Rev. Scruggs in Lancaster.

The last issue of the Lancaster NEWS says that a division of the MUTUAL BENEVOLENT ASSOCIA-TION was organized in that town on Thursday of last week by Rev. T. W. Scruggs, that earnest, zealous worker, whose faithful devotion to the cause of systematising our benevolence in A BROTHERHOOD, did a grand work in Marlboro, and who while working this praise-worthy system of protection for our family never lost an opportunity to speak a word for the Master, in the prayer meetings, or delivering sermons

One More Big Day.

Friday the 17th was one more big day in Bennettsville. From early morn to late at night the streets were crowded. They came too for pleasure and they got it. There was entertainment galore. Even the hand organ and dancing monkey was here The Van Amburg Circus and Menagerie planted their tents on the old Ball Ground near the Episcopal church. Barkhoot's Carnival Shows had their tents up on "bug juice", the general order was splendid, and the day that your blood is in order at once. FOLEYSHONEYANDIAR passed off without accident.

Robbery or Mistake!

On Friday last some one took my buggy off from the public square, and none was left in place of it, it looks like a theft. It was a second hand, open buggy, painted black, side springs, Dash torn, spring cushion and had two wrenches in back of buggy and loose whip socket. It was taken to the me to find it or the party who will save you money.
