The first bale of new cotton was sold in Galveston, Texas Saturday for 30 cts a pound.

The State troops begin their encampment at Columbia on the 17th of July.

George W. Carnes who killed Dr. B. H. Thurman near Cheraw last winter was tried at Chesterfield last week and the jury took just 5 minutes to acquit him.

Ed Harden, a murderer who has evaded arrest for twenty years, was captured in Columbia Saturday. He killed a man the night of his wedding near Columbia in 1885.

Charlotte Chronicle: The good effects of the game laws are apparent to all who drive about the country. The very air is musical with the whistle of Bob White. The partridges are almost as numerous now as they were in former days.

'There's just two things that break up most happy homes,' observed the Pochick philosopher. 'What's them?' inquired the Squedunk ignoramus. 'Womans love for dry goods an' men's love for wet goods. b'gosh!' - Belair (Md.) Times.

COURT OF GENERAL SESSIONS

JUNE TERM, 1905.

The Court of General sessions convened on Monday with His Honor Judge R. C. Watts, of the 4th Circuit presiding. After a brief but pointed charge from His Honor the grand jury went to work lively and soon had business for the court.

The following cases have been disposed of up to Thursday noon:

Property Owners DOES YOUR ROOF LEAK?

Now's the time to Paint your Tin and Shingle Roofs. Don't wait for the rust to eat up your tin and iron, but get McDonald Roof Paint Co's Paint and you are safe. Guaranteed to stop all leaks.

See McDonald. He is here for business and will examine your roofs free of cost. We refer by permission to Capt P. L. Breeden, also Mr. A. J. Matheson.

W. B. McDONALD, Mgr. June 28, 1905.

From Smithville.

Mr. Editor-It has been so long since I was seen in the Democrat I thought I would appear again.

I was walking through Dr. Hair's field and saw a cotton bloom on the 20th, and I shouted. I went to it and peeped in and found the figures 12. You will know the meaning of this later on.

Some of our farmers have 13 acres of corn to plant yet. Cotton is improving, and ranges from 10 to 15 inches high.

Mr. C. P. Swett has lost his young dog. His complexion is white, with black ears. His name is King.

Now that 'generals' green has been whipped the farmers will soon have rest as well as the rich man. Hurry, boys and 'lay by' the 4th is near by and it will be a siltation braten for you and me.

June 22, 1905. HUNTER.

Don't forget that I have a nice large Refrigerator in which to keep Butter, Cheese, Lard, Fruits and all perishable goods fresh and cool during the summer months. W. M. Rowe

EARLY MORNING MARRIAGE.

CRAWFORD EMANUEL.

What is more beautiful than a wedding in June?

Wednesday morning June 28, 1905 was an ideal morning for such an occasion.

Just as the golden rays of the sun were gently peeping in, friends of the bride were seen coming from all directions-soon the parlor and hall were crowded.

Promptly at 6 o'clock the wedding song was sweetly sung by Mrs. Fred Rowe. At the close of the song, the mother and sister of the bride entered the parlor, then came Misses Edith Gandy and Cleo Attaway-the ribbon bearers-forming an aisle down the centre of the parlor. Down this aisle marched the manly and handsome groom Mr. C. M. Crawford and the beautiful and lovely bride Miss Mary Narcissa Emanuel.

Rev. Rufus Ford after a short and impressive ceremony pronounced them husband and wife. Congratulations and best wishes were showered on the happy couple. The parlor was tastefully decorated under the directions of Mrs. J. J. Pearson. The presents were numerous, useful and elegant.

The bride who is the eldest daughter of Mrs. B. I. Emanuel, is one of Bennettsville's most popular and accomplished young ladies. She is a prominent member of the Twentieth Century Club, Secretary of the Women's C. T. Union, an active member of the Woman's Missionary Society, a consecrated teacher in the Baptist S. S. She was one of the best and most popular teachers in Marlboro county, and a graduate of Limestone College.

The groom is one of the leading business men of Saluda County, and is worthy of his lovely bride.

The bride clad in dark blue silk traveling suit never looked more beautiful than on this occasion, nor the groom more handsome.

Mr. and Mrs. Crawford followed by showers of rice, and best wishes left on the 7:05 a. m., A. C. L. train for their home in Saluda, S. C.

Just as the bride entered the train, she threw her beautiful bouquet-Miss Annie Carlisle was the fortunate recipient.

This wedding has been pronounced one of the most beautiful home weddings ever witnessed in the city of Bennettsville. C. E. ATTAWAY.

A poetical writer declares that some men move through life, as a band of music moves down the street, flinging out pleasure on every side, through the air to every one, far and near, that can listen. Some men fill the air with their strength and sweetness, as the orchards in October days fill the air with the delicious odor of the ripe fruit.

Some women cling to their homes like the honeysuckle over the door; yet, like it, fill all the reign with the subtle fragrance of their goodness. How great a bounty and blessing it is to hold the royal gifts of the soul so that they shall be music to some, fragrance to others, and life to all. Would it not be a worthy thing to live for, to make the power we have within us the breath of other men's joys? - The Lutheran.

Mr. and Mrs. Crawford followed by showers of rice, and best wishes left on the 7:05 a. m., A. C. L. train for their home in Saluda, S. C.

Just as the bride entered the train, she threw her beautiful bouquet-Miss Annie Carlisle was the fortunate recipient.
