IT IS A MATTER OF HEALTH

ROYAL

BAKING POWDER

Absolutely Pure

THERE IS NO SUBSTITUTE

CRUELTY OF INGRATITUDE.

ARE YOU GUILTY OF IT?

One of the hardest burdens which we have to bear is the ingratitude of those to whom we have given our love and care. It is one of the most refined forms of cruelty on the part of a child, a pupil, or a friend, to be ungrateful. The savage nature of this torture applied to the sensitive soul of a parent, teacher or friend must be experienced in order to be understood. Very often it is not the last intended We have seen a mother suffer at the hands of an ungrateful boy anguish of which he never dreamed. There is scarcely a teacher in the Sunday-schools who does not know what is statement means. Boys and girls, thoughtlessly, perhaps, yet none the less cruelly, cause such suffering by their ingratitude and lack of appreciations as mental agony can not express. For purity of spiritual pain there is hardly another anguish comparable with that it is the suffering of wounded love and the agony of the innocent.

This fact of our human life is also a truth of the Divine being. It must be so, for love is the same, in God and man, and the laws by which it is exercised must obtain uniformly. God himself must know the cruelty of ingratitude. We do not set out deliberately to wrong Him. We simply forget to be grateful. That is the pity of it all. Thoughtlessness becomes a habit. The neglect of the father's kindness grows common. We cease to refer everything in the world to the one source of all life in God, and the great heart of the Father is wounded in the very way that makes it bleed most swiftly.

It does not take long to be grateful No form need be used elaborately to show that the heart appreciates. A child needs only to look up and smile, for understands. We are cruel not say "Father, I thank [illegible] health and [illegible] for the task of business and the rest at home, or the comfort of little children and the sweet companionship of friends, for the hope of heaven and the assurance of immorality. For these we ought to look up every day in gratitude to the Father and show Him by an obedient life that we appreciate the mercy that crowns our day'. To do less is to be cruel.—Zion's Herald.

Headache and Neuralgia Can be Cured.

These distressing troubles are permanently cured by Lee's Headache and Neuralgia Remedy. Even temporary relief is gratelul, but permanent relief is almost too good. But the proof follows:

Mullins, S. C.,

Being subject to sick headaches all my life, and trying many medicines, I never got relief until I fortunately used Lee's Headache Remedy, I found permanent relief after 15 minutes

These are [illegible]efore to cite and admonish [illegible]ar the kindred and creditors of the said J. J. Bennett, deceased, that they be and appear before me in the Court of Probate to be held at Bennettsville [illegible] day of May, 1904, next after publication hereof, at 11 o'clock in the forenoon, to show cause, if any they have why the said administration should not be granted.

Given under my hand, this 1st day of April, Anno Domini, 1904.

MILTON McLAURIN,

April 7, 1904. Judge of Probate.

PERSONAL

Mr. Isaac Driggers of Red Hill was up Friday and called. No special news

Mr. James T. Eason, of the Express Service, is home for a few days on the sick list.

Miss Eulah Jordon who has been visiting her cousin Miss Susie Atkins has returned to her home in Darlington

Our young friend Dick Easterling, Now with Coast Line shops at Wilmington, has been spending a few days at home.

Mr. H. P. Wilcox, who has been representing the Darlington Photo Studio for a month has returned to Darlington

Mr. B. Lane Watson, the popular book-keeper at the Marlboro Wholesale Grocery, withdraws his card for Treasurer

Rev. T. E. Morris and Mr. P. A. Hodges attended a meeting of the Board of Trustees of Columbia Female College on Tuesday afternoon

Mr. Lewis Allen of Browns ville was up Tuesday and called. We regret to hear of the severe illness of his good wife from an attack of Jaundice

Rev C. W. Craighton of the Christian Appeal, has been spending a few days in our midst the guest of Mr. Joseph L. Breeden. His old friends here were glad to meet him again.

We regret to report the critical illness of Mrs. Claud S. Chaffin, from an attack of something like paralysis. She was stricken Tuesday night while at church. Her friends earnestly pray for her recovery

Mr. A. J. Jones of Hebron was up Saturday and announced his candidacy for County Supervisor. Joe is a capital good fellow, and having made the race once is neither a stranger to the road or the voters

CUPID'S WORK.

The Fayetteville Observer of the 12th, has the following: Mr. George W. Waddill, a native of Fayetteville, now a business man of Bennettsville, S. C., will be married this evening at Godwin to Miss Cherie Williams, daughter of Mr. J Thomas Williams, Rev. T. A Smoot pastor of the Hay Street Methodist church, going up to perform the ceremony, Mr. and Mrs Waddill will spend a day or two at Mrs. Fuller's Cape Fear Inn in this city after their marriage.

DEATHS' DOINGS.

Mrs. Alice Pope, wife of Mr. Aleck Pope who lives on Mr. Charley Beatty's place, quietly fell asleep in Jesus on the 8th of April —aged 22 years. She was a daughter of Mr. W. F. Taylor, and leaves a devoted husband and an infant babe, with many relatives, to mourn her loss. She was laid to rest at [illegible] Spot cemetery on Sunday [illegible] Rev. E. A CARD.

[illegible] I hereby withdraw my announcement as a candidate for the office of County Treasurer.

B. LANE WATSON.

Mch 12, 1904.

A New Enterprise.

During the week Mr. R. J. McCarley, Jr., of Columbia has rented and fitted up the B D. Moore store next to J. T. Douglas' Drug Store and opened an office for the purpose of doing a Barking and Commission business for the big firm of Ware & Leland, as Manager. The merchants of the county are cordially invited to call and get what quotations they should wish on cotton grain and provisions.

Prepairing For Conference.

The good people of Beulah are making extra preparations for the Sunday school conference to be held there on the 29th and 30th. All schools which have not yet reported delegates are earnestly requested to send the same at once to the Secretary that he may forward his list at once to the committee on entertainment, Delegates going down on Thursday afternoon before will find one of the committee at the church to furnish homes.

Distinguished Guest.

Prof. Snyder, president of Wofford College by invitation of the School teachers of the county visited our town last Saturday and addressed a large crowd at the Auditorium at 11 o'clock and in the afternoon addressed the 20th Century Club. On Sunday morning he filled the pulpit of the Methodist church where a large congregation listened to one of the finest sermons heard for some time on the subject of having "an aim and purpose in living." He went to McColl in the evening.

Tried His Patience.

On Sunday last while the family was away at church, the pigs got out and destroyed about one acre of Mr. George Webster's fine corn, which was ready for the first plowing. The pigs made a nice job of it and took it by rows. He got home in time to prevent further damage.

RESOLUTIONS OF RESPECT.

MRS MARY BETHEA.

Whereas God in his providence has called to her heavenly rest our mother in Israel, Mrs Mary Bethea, we as a society wish to give expression to our deep sense of the loss we have sustained Therefore be it resolved;

First that in the death of Mrs. Bethea our society has lost its oldest and one of its most faithful and honored members.

Second. That we bow in humble submission to our Father's will thanking Him for her long and useful life and looking forward to a blissful reunion where parting is no more.

Third. That a copy of these resolutions be sent to the bereaved family and also that a copy be furnished the county papers for publication

THE NEW YORK WORLD

Thrice A Week Edition.

The Most Widely Read Newspaper in America.

Time has demonstrated that the Thrice-a-Week World stands alone in a class. Other papers have imitated its form but not its success. This is because it tells it impartially, whether that news be political or otherwise It is in fact almost a daily at the price of a weekly.

In addition to news, it publishes first-class serial stories and other features suited to the home and fireside.

The Thrice a Week World's regular subscription price is only $1 00 per year and this pays for 156 papers. We offer this unequalled newspaper and the Democrat together one year for $1.67.
