

"DO THOU LIBERTY GREAT. INSPIRE OUR SOULS AND MAKE OUR LIVES IN THY POSSESSION HAPPY, OR OUR DEATHS GLORIOUS IN THY CAUSE."

BENNETTSVILLE, S. C. FRIDAY, MAY 1, 1903.

NO. 25.

A BIG SENSATION.

Official Stir in Washington Caused by Series of Scandals.

A HIGH OFFICIAL DISMISSED.

He is Off on Sick Leave, and His Wife Goes to His Office and Takes Papers from Safe.

A Washington dispatch says a most sensational development of the investigation of the postoffice department...

Apr 22, 1903. Hon. James N. Tyner, Assistant Attorney General for the Postoffice Department...

Mr. Tyner is in a very weak and almost helpless condition from his long sickness. He remains in his room most of the time and sees very few callers.

After being notified by Postmaster General Payne that Mr. Tyner had called into consultation R. Ross Perry and L. T. Michener, who are intimate friends, regarding the matter...

Mr. Tyner is in a very weak and almost helpless condition from his long sickness. He remains in his room most of the time and sees very few callers.

Mr. Tyner is in a very weak and almost helpless condition from his long sickness. He remains in his room most of the time and sees very few callers.

Mr. Tyner is in a very weak and almost helpless condition from his long sickness. He remains in his room most of the time and sees very few callers.

IN HOT FIST FIGHT.

A Very Disgraceful Affair in the Illinois Legislature.

WHIRLWIND OF WILD DISORDER.

Grew Out of the Municipal Ownership Fight, Chairs and Desks Completely Wrecked in the Melee.

At Springfield, Ill., slugging and rolling over across each other across the speaker's platform in a frenzied general fight, at the feet of a score of female guests, the members of the Illinois legislature Thursday surpassed the wildest scenes of the Austrian reichsrath.

The announcement of these developments were made by Postmaster General Payne late Thursday afternoon to a large number of newspaper correspondents.

Chicago street railway franchises, more valuable than gold mines, were directly at stake, federal court receivership proceedings against the Union Traction company of Chicago having brought the matter to a sudden issue.

Mr. Tyner is in a very weak and almost helpless condition from his long sickness. He remains in his room most of the time and sees very few callers.

Mr. Tyner is in a very weak and almost helpless condition from his long sickness. He remains in his room most of the time and sees very few callers.

Mr. Tyner is in a very weak and almost helpless condition from his long sickness. He remains in his room most of the time and sees very few callers.

Mr. Tyner is in a very weak and almost helpless condition from his long sickness. He remains in his room most of the time and sees very few callers.

Mr. Tyner is in a very weak and almost helpless condition from his long sickness. He remains in his room most of the time and sees very few callers.

THE TILLMAN CASE.

Considerable Surprise at Its Being Continued is Expressed.

There has been some surprise throughout the state at the somewhat unusual manner in which the trial of J. H. Tillman for the murder of N. G. Gonzales was continued to the July term of court for Blount County.

The defense showed by affidavit that White was ill. Nothing was produced from White to indicate when, if ever, he could appear as a witness, but counsel by contending that the rule had been complied with and that it was their desire to have these witnesses confront the jury, intimated the purpose of the defense to produce them.

On this occasion, and against the protest of counsel for the state, who cited the rules of court as evidence that the whole proceeding was unusual in practice and violation of those rules the continuance was granted.—Spartanburg Journal.

A light broke out on the Democratic side, a few feet from the speaker, Werdell (Dem.), and Glade (Rept.) were the central figures, but eight or every body in the immediate vicinity appeared to be taking a hand in the melee.

Mr. Tyner is in a very weak and almost helpless condition from his long sickness. He remains in his room most of the time and sees very few callers.

Mr. Tyner is in a very weak and almost helpless condition from his long sickness. He remains in his room most of the time and sees very few callers.

Mr. Tyner is in a very weak and almost helpless condition from his long sickness. He remains in his room most of the time and sees very few callers.

Mr. Tyner is in a very weak and almost helpless condition from his long sickness. He remains in his room most of the time and sees very few callers.

A CLARION CALL.

Bryan Urges Democrats to Stand Square for Honesty.

HE APPLAUDS SENATOR STONE.

Instead of Being True to His Party Bryan Declares Cleveland Disgraced and Betrayed It.

At Kansas City, Mo., last Tuesday week William J. Bryan speaking to the toast "Democracy" at the banquet given by the Democratic Jackson Club and the newspaper men of Missouri complimentary to William J. Stone, bitterly arraigned Grover Cleveland and his supporters who are making the plea for harmony among Democrats.

Mr. Tyner is in a very weak and almost helpless condition from his long sickness. He remains in his room most of the time and sees very few callers.

Mr. Tyner is in a very weak and almost helpless condition from his long sickness. He remains in his room most of the time and sees very few callers.

Mr. Tyner is in a very weak and almost helpless condition from his long sickness. He remains in his room most of the time and sees very few callers.

Mr. Tyner is in a very weak and almost helpless condition from his long sickness. He remains in his room most of the time and sees very few callers.

Mr. Tyner is in a very weak and almost helpless condition from his long sickness. He remains in his room most of the time and sees very few callers.

Mr. Tyner is in a very weak and almost helpless condition from his long sickness. He remains in his room most of the time and sees very few callers.

Mr. Tyner is in a very weak and almost helpless condition from his long sickness. He remains in his room most of the time and sees very few callers.

THE GOEBEL MURDER.

Youtsey Says Gov. Taylor Said Death Plan Was Good.

KILLED HIS SON.

A White Man Goes to the Penitentiary for Five Years.

The evidence brought out in the trial of James Howard for the murder of Governor Goebel, of Kentucky, at Frankfort in that state, fastened the guilt for the dastardly deed upon the Republican Governor, who was in office when the crime was committed.

Mr. Tyner is in a very weak and almost helpless condition from his long sickness. He remains in his room most of the time and sees very few callers.

Mr. Tyner is in a very weak and almost helpless condition from his long sickness. He remains in his room most of the time and sees very few callers.

Mr. Tyner is in a very weak and almost helpless condition from his long sickness. He remains in his room most of the time and sees very few callers.

Mr. Tyner is in a very weak and almost helpless condition from his long sickness. He remains in his room most of the time and sees very few callers.

Mr. Tyner is in a very weak and almost helpless condition from his long sickness. He remains in his room most of the time and sees very few callers.

Mr. Tyner is in a very weak and almost helpless condition from his long sickness. He remains in his room most of the time and sees very few callers.

Mr. Tyner is in a very weak and almost helpless condition from his long sickness. He remains in his room most of the time and sees very few callers.

Mr. Tyner is in a very weak and almost helpless condition from his long sickness. He remains in his room most of the time and sees very few callers.

Mr. Tyner is in a very weak and almost helpless condition from his long sickness. He remains in his room most of the time and sees very few callers.

A SAD TALE.

Hopes His Conviction Will Be a Lesson to Others.

IT WILL DO THE STATE GOOD.

Hopes His Case May Be a Lesson to Other Young Men to Shun His Sad Fate.

The correspondent of The State had a talk with Lonnie C. Meyers, a young white man who had just been convicted of murder and sentenced to the penitentiary for life by the court at Kingstree.

Mr. Tyner is in a very weak and almost helpless condition from his long sickness. He remains in his room most of the time and sees very few callers.

Mr. Tyner is in a very weak and almost helpless condition from his long sickness. He remains in his room most of the time and sees very few callers.

Mr. Tyner is in a very weak and almost helpless condition from his long sickness. He remains in his room most of the time and sees very few callers.

Mr. Tyner is in a very weak and almost helpless condition from his long sickness. He remains in his room most of the time and sees very few callers.

Mr. Tyner is in a very weak and almost helpless condition from his long sickness. He remains in his room most of the time and sees very few callers.

Mr. Tyner is in a very weak and almost helpless condition from his long sickness. He remains in his room most of the time and sees very few callers.

Mr. Tyner is in a very weak and almost helpless condition from his long sickness. He remains in his room most of the time and sees very few callers.

Mr. Tyner is in a very weak and almost helpless condition from his long sickness. He remains in his room most of the time and sees very few callers.

Mr. Tyner is in a very weak and almost helpless condition from his long sickness. He remains in his room most of the time and sees very few callers.

A SAD TALE.

Hopes His Conviction Will Be a Lesson to Others.

IT WILL DO THE STATE GOOD.

Hopes His Case May Be a Lesson to Other Young Men to Shun His Sad Fate.

The correspondent of The State had a talk with Lonnie C. Meyers, a young white man who had just been convicted of murder and sentenced to the penitentiary for life by the court at Kingstree.

Mr. Tyner is in a very weak and almost helpless condition from his long sickness. He remains in his room most of the time and sees very few callers.

Mr. Tyner is in a very weak and almost helpless condition from his long sickness. He remains in his room most of the time and sees very few callers.

Mr. Tyner is in a very weak and almost helpless condition from his long sickness. He remains in his room most of the time and sees very few callers.

Mr. Tyner is in a very weak and almost helpless condition from his long sickness. He remains in his room most of the time and sees very few callers.

Mr. Tyner is in a very weak and almost helpless condition from his long sickness. He remains in his room most of the time and sees very few callers.

Mr. Tyner is in a very weak and almost helpless condition from his long sickness. He remains in his room most of the time and sees very few callers.

Mr. Tyner is in a very weak and almost helpless condition from his long sickness. He remains in his room most of the time and sees very few callers.

Mr. Tyner is in a very weak and almost helpless condition from his long sickness. He remains in his room most of the time and sees very few callers.

Mr. Tyner is in a very weak and almost helpless condition from his long sickness. He remains in his room most of the time and sees very few callers.