

It was hope that saved the man who was already seated in the temple of God unrolling the libretto of the heavenly character. I congratulate all such.

world that, like ours, have shined and need to be loved, perhaps saved by our Christ or by some plan that God has thought out for other worlds as well as for our world.

Am I not right in saying that eternity can do more for us than our time? What will we not be able to do when our powers of locomotion shall be quickened into the immortal spirit's speed? Why should a bird have a swiftness of wing when it is of no importance how long it shall take to make its aerial way from forest to forest and who have so much more important errand in the world, get on so slowly?

Now, let me introduce this feeling into the hearts of those who are at times hopeless. There is a family whose son has gone wrong. Father and mother have about given him up, he seems so headlong, so ungrateful, so dissipated, and the old folks do not know half the story of moral precipitation.

made merely to get rapid information concerning the price of railroad stocks or to call up a friend, and then with him a business engagement, you have a very abbreviated idea of what you do and will do with those two instruments.

Let Hope say to the forlorn; Do all you can with Bible and spelling book and philosophic apparatus, but toil with the sunlight in your faces or your efforts will be a failure.

When you feel perfectly sure that you love a man, there are many subtle ways for you to let him know it.
