PEN AND SCISSOR GRAPHS

Marion county has begun work on a new jail.

Last week a gentlemen was held up on the street and robbed of $7 over in Rockingham. The party who did it is now in jail.

The Virginia Carolina company has increased its capital by $8,000,000 making $58,000,000.

One night last week a lady passenger on the Bennettsville train had her purse snatched from her hand while the train was stopping at Darlington. The young white man who did it was a lad who had run away from his parents in the city of Charleston. That boy should go at once to the Reformatory and be taught how to live.

RESOLUTIONS

Marlboro High School.

Whereas the Marlboro High School is now closing one of the most successful years in its history and whereas this success is due largely to the earnest faithful efforts of our highly esteemed faculty Mr. Montgomery, Misses Michaux, Easterling and Hamer who we believe have endeavored at all times to give to our children the best possible training of both mind and heart, therefore be it resolved by the trustees and patrons of our school

1st. That we do hereby publicly express our high appreciation of the faithful and efficient services rendered by our teachers during the School year now closing.

2nd. That we extend to each and every one of them our heartfelt thanks for the intellectual and moral training they have given and the Christian influence they have exerted upon the children placed under their care and supervision.

3rd. That should the consecrated teachers leave us for other fields of labor, they will be followed by our best wishes for their future success and happiness.

4th. That the secretary of our board of trustees be instructed to furnish to each of our teachers a copy of these resolutions and a copy also to the Marlboro Democrat and Pee Dee Advocate for publication

DOTS FROM BETHEL.

Crops in this section are looking fairly well—especially cotton, corn is not looking so well, a good rain would be appreciated.

Rev. and Mrs. Watson, of Bennettsville, have been visiting friends in this community. The latter is a daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Tom Moore.

Mrs. J. M. Breeden, formerly of Marlboro but now of Lumber Bridge, N. C, has been spending some time with friends and relatives at her old home in upper Bethel but returned home on Friday last. We were glad to have her in our midst again, and to see her looking so well. Come again Mrs. B.

Mrs. Thad Stubbs of Brightsville who has been spending some time with her father Mr. N. F. Bundy, has returned to her home.

Miss Nellie Bundy is spending some time with her cousin Miss Lutie Bundy.

Mr. J. M. Genes is on the sick list at this writing. Hope he will be out again soon.

I will close.

Respectfully,

June 6, 04. U. and I.

Good Seed on Stony Ground.

A writer in Lippincott's tells of a young teacher who had ta-

why?" brought forth the following astonishing replies: "Andrew Jackson, because he whipped the British with an old hickory."

Grant, who was elected President twice and around the world once." "I like monroe for doctorin' the people, and Jackson, standing on a stone wall, and fell dead," "Lincoln, who was shot and killed standing in a booth, and died saying, 'Jefferson survives, I am contented." "DeSoto, who waded in the Mississippi up to his elbows, and there found his grave." "Old General Putnam, who left his ox and ass in the field and went and beat the British." "The redoubtful "John Paul Jones, because he said: 'We'll beat them British or bust,' and then did it"

Stopping by the roadside the good man engaged in conversation with the barefooted boy who had been endeavoring to shin up the apple tree. "Tell me, my child," said the good man, "whether you ever go to Sunday School?" "Sometimes, when they ain't no use goin' fishing'." "Ah. is your mother a regular communicant in any church?" "No. She's a Baptist." "Um. Is your father leading a Christian life?" "Not just now. That's him down in the field there leadin' that red bull."

Visitor—Does mamma give you anything for being a good boy? Tommy—No, mum; she gives it to me when I ain't.

The Summer School at Hartsville.

For Teachers of the Pee Dee.

We have not room to give the entire program of work cut out for the summer school to be held at Hartsville from June 29 to July 26., but all who purpose going, and it is hoped every one in Marlboro will attend, can get from Superintendent Stanton all the information desired.

Great care has been exercised in the selection of the best help in all departments, and Prof. Gaines has arranged to give board for $12 for the four weeks

To break the monotony of hard study Prof Gaines has arranged a fine program for outside pleasure.

Now, let one and all get ready to spend these four weeks at Hartsville not only pleasantly but with profit to your profession.

Kerosene For Cleaning.

American Press.

The cleaning properties of kerosene are not generally recognized.

Nothing makes a kitchen cupboard more attractive than gleaming tinware.

A few drops of kerosene will accomplish this. Soap and water will remove the oil, and the odor will soon disappear. There is nothing like kerosene to make the wash basin shine.

It is effective as a furniture polish. Mahogany can be freed from that blue, smoky film by the use of a few drops of oil mixed with a little water. Carved furniture, which defies the dust cloth, le made as attractive as new by brushing it with a soft hairbrush dipped in kerosene.

For removing stains and spots from lavatory basin and bathtub kerosene cannot be equalled.

Table oilcloths or the linoleum on the kitchen floor can be kept fresher and cleaner with oil than with soap and water.

A few drops of oil will do much towards starting particles of dust from machinery. If a clock is to be cleaned it can be done effectively by placeing in the lower part a cloth saturated with kerosene. The bits of dirt and particles of dust will be loosened by the vapor and will drop down and can be removed.

Worth Knowing.

Purify jars by soaking them in strong soda water.

Good furniture polish is made of one-third turpentine and two-

[illegible] mahogany dining ta[illegible] by [illegible] piece of flannel upon which melted wax has been poured.

To polish kitchen stove nicely, [illegible] little bicarbonate of soda with brick dust and rub them together

Powdered rice sprinkled upon and applied to fresh wounds is said to [illegible] bleeding, checking hemorrhages.

Half a teaspoonful of sugar scattered over a dying fire is better than kerosene, and has no elements of danger.

Public speakers and many noted singers use a wash of salt and water before and after using the voice, as it strengthens the organs of the throat.

To polish cow-horns, boil them till the inside can be removed. When dry, scrape with glass and rub down with powdered pumicestone and linseed oil.

Windows may be cleaned to look much brighter, and to stay clean much longer, if alcohol is used instead of water. A schamois skin is much better than a cloth, even if water is employed.

It is Wise to Insure!

I represent as Agent, the following Fire Insurance Companies, which are as strong as are in the United States, having passed through and paid all claims in the large and destructive fires of the cities of Baltimore, Md., Toronto, Canada, and Rochester, N. Y. All having large assets left to their credit:

The Home Fire Insurance Company of New York,
The Western Assurance Company of Toronto, Canada
The America Fire Insurance Co., of Philadelphia
The Manchester Fire Ins., Co., of Manchester, England
The German American Fire Ins., Co., of New York
The New York Underwriters, of New York.

It is a grave responsibility on agents when any one places their Insurance with them, for the public as a general rule know nothing ask nothing of the standing of the different Insurance Companies, and rely on the judgement of the agent. I have never had a loss but that was settled promptly and satisfactory. I respectfully solicit your Insurance business.

Yours truly C. S. McCALL.
