125 Bushels Of Corn TO The Aore

Williamson of Darlington, S. C. was at the cotton convention in New Orleans last week talking corn. He raises 125 bushels to the acre, and has been doing that tor ien years past. His method of cultivating is peculiar. He gives his corn but very little cultivation but gives that cultivation at the right time. Our people work theirs into big stalks and small ears. Mr. Williamson works bration, February 5 7. They will his up into small stalks and big also sell tickets on certificate plan ears. He does not begin to plough of one and one third fare, plus 25 his field until the corn has reach cents, for the round trip to New ed a certain stage and he saves Orleans La; Mobile, Ala, and labor and makes a big crop. By Pensacola, Fla on occount of Marway of comparison, it might be di Gras, February 22 27. Reduced stated that the farmers around race round trip tickets will also Mr. Williamson raise from 10 to be sold at rate of one and one-Mr. Williamson raise from 10 to be sold at rate of one and one-15 bushels of corn to the acre. A third fare to Jacksonville, Fla, on account of Woodman of the World bushels of corn is produced to the Convention, Eebruary 20-25. acre, is well worth looking into .-Charlotte Evening Chronicle.
