

A SAD PICTURE.

Bill Arp Calls Attention to the Dependence of the...

FARMERS OF NEW ENGLAND.

He Writes about a Book, Which All Should Read, Especially Our...

Young Men, A Good Letter.

Last night I read to my family portions of a long article by Mr. Orme...

"Where is all this?" said my wife. "I don't believe a word of it. It is some newspaper lie..."

One can hardly conceive of the filth and vice reigning in these country places called homes...

Good friends, kind friends, what is to be done about this. But the editor of the Times is mistaken when he says the same conditions are common to all the older States...

Now, I was thinking that as Boston and Hartford and New Haven had sent a big lot of money down here to educate and reform our negroes...

When my good friend Mr. T. K. Oglesby sent me his book, "Some Truths of History: The South Vindicated," I was too sick to peruse it carefully...

"The Stages of Civilization," by Mr. Frank Orme, of Atlanta, I did not think that the Frank Orme I used to know was old enough to have written an article so scientific, so philosophical, so Huxley-like in the ruses of mankind...

TO BE HONORED.

Rolls of the South Carolina Troops in the Civil War.

Governor Heyward Wednesday sent the following letter to Hon. Ellihu Root, secretary of war...

"I have been notified by the Hon. Ellihu Root, secretary of war, to name an official from South Carolina to cooperate with Brig. Gen. F. C. Ainsworth, chief of the record and pension office of the war department..."

"I don't believe a word of it. It is some newspaper lie..."

CHARGE A STONE FORT.

The American Troops and the Philippines Have a Fight.

A dispatch from Manila says two companies of Macabebes scouts signally defeated the main body of San Miguel's forces Friday...

The girl is Miss Mary McInville of Hartsville, Darlington county, S. C. She thought until a day or so ago that she was Mrs. Julius Manus Four months ago she met Manus in Hartsville and became engaged to him...

In a conversation with chief of police Irwin and an Observer reporter Wednesday afternoon McInville stated that she would leave Thursday morning for Hartsville, her former home...

"I want to make Mr. Manus suffer," said Miss McInville to the chief of police. "He must be arrested. He has ruined my life completely."

Mid Cheers and Hisses. A dispatch from Detroit recently says: Senator Ben. R. Tillman of South Carolina was greeted with alternate storms of cheers and hisses when he delivered an impassioned address on race problem at the Light Guard Armory...

"I want to make Mr. Manus suffer," said Miss McInville to the chief of police. "He must be arrested. He has ruined my life completely."

During the big Kansas City shoot, 18,000 defended doves whose natural instinct of wild life was disturbed by a crowd of people...

NEGROES ON THE MOVE.

The Emigration from the Southern States to Mexico Begun.

Advices received at the Mexican embassy at Washington tell of the recent importation to that country from the United States of 100 negroes who will be employed along the line of the Gulf and Pacific railroad...

"I have been notified by the Hon. Ellihu Root, secretary of war, to name an official from South Carolina to cooperate with Brig. Gen. F. C. Ainsworth, chief of the record and pension office of the war department..."

Some Wholesome Truths. Some newspapers and people, who are everlastingly trying to turn their sails to catch every breeze from whatever quarter it come, get the cold shivers every time Senator Tillman goes into a Northern city...

The work of dismantling the bars and fixtures was in progress Friday at many saloons in Charleston in response to orders from the constables...
