INTERMENTS DURING THE YEAR.

ELI THOMAS COVINGTON, cldest son ELI THOMAS COVINGTON, cldest son of Robert and Martha Thomes Covington was born May 13, 1847, and died November 24, 1902. He was a Hebronite indeed, having spent the whole of his life with the exception of the time he was in the Confederate army, in Hebron community. He was brought up on the farm and his boyhood days were divided between attending the neighborhood schools and laboring as a farm hand. Thus the foundation of his successful life as a farmer was laid in early life. He believed in raising his home supplies on his farm and his well filled larder testified to the success of his efforts. He took a deep new club if you will send in your ap plication in due time. Our next meeting will be at 2 sharp, 3 is rether late to get through with all the business we have to contend with. You all must come and be prompt at the regular appointed hour. There is nothing He possessed the pure milk of orange blossoms of joy and induess, and was always ready to bloomed about her path, the lar appointed hour. There is nothing like being prompt. Our Society is progressing fine and is a good thing if carried out properly, and is known as the new club, and all males are eliminately and the services of the servi of God and joined the Methodist church and was a consistent member of the same at the time of his death. He was also a K. of P., and member of the Order of A. F. M. His homelife was almost ideal. No sacrifice that he could make seemed to be too great for those he loved. He provided all his children the benefit of a ollege training.

He successfully served the county one term as Auditor. He was married to Miss Elizabeth Fletcher December 31st, 1868, who is still living. Five children were given to them to bless their home, four sons and one daughter, all of whom are living except one son He was cut and three brothers, with a host down in the strength of manhool, being and friends to mourn this sad v sick only a few days before his death.
