

MOB WANTED HIM

But Sheriff Creech and His Deputies Prevent Lynching.

HAD STONED A LADY,

And Her Brother Shot the Culprit through the Body, and the Angry Crowd Tried to Inflict the Death Penalty on Him

at Once.

A dispatch from Savannah, Ga., to The State says after passing through a hair-raising experience, Deputies Reuben Jacobs and E. E. Morris of Barnwell, S. C., reached Savannah Friday from Barnwell county with John Sims, a colored prisoner, who had been shot through the body before he was arrested. Sims was being carried through Savannah to Augusta and thence will be taken to the State prison at Columbia.

The negro was arrested at Blackville Friday morning for turkey stealing, and for throwing bricks at Mrs. Dulst, a sister of Mr. Arthur Dewitt. When she appeared at the lot, where the negro was stealing turkeys and told him to leave. Sims picked up stones and tried to hit her with them and she sought safety by crawling under a horse. When DuWitt returned to the house he mounted a horse and went in pursuit and overtook the negro a short distance from Blackville and when the latter showed fight, DuWitt shot him through the right side of the bullet going through the negro's body.

Deputy Morris sent a telegram to Sheriff Creech at Barnwell that Sims had been arrested and that he was going to bring the prisoner to Barnwell. The negro's wound was hastily dressed and he was placed aboard the Southern train for Blackwell.

Arriving at Barnwell it was found that an excited mob was in waiting and that Sheriff Creech and several deputies were having trouble in keeping the mob from attacking the train in this grand work which is benefiting all classes.

Christmas Holiday Exursion

Rates Seaboard Air Line R. Y.

Account Christmas holidays the Seaboard will sell tickets on Dec. 22, 23, 24, 25 30th and 31st 1905 and Jan. 1st 1906, limited to Jan. 4th at rate fare and one-third plus 25c, between all points on the Eastern territory including Washington, D. C.

For students and teachers tickets will be sold on same basis Dec. 17 to the 24th inclusive, limited to Jan. 1, 1906, and presented to the holder of a certificate from a school or college.

Mr. Edgewood

Mr. Edgewood, who has been lynched, was taken to the guard house where the negro was shot through the body by a brother of Mrs. Bulbs.

Stole a Husband.

The Charlotte Observer says the usual order of things was reversed last Sunday, when Miss Laura Percer, the 22-year-old daughter of Mr. and Mrs. J. C. Percer, stole away from North Caldwell street extension, and with young Ernest Tomberlin and married the youth. The young husband is the son of Mr. and Mrs. Janes Tomberlin, who live on his wife's place in the country.

Killed His Brother.

Melg Powell, a farmer, 22 years old, shot and instantly killed his brother, Thomas Powell, Wednesday, at their home in the country near Americus, Ga. The homicide is supposed to have been the result of a former disagreement between the brothers where in Thomas Powell received a pistol wound in the arm. This first difficulty was suppressed and only recently became public. Tuesday the Powell brothers came to Americus and upon returning home late last evening the tragedy resulted.

Swing Engine Amuck.

At Evansville, Ind., a switch engine jumped the main track on the Illinois Central Friday morning and ploughed into the four-story building of the Indiana Stone company at Pennsylvania avenue and Sixth street. It buried the engineer and fireman in the wreck and their bodies have not yet been rescued. It is believed both are dead.

Gold S-orot in Sleep.

Mrs. Jennie Vinson, who was prominent in church work and society, at San Francisco, California, while talking in her sleep revealed to her husband William Vinson the fact that she was a bigamist. He awakened her and she confessed that she had another husband living. Friday used for divorce. They were married five years ago.

A STATE'S TRIBUTE

To One of Her Most Devoted and Patriotic Sons.

Unveiling in Columbia of the Monument Erected to His Memory.

Gozales, the Martyr Editor. Almost within a stone's throw of the place where he fell mortally wounded on January 15, 1903 with the shades of South Carolina's capital and on the west shore of the city of Columbia, which he loved so well, a beautiful monument was unveiled at noon on Tuesday of last week to the memory of the late N. G. Gozales, who nearly three years ago was shot by James H. Tillman.

There had been erected a temporary stand around the monument for the unveiling of especially invited guests. About this stood a large crowd of citizens who had gathered to pay tribute to the deceased journalist, soldier and citizen.

Seated upon the stand were members of the Gozales Monument Association, members of the Ladies' Auxiliary association, members of the family of the deceased, local and visiting editors, and the clergy of the city.

Members of the Columbia Chamber of Commerce, Knights of Pythias, or organizations of which he was a member, the Typographical Union and employees of the newspapers of the city attended in a body.

The exercises were opened with prayer by Bishop Ellison Capers, Episcopal bishop of the diocese of South Carolina, followed by the hymn, "My Country, 'Tis of Thee," rendered by selected choir. After an address by Mr. W. A. Clark, president of the Gozales Monument Association, the monument was formally unveiled.

Rev. Samuel M. Smith, pastor of the First Presbyterian church of this city, delivered an oration appropriate to the occasion.

Then came the formal delivery of the monument by Mr. Clark to Mayor T. H. Gibbs, who received it in behalf of the city with a speech of acceptance.

The ceremonies were closed with a benediction by Rev. W. O. Lindsay, pastor of the First Baptist church of Columbia.

The monument is a granite shaft, 25 feet high, resting upon a base 20 feet square, giving it a total height of 40 feet.

The inscription upon the west side horse monument reads: Aene G. Gozales, Erected by the Gozales Monument Association, Columbia, S. C., August 5, 1898, Died January 10, 1903.

"Faithful Unto Death." On the north side is inscribed: A Great Editor, An Eminent Citizen, An Honest Man, "Without Fear and Without Reproach."

His Fellow Citizens Rear This Monument To Perpetrate His Memory. The South side bears the following lettering: Founder and First Editor of The State.

For Twelve Years He Conducted It With Significant Ability and Conspicuous Courage.

A Potent Voice for Civic Rights; An Influential Factor in Every movement for the Welfare of the People.

"The measure of success is not what we set out of life, but what we leave after it." Editorial Dec. 10, 1900.

On the east side are three lines, from a poem by J. G. Holland: "God give us men! A time like this demands Strong minds, great hearts, true faith and ready hands, Men whom the lust of office does not kill; Men whom the spoils of office cannot buy; Men who possess opinions and a will; Men who can stand before a demagogue, And down his treacherous flatteries without winking; Tall men, sun-crowned men, who live above the fog of the hour; Men in public duty and in private thought, whose words, with their true, where our professions and their litonious words, Honey as in selfish stuff—of Freedom costs; not take rules the land, and waiting preparatory sleeps."

Which monument stands at the intersection of Foley's and Sumter streets, near the pretty park which surrounds the city capitol, and is erected in the people of South Carolina, in honor of its construction having been made from every county in the State.

Magd. Gozales was an ardent exponent of Cuban Libre, and before the outbreak of the American war, volunteered for the service of the United States. He was appointed aide on the staff of Gen. Nantz, with the rank of Major.

The Tri-ty and participated in revolution with the Spaniards in Cuba for only $1.75.

Finis Heavy. Fines aggregating $1,400 were imposed on a student at Mount Dechaulet reveals a pathetic romance. The girl was loved by John Amble, a wealthy oil operator of Bellair, Ohio, and they married some months ago. The girl's desire to secure an education, however, impelled her to enter the seminary at Wheeling, W. Va., under her maiden name, her husband going as her uncle. A few days ago, Mrs. Amble, returning home from the seminary grounds, for some reason, burst a blood vessel in her throat, death ensuing Friday.

Death Revocable Romance. The death of fifteen-year-old Annie Hoffenbale, a student at Mount Dechaulet reveals a pathetic romance. The girl was loved by John Amble, a wealthy oil operator of Bellair, Ohio, and they married some months ago. The girl's desire to secure an education, however, impelled her to enter the seminary at Wheeling, W. Va., under her maiden name, her husband going as her uncle. A few days ago, Mrs. Amble, returning home from the seminary grounds, for some reason, burst a blood vessel in her throat, death ensuing Friday.

John Green, colored, was lynched by members of his own race near Memphis, Tenn., on Monday, for assisting a colored girl eight years old. He was taken by them to the scene of his crime and hanged.

A GOOD WAR STORY.

A Maine Yankee Who Served in the Confederate Army.

"I was up in the northern part of Maine the other day and heard a story which was a little out of the ordinary line of civil war stories I have read about," said a drummer whose territory is New England. "I had noticed a funeral in the town, the turnout of which indicated that the deceased must have been a prominent man in his life time."

"A citizen said in answer to my inquiry that the man had retired from business several years before his death. The citizen added, 'His funeral to day is much larger than it would have been some years ago.'"

"I then heard the story. 'When L'ncoln called for troops there were few men in the state of Maine who opposed coercion of the south. This man was an exception.'"

"Although a New Englander from a colonial family, whose history goes back to the colonial wars, this man was at the call for troops, was known in the North as a copperhead. He was an officer in the militia at the time of L'ncoln's election. Every man in his command except himself volunteered in answer to L'ncoln's proclamation."

"He not only refused to go, but he boldly contended that it was an outrage to coerce the secession of the southern states. He was ostracized socially and commercially. His business dwindled away."

"During the second year of the war he left the community. Nobody seemed to care where he went. 'Two years later he returned. He was a physical wreck. The feeling in the community was not quite so bitter as in the beginning of the war. However the man was not cordially received.'"

"He had not been here long when it was learned that he had been in the Confederate army and was discharged on account of his inability to do duty. This information did not tend to increase his popularity."

"He came into possession of considerable money soon after his return. Mean while some of the partners and remnants of the Maine companies he was broken in health and most of them were penniless."

"This man began contributing to the relief of the needy. A majority of the benevolent did not know the source of their help."

"After the war was over it leaked out little by little that the benefactor was the man who had been ostracized. To the credit of many it was again admitted. In an hour he and his family were again respected."

"He had not been here long when it was learned that he had been in the Confederate army and was discharged on account of his inability to do duty. This information did not tend to increase his popularity."

"He came into possession of considerable money soon after his return. Mean while some of the partners and remnants of the Maine companies he was broken in health and most of them were penniless."

"This man began contributing to the relief of the needy. A majority of the benevolent did not know the source of their help."

"After the war was over it leaked out little by little that the benefactor was the man who had been ostracized. To the credit of many it was again admitted. In an hour he and his family were again respected."

"He had not been here long when it was learned that he had been in the Confederate army and was discharged on account of his inability to do duty. This information did not tend to increase his popularity."

"He came into possession of considerable money soon after his return. Mean while some of the partners and remnants of the Maine companies he was broken in health and most of them were penniless."

"This man began contributing to the relief of the needy. A majority of the benevolent did not know the source of their help."

"After the war was over it leaked out little by little that the benefactor was the man who had been ostracized. To the credit of many it was again admitted. In an hour he and his family were again respected."

"He had not been here long when it was learned that he had been in the Confederate army and was discharged on account of his inability to do duty. This information did not tend to increase his popularity."

"He came into possession of considerable money soon after his return. Mean while some of the partners and remnants of the Maine companies he was broken in health and most of them were penniless."

"This man began contributing to the relief of the needy. A majority of the benevolent did not know the source of their help."

"After the war was over it leaked out little by little that the benefactor was the man who had been ostracized. To the credit of many it was again admitted. In an hour he and his family were again respected."

"He had not been here long when it was learned that he had been in the Confederate army and was discharged on account of his inability to do duty. This information did not tend to increase his popularity."

"He came into possession of considerable money soon after his return. Mean while some of the partners and remnants of the Maine companies he was broken in health and most of them were penniless."

"This man began contributing to the relief of the needy. A majority of the benevolent did not know the source of their help."

"After the war was over it leaked out little by little that the benefactor was the man who had been ostracized. To the credit of many it was again admitted. In an hour he and his family were again respected."

"He had not been here long when it was learned that he had been in the Confederate army and was discharged on account of his inability to do duty. This information did not tend to increase his popularity."

"He came into possession of considerable money soon after his return. Mean while some of the partners and remnants of the Maine companies he was broken in health and most of them were penniless."

"This man began contributing to the relief of the needy. A majority of the benevolent did not know the source of their help."

"After the war was over it leaked out little by little that the benefactor was the man who had been ostracized. To the credit of many it was again admitted. In an hour he and his family were again respected."

"He had not been here long when it was learned that he had been in the Confederate army and was discharged on account of his inability to do duty. This information did not tend to increase his popularity."

"He came into possession of considerable money soon after his return. Mean while some of the partners and remnants of the Maine companies he was broken in health and most of them were penniless."

WENT TO SEE.

W. J. Killall Clashes That Is To Fan Murphy.

Capt. G. B. Kirtrell and Mr. Hardy Will Take a Look at the Famous Prisoner.

The Columbia State says that it appears that after all Dan S. Murphy may be in arrest in Swainsboro, Ga. As has been published in The State, Mr. Gao. B. Kirtrell, of Orangeburg county has assurances from the sheriff at Swainsboro that the prisoner is very much like a photograph of Murphy, taken while he was in jail in Orangeburg awaiting trial.

Sergt. C. R. Roberts of the pentonitary guard was sent to Swainsboro about ten days ago to see if the man in prison there was Murphy, as had been alleged by the chief of police of Augusta. Sergt. R. Roberts reported by wire that the man was not Murphy, although it was singular that the man convicted of horse stealing at Swainsboro attempted to take his life when he heard that an officer from South Carolina was coming for him. He broke a bottle and with a jagged piece of glass made a wound on his wrist from which he bled profusely and his condition was discovered just in time to save his life.

Whether he was from his emaciated condition on account of the blood letting, or on account of the effects of five years of out door life upon the countenance of one who had been confined in a cell, Sergt. R. Roberts was unable to identify the man as Murphy. However, on his return to Columbia he did report to Capt. Smith, superintendent of the penitentiary, that he suspected the man notwithstanding the fact that there was a marked discrepancy in the height of the man in arrest at Swainsboro and the height of the man in the penitentiary as shown by the penitentiary records.

Murphy has several teeth missing, and the man in jail at Swainsboro had a gold crown in the place where these teeth were missing. Sergt. Roberts being unable to complete the identification, Capt. Griffith had written to the sheriff at Swainsboro to send a photograph of the man in prison there, and this has not yet been done.

Thursday Gov. H. W. Hilditch, the matter up with Capt. Griffith and the latter, instead of going to Washington to attend the meeting of the commission to confer with Mr. Roosevelt in regard to a Southern interstate reformatory, decided to leave at once for Swainsboro and to take a look at the prisoner who is believed to be an alias of a man named Hardy, one of the principals in a recent robbery in the city.

Dear Sir: I have just received a picture from Mr. G. B. Kirtrell of Cops, S. C., which he says is the picture of D. S. Murphy. If it is his picture, I have no doubt that I understand why Mr. R. Roberts did not take him for I and everybody that has seen the man and picture knows that it is the same man. So the matter seems to be in rather bad shape.

Yours very truly, J. W. Fields, Sheriff of Emanuel County.

THE END OF A DRUNK.

A Man Pays Dearly for His Sunday Fun and Imposition.

A white man named Batten from Greens section, visited Spartanburg Sunday and secured a physician's prescription to get some whiskey from the dispensary. He then hunted up Mayor Floyd, who has to sign these prescriptions in order to make them valid.

To the doctor and to the mayor he related the story, which was to the effect that his wife was a very sick woman, and that he wanted the whiskey to carry her to her. He signed the paper, Mr. Floyd said to the man, "If you are fooling me you'll regret it." This caused the stranger to vociferously and vehemently repeat his story, and his anxiety about his wife's condition, and his desire to get back to his home seemed to be real.

No sooner had he secured the quart of booze from a dispensary than he hastened in rear of the building, uncorked it and began drinking freely. After several liberal applications of the "red," he hired a hack and began taking in the city. The policeman steered him to the lookup.

When he greeted Mayor Floyd Thursday morning on charges of drunkenness, he had no talk to make about the sick folks at home; but begged the mercy of the cur. His indisposition was too much for his honor, however, and he was sentenced to pay a fine of $25, the extreme limit. He paid up and left the city a sadder, but wiser man.—Spartanburg Herald.

Killed With Toy Pistol.

At Knoxville, Tenn., on Thursday, while playing with a fifteen cent toy pistol Jess Barber, seven years old, shot and killed R. Y. Walker, his six-year-old playmate. The pistol is of the type which has been introduced into the local market for holiday sales. The boys in the neighborhood soon learned that small loaded cartridges could be used and it was thought to be great sport to have a pistol that would shoot. Mrs. Walker, who saw the boys a moment before the tragedy, said they were playing and there was no thought in the mind of her son to even hurt his playmate. She was taken by the police to prevent the sale of these pistols.

Reduction Proposed.

Representative Bennett of New York introduced a bill to cut down the representation of Southern States in congress because of the disfranchisement of the negro vote. The bill reduces the entire number of representatives from 386 to 355. The several States would have their delegations reduced as follows: Alabama from 9 to 8; Arkansas from 11 to 10; Louisiana from 7 to 4; Mississippi from 8 to 5; North Carolina from 10 to 7; South Carolina from 7 to 3; Tennessee from 10 to 8; Texas from 16 to 13; Virginia from 11 to 7.

To Stop Hazing.

Rear Admiral Sands, superintendent of the Naval Academy, reached the department Friday morning and conferred with Secretary Danparts and Rear Admiral Converse, chief of bureau of navigation, regarding the hazing at Annapolis. The conference lasted until the cabinet hour, and will be resumed Friday afternoon when the details of the condition of affairs at the academy will be taken up and a plan of campaign mapped out looking to the absolute abolishment of hazing in all forms.

Made Love To A Dummy.

J. P. Kimbrough is a native of German town, Tenn., and was appointed to the naval academy by Representative M. R. Patterson of the Tenth Tennessee district. Relations say that recent letters from young Kimbrough tell of some of his experiences at Annapolis. One letter states that a broomstick was dressed in female apparel and that the young man was forced to "make love" to the dummy.

THE ONLY REMEDY THAT CURES RHEUMATISM TO STAY CURED.

GETS AT THE JOINTS FROM THE INSIDE

RUBBING DON'T CURE.

Rheumatism is an internal disease and requires an internal remedy. RHEUMACIDE "Gets at the Joints from the Inside," and that is the reason it Cures after all other remedies have failed. Rheumacide sweeps all the poisonous germs and acids out of the blood and "Makes You Well All Over." Those pains are danger signals, warning you of a disease that threatens the entire system. Headaches, Pains, Bad Taste in the Mouth, that "No-Account" feeling indicate that you need

Rheumacide

REMOVES THE CAUSE OF THE PAIN.

Quincy, Mass., July 18, 1905. Cured 80-year-old Mrs. Mary Webster, of High Point, N. C., after she had suffered 20 years. Cured Rev. J. R. Wheeler, 70 years old, a leading Methodist minister, of Reisterstown, Md. Cured John F. Elino, of St. Louis, Mo., after he had been in bed three years and his legs were drawn up against his neck. Better get a bottle from your druggist at once. Sample bottle and booklet FREE if you send 6 cents for postage.

BOBBITT CHEMICAL CO., Proprietors, BALTIMORE.

There's Danger in Delay.

RACE SUICIDE LAID TO CLUBS

One Woman in Sixteen Becomes a Mother After Joining.

O'g Louise Cadlah, a young Ohio woman has turned on her sex who belongs to clubs and written dreadful things which she defies club women to deny. She pictures the club woman as a destroyer of the home in the gentle meaning of the word, a woman who commits a race suicide and encourages other women to do likewise.

The average number of children to married members of the General Federation of Women's clubs, she declares, is two, while the average number of children that blessed the mothers of these same women three and one-half.

"The average age of the membership of the women's clubs in the country is thirty-three years. The average age of the youngest children of the married members is eleven years. A careful investigation of the membership of women's clubs shows that 42.1 per cent of the women in sixteen become a mother after joining."

"The average age of the membership of the women's clubs in the country is thirty-three years. The average age of the youngest children of the married members is eleven years. A careful investigation of the membership of women's clubs shows that 42.1 per cent of the women in sixteen become a mother after joining."

"The average age of the membership of the women's clubs in the country is thirty-three years. The average age of the youngest children of the married members is eleven years. A careful investigation of the membership of women's clubs shows that 42.1 per cent of the women in sixteen become a mother after joining."

"The average age of the membership of the women's clubs in the country is thirty-three years. The average age of the youngest children of the married members is eleven years. A careful investigation of the membership of women's clubs shows that 42.1 per cent of the women in sixteen become a mother after joining."

"The average age of the membership of the women's clubs in the country is thirty-three years. The average age of the youngest children of the married members is eleven years. A careful investigation of the membership of women's clubs shows that 42.1 per cent of the women in sixteen become a mother after joining."

"The average age of the membership of the women's clubs in the country is thirty-three years. The average age of the youngest children of the married members is eleven years. A careful investigation of the membership of women's clubs shows that 42.1 per cent of the women in sixteen become a mother after joining."

"The average age of the membership of the women's clubs in the country is thirty-three years. The average age of the youngest children of the married members is eleven years. A careful investigation of the membership of women's clubs shows that 42.1 per cent of the women in sixteen become a mother after joining."

"The average age of the membership of the women's clubs in the country is thirty-three years. The average age of the youngest children of the married members is eleven years. A careful investigation of the membership of women's clubs shows that 42.1 per cent of the women in sixteen become a mother after joining."

"The average age of the membership of the women's clubs in the country is thirty-three years. The average age of the youngest children of the married members is eleven years. A careful investigation of the membership of women's clubs shows that 42.1 per cent of the women in sixteen become a mother after joining."

"The average age of the membership of the women's clubs in the country is thirty-three years. The average age of the youngest children of the married members is eleven years. A careful investigation of the membership of women's clubs shows that 42.1 per cent of the women in sixteen become a mother after joining."

"The average age of the membership of the women's clubs in the country is thirty-three years. The average age of the youngest children of the married members is eleven years. A careful investigation of the membership of women's clubs shows that 42.1 per cent of the women in sixteen become a mother after joining."

"The average age of the membership of the women's clubs in the country is thirty-three years. The average age of the youngest children of the married members is eleven years. A careful investigation of the membership of women's clubs shows that 42.1 per cent of the women in sixteen become a mother after joining."

"The average age of the membership of the women's clubs in the country is thirty-three years. The average age of the youngest children of the married members is eleven years. A careful investigation of the membership of women's clubs shows that 42.1 per cent of the women in sixteen become a mother after joining."

"The average age of the membership of the women's clubs in the country is thirty-three years. The average age of the youngest children of the married members is eleven years. A careful investigation of the membership of women's clubs shows that 42.1 per cent of the women in sixteen become a mother after joining."

"The average age of the membership of the women's clubs in the country is thirty-three years. The average age of the youngest children of the married members is eleven years. A careful investigation of the membership of women's clubs shows that 42.1 per cent of the women in sixteen become a mother after joining."

"The average age of the membership of the women's clubs in the country is thirty-three years. The average age of the youngest children of the married members is eleven years. A careful investigation of the membership of women's clubs shows that 42.1 per cent of the women in sixteen become a mother after joining."

"The average age of the membership of the women's clubs in the country is thirty-three years. The average age of the youngest children of the married members is eleven years. A careful investigation of the membership of women's clubs shows that 42.1 per cent of the women in sixteen become a mother after joining."

"The average age of the membership of the women's clubs in the country is thirty-three years. The average age of the youngest children of the married members is eleven years. A careful investigation of the membership of women's clubs shows that 42.1 per cent of the women in sixteen become a mother after joining."

"The average age of the membership of the women's clubs in the country is thirty-three years. The average age of the youngest children of the married members is eleven years. A careful investigation of the membership of women's clubs shows that 42.1 per cent of the women in sixteen become a mother after joining."

Blood Poison Can Be Cured.

At Your Own Home. If You Have Any of Its Symptoms, Write Dr. Hathaway of Atlanta, Ga. He Can Cure It In Any Stage and Without Great Expense. A Quarter Century of Experience. Send for Valuable Book. Other Diseases Cured.

Dr. Newton Hathaway of Atlanta, Ga., the South's most expert, reliable and successful specialist in his line of treatment, says most positively that he has a method that will cure any case of Specific Blood Poison or syphilis whether in Primary, Secondary or Tertiary stage, and he gives every afflicted person every opportunity to investigate this method.

Recognized as the Oldest Established and Most Reliable Specialist.

COTTON GINNER SAND MACHINERY O. W. S. R.

Write for Prices on the Following:

Babbit Couplings	Guages	Lubricators	Belt, Gandy
Drills	Guage Cocks	Oil Cups	Belt, Rubber
Hack Saws	Oil Cups	Belts	Electors
Fittings	Injectors	Pipe	Files
Lace Leather	Packing all kinds	Shafting	Collars for Shafting and anything else in machinery supplies.

Columbia Supply Co., Columbia, S. C.

THE GUINARD BRICK WORKS, COLUMBIA, S. C.

Manufacturers Brick, Fire Proof Terra Cotta Building Blocks, Pipe, Linings and Drain Tile. Prepared to fill orders for thousands or millions.

Night Coughing.

Murray's Horehound Mullen and Tar, if taken just before retiring, almost invariably prevents night coughing, and insures a good night's rest. It has the same magical effect in all affections of the throat, chest and lungs. Consumption, Colds, Croup, Whooping Cough, Sore Throat, Croup, Whooping Cough.

MURRAY'S HOREHOUND MULLIEN AND TAR

Is composed of herbs and medicines well known for their soothing, healing effect on inflamed and irritated air passages. It contains nothing harmful and is absolutely pure for young and old. A household remedy of unquestionable value. Physicians who know its composition gladly recommend and prescribe it. Sold at a price no higher than you pay for ordinary cough remedies.

Price 25cts. Guaranteed Satisfactory to every purchaser.

AT DRUG STORES.

Prepared by the Murray Drug Co., Columbia, S. C.

15 Men Burned.

Fifteen men were burned by an explosion in the International Harvester Company's plant at O'Leary and Muskegon streets, Chicago one night last week. The explosion was caused by a workman thrusting a cold bar of steel into a furnace of molten metal. In the immediate vicinity of the furnace at the time sixty men were working. The more seriously injured were in the furnace shaft. Following the explosion chaos reigned in the furnace room for several minutes. Molten metal was hurled about the room and the smoke and fire that shot from the furnace filled the room so the workmen were unable for several minutes to find the exits. With the groans of their wounded fellows ringing in their ears, they groped about helplessly and stumbled over those who had been prostrated by the blast. From the furnace chimney the flames shot high into the air and could be seen for miles.

These women of the county are demanding that one of their number be given a place on the jury. They need to look after their own interests and girls, who...

100 Pianos, 100 Members.

==Piano Club==

$287

To club members for the new scale $400 Ludden & Bates. Pay $10 at first then $8 monthly. No delays. Pianos shipped promptly. Our Guarantee—Warranted for a life time.

Interested in the fastest and best piano proposition ever made, write for booklet "E" which will explain our club plan. Do not delay, the club will soon be filled.

ORGANS of the best quality $45 up Upright Pianos From $225 up. Write Us Malone's Music House, 1432 Main Street Temple, Columbia, S. C.