We give place in our fourth page to an excellent article on the merits of Col. Wm. Elliott, a candidate for the U. S. Senate. Come to Bennettsville next Monday and meet him.
A New One.
 Mr. Van's prescription of Hebron, S. C., cured a case of scald head, which had been in the family for several weeks. It is a good medicine for all such cases. It is a good medicine for all such cases. It is a good medicine for all such cases.

Marlboro Talent Honored.

Early Cotton Blooms.
 The early planted cotton is now beginning to bloom. We heard of several last week, but only saw one sent us by Mr. C. B. Clark, who lives on Mr. Levi Ivey's old place, which opened on the 12th.
 Later—Blooms have been received from Mr. C. S. McCall's "Dunder Place" (H. A. Odum manager) which opened the 14th.
 Also from James McKee, col'd, of Hebron, which opened 15th.
 Also from Mr. Alex English, on D. D. McColl's place in Smithville which opened on the 16th.
 Also Mr. Eliab Chavis, Smithville, a bloom of the 16th.
 Also from Mr. Anderson Rye a bloom of the 14th.

Base Ball Notes.
 The weather is warming up and so is base ball fever—getting so hot that money it is said changes hands on every game. The gate receipts on the 10th, we learn, was $99.10. Still they tell us money is very scarce. Three other games have been played since. But it is all right, if our community is being helped by it—morally, commercially, and otherwise.
 That Gulf Storm Sunday Night.
 From the news' per accounts there were other storms at work besides the gulf storm Sunday night and Monday night, no matter where they came from it was a heavy storm, and corn showed it Monday. The worst damage done, is reported from Brightsville, that the smoke house, a barn, and the kitchen end of the dwelling of Mrs. H. King Odum, were blown down.
 High winds prevailed Monday until after noon, twisting corn and breaking the twigs on the shingle trees. Some said it resembled the quinox.
