with fiery glow, 'er's iron rings, like smoke, curls upword s ds blow cold, and leaves drift sere, ocking-wren sings loud and clear, Sweetheart! theart-sweet-sweet ! O word most dear, ost pleasing to a maiden's ear ! -Home Journal

STORY OF A BUFFALO BOY.

NOW THE LIVES OF NINE HUMAN BEINGS WERE SAVED.

One afternoon during the summer of On the afternoon of July 27, 1870, 1865 the steamer St. John ran up to her Clancy was in swimming off Pier 391. dock at Pier 41. Among her pas-A boy about eleven years old sat upon sengers was a regiment of soldiers. stringpiece watching] the bathers. As the boat swung into her place they He was leaning his weight upon his were drawn up in line, and the roll was hand, when the hand slipped and he shot called. Seven men were missing. The overboard. He had no sooner struck colonel, in a voice choked with anger. the water than he began to paddle like ordered a thorough search of the boat. a dog, and screeched like a parrot. The fight was overhauled, and a line Clancy swam to him, caught him by the s poured into the hold, but the arm, and steered him to the raft near mere not found. At last one the opposite dock. The boy climbed eant opened the little door of out, and ran home as though Satan was to whee house. The runaways were after him. His name was unknown. perched a ong the beams surrounding but he lived somewhere in Desbrosses the huge theel, but they refused to come out. The engineer was asked to street. turn the vaddle of full speed, as the sleeper.

In the month of December, 1872. colonel fricied this might drown them Clancy was employed on the steamboat wheel was immovable. As a last resort Rattler. One day she was lying in dock Stern, Oct. 5th, 1877." Mr. Stern lives manly trash, and had not wherein to out ; b there was no steam, and the a file of men drew up before the little at the foot of Franklin street, Pier 35. at 275 East Seventy-fifth street. Some men were getting coal out of a arm, and said : that way, pap, are you?" and the man drew out an old-fashioned leather kept until I could hardly D wallet and gave him a dollar. The most him by the shoulders and tried to push singular part of the story is that the old man's name was Smith. John Smith threw him the rope, and Ed. Smith drove him to the Boston depot. He did not change his clothes until inside of a him away, but couldn't. All this time I was treading water to keep him afloat. tu Then I stopped treading, and let n.y- and eve self down into the water, and slid his teen pock arms over my head. As I came up I every pocket caught him by the coat collar and showed never had any use for. I weighed him up to the bridge, where he got hold down and doubled over like an old man. of the life-rope. The bridgeman low- As the things wore out or were lost ered a ladder, he caught the next to the (there wasn't a unit in the entire mass lower round with one hand, and they that anybody would steal), I replaced them with new things, generally heavier, dragged him out on the ladder like a bulkier and more utterly worthless. By drowned rat. When he got out his first and by the pockets, not being made for cry was, 'Where's my hat?' I swam eternity, began to wear out. When around and found his hat, and they some of the pockets gave way, their oulled me up on one of the chain ropes. precious cargoes fell to the ground, and I I gave him his hat, and a policeman took saw them again not none no more forhim to 274 West street and put him to bed. He went off without thanking me, but afterward I received this gold badge, boots, and I went limping and clanking in milk and cream. with his compliments."

around like a manacled felon all day. Mr. Clancy took the badge from the Then I reformed. I had a suit made lappel of his waistcoat and exhibited it. that contained absolutely no pockets. It was of fine gold, worth about $18, and And that was worse than the other. I bore the following inscription : "J.

on. Keep an old pair expressly for this Clancy, for saving the life of Louis still accumulated the same amount of purpose. When washing the hands use very little soap, and rinse it off well; dry warehouse the same. I carried letters thoroughly. in my hat like an old man. I was com-

Carnival Fan in South America.

A Buenos Avres correspondent gives his experience during a carnival there as follows: One house in particular attract-

Y, FEBRUARY 14, 1878.

cleaned out until spring.

the renowned experimenter in practical farming, says: "From long observations I am more and more convinced that a loose, friable bed for wheat is a mistake and that compression or solidity in the soil is a necessity to prevent the failure of the root in taking hold of the Cows in milk may be made greatly more profitable by feeding wheat mid-high as four quarts of corn meal, and three of wheat middlings, to some cows producing butter : the butter is increased in quantity and improved in quality and color. The kind of cow, however,

Medical Hints.

CHAPPED OR ROUGH HANDS. -- When

making fires or sifting ashes have gloves ground after sowing."

cured at any druggists.

A VAPOR BATH AT HOME. - A vapor boiling water, which may be placed in March.

FARM, GARDEN AND HOUSEHOLD.

An Eagle's Wonderful Y The Great Geyser of Iceland. Farm Notes. Manure may be carted to the orchard ind spread over the whole surface. The two thousand feet high with a narrow daybreak, one Sunday morning, and deand spread over the whole surface. The to the sea. The elevated plateau is the scended the mountains by a short out time of manuring is not of so much im- seat of every species of volcanic action, surprised a pair of harpy eagles on their portar ce as to get it en et any rate. It is a mistake to put a little manure close around the trunks of trees. State of every species of volcanic action, surprised a part of harpy cagtes of the volcances, hot springs, and geysers. knocked down one of them, which, either to scare the intruder, or because it was These last exist in great numbers; more to scare the intruder, or because it was am," replied the wit, "how happy I Calves and yearlings may be made to than one hundred are found in a circle scared out of its own wits, flew directly should be to stand higher in your esta increase in size and weight considerably, of two miles diameter. One of these, at his head. The bird flopped among and make a large quantity of fine ma- the Great Geyser, has long attracted at- the boulders, but before it could take wing again the miner put an end to its nure, by keeping them in a roomy shed, tention.

The Great Geyser is a basin or pool struggling with a few well aimed whacks, bedding them deeply with cut straw or fifty-six feet in diameter, on the top of a and, shouldering his game, resumed his ieaves, and feeding them well. With mound thirty feet high. From the bot- road toward the valley settlement. Half plenty of bedding the shed need not be tom of the basin descends a funnel-shaped way down hill he reached a steep cliff, pipe eighteen feet in diameter at the and shifted his burden to his left

No question is more frequently asked top, and seventy-eight feet deep. Both shoulder to use his right arm to better than: "When shall I prune?" If the the basin and the tube are lined with advantage, but at the most critical monife, it makes but little difference when silica, evidently deposited from the ment of the dangerous descent he sud cutting is such as may be done with a water. The natural inference is, that denly felt the claws of the eagle at his the mound is built up by deposit from neck, and in order to save himself had him. The result produced was bruitant is done, but if on old and neglected trees, where large wounds are to be the water, in somewhat the same manner to drop his stick, which fell down the made, it is better to do it when the seas a volcanic cone is built up by its own cliffs and into the bed of a mountain torvegetation starts. In the climate of ejections. In the intervals between the rent. Holding on to the bird with one New York, late in February and early eruptions the basin is filled to the brim hand, he managed to reach the foot of with perfectly transparent water, hav- the precipice, where he seized the struging a temperature of about 170 to 180 gling captive by the legs, and swinging J. J. Mechi, of Tiptree Hall, England,

First. Immediately preceding the erup- till its convulsions had ceased entirely. tion sounds like cannonading are heard His arrival in the village, with the tale tical. His creed was summed up in a beneath, and bubbles rise and break on of his adventure, created quite a sensa- few words: "My son, go forth and the surface of the water. Second. A tion, but when the bird was deposited 'hog' the public." It is a popular bulging of the surface is then seen, and on the ground to be examined at leisure, the water overflows the basin. Third, it revived for the third time, struck its Immediately thereafter the whole of the claws through the hand of its captor, water in the tube and basin is shot up- and struggled to its feet, and would have ward one hundred feet high, forming a escaped after all, if the enraged miner fountain of dazzling splendor. Fourth. had not flung himself upon it, seized a dlings freely; it will pay to feed as The eruption of water is immediately fol- rock and hammered its head to a jelly.

lowed by the escape of steam with a roaring noise. These last two phenomena are repeated several times, so that the fountain continues to play for several minutes, Times, arrived in this city a man who left Cuba on the 24th of December last. until the water is sufficiently cooled, and ever. When others of the pockets wore is important, as some will fatten upon then all is again quiet until another erupr and who served four years in the patriot out, the things went down into my this feed, while others will only increase tion. The eruptions occur tolerably regu- army. He was captain in the second larly every ninety minutes, and last six or regiment second brigade of cavalry, seven minutes. Throwing large stones under the command of Maximo Gomez, that their presence brings luck. It did, into the tube has the effect of bringing the present commander-in-chief of the on the eruption more quickly .- Popula | patriot forces, who now number 28,400 Science Monthly.

How He Protected the Rabbit. The Davenport (Iowa) Gazette s.ys : men during the period of our civil war at $99,480,976 N. Nion gallons of Oroton water are consumed aily in New York. The birthplace of the grasshopper is in the Snaka river valley, Rocky Ben Yen, a Oninese cigar me in San Francisco, recently returned home with a fortune of $100,000. The statistical bureau of Berlin esti-mates that the total team motive power of the world equals the force of 25,000,-

Russia las 12,000 miles of cailways in operation, but until the late war she did not think the telegraph worth going to much expense war

The gas works ... Portiand, Me., are wowded daily with chi taken there to inhale the gas a dy for whocoing cough.

Said a lady to the famous actor, Garrick, "I wish you were taller." " Madmation."

There are 939 journals of a political character published in France, and the amount of "caution" which they have to deposit with the government represents a total of 5,593,311 francs, very nearly $1,098,889.

It occurred to a small boy of Fonddu-Lac, Wis., that a good way to get rid of his dog was to give the animal a kerosene bath, and there touch a match to in the extreme, the entire neighborhood being lighted up by the flames of the barn under which the dog, took shelter. "If you would suc...ed in this life, my son," said Tom Corwin, " be solemn, solemn as an ass. All the monuments of it up, dashed its head against a rock this world are built to solemn asses." Artemus Ward's father was more praccreed

> CARRIED BY "A LARGE MAJORITY." He pressed her to his manly breast, She seconded the motion : His lips on hers he fondly pressed, There was a slight commotion

I'll put the question now, said he That you and I be married : He voted " aye," and "aye " said she -Decided-vote was carried. - Locknort Union

M. Dugue, a Parisian dramatist, had nearly $20,000 in gold in his desk, and beside the gold was a sack of bright new sous that his wife had long been saving up in accordance with the superstition for an enterprising burglar, taking the sous for 40-franc pieces, carrie.l them men, of whom 3,000 are Americans, off with the next bag and left $17,600

> In Compton, Canada, a person about to visit a friend several miles distant,

Escaped in a Hogshead. A few days ago, says the St. Louis

$2.00 per Annum, in Advance, principally ex-confederate soldiers. This untouched.

captain was one of the Stonewall Jackson with orders to fire upon the truants if they did not rejoin their comperches and were secured by the guard. the coals that dropped from the hoist-The roll was again called, but one and standing on the lower paddle of the sergeant. Had he remained there he stroke, he set up a wild outery that was stringpiece. Her name was Dillon, and Washington street. heard by the whole regiment. He was she was about thirteen years old, but fast drifting into another world when he does not remember where she lived. John Clancy, a Buffalo boy, threw him a rope, and he was drawn upon the dock, faint and dripping. But he escaped one misfortune to meet another ; for he was hardly out of the jaws of death before, loaded with chains, he was marched off under guard with his comrades.

VI. AND VII. On the second Sunday in August, the steamboat squad, who had saved open window I suddenly received a bath may be easily prepared by taking a at the foot of Desbrosses street, when duty in return for a salary of so much saying: "Johnny, there is somebody New York. overboard out there, and you'd better On the last Sunday in August, 1868. go and see." The lad dashed out on old. He is no city official, and is not in for, be it remembered, no etiquette is hour with a blanket over his shoulders, John Clancy was working on the tugboat Pier 391. Two children were drowning duty bound to risk his life for the pre- observed during the carnival festivities. reaching the floor to keep in the steam. E. L. Barrett. About half-past eight in | under the dock. A little girl had fallen the evening she lay at Pier 39; North through a big hole in the planking, and nine lives within ten years, six of them into a richly furnished apartment and that the water is too hot, and the blank-River. In the full moonlight young a brave little boy went through the same Clancy saw a well-dressed woman ap- hole in an effort to rescue her. He had own master. For these ten lives he has the, the weapons to be used being the allow the steam to escape. These simproach the bulkhead. "I watched her." undertaken more than he could perform. says he, "because I thought there was for the girl caught him around the arms, a small gold badge from a New Yorker scented waters. Procuring one I ac- every one, and if promptly resorted to, something strange about her." She and prevented him from swimming. The hesitated as she walked, looked to the | tide worked them out toward the stringright then to the left, and finally stared piece, and the screams of the girl were a heavy gold medal as a testimonial from behind her for a long time. Suddenly plainly heard. The boy besought her the Humane Society. What testimonial ary resistance was suddenly precipitated To WASH RED TABLE LINEN.-Use care of themselves than formerly. They she made a rush and jumped into the to let go his arms, but she clung to him water. The plunge alone was heard, for the closer, and, to use Clancy's words. she never opened her head after the "they were drowning each other." A leep. Clancy ran around and got a crowd of able-bodied men stood upon heaving line. Laying it it down on the the pier listening to the death struggle dock, he plunged into the tide, and of the little hero and his charge, but it caught the woman, whose clothes had was destitute of manhood and made no woyed her up. "I grabbed her," he intelligent effort to save them. vs, "and as soon as she saw me she Clancy plunged beneath the pier, and abbed me." He then tried to force caught them just in time. They were her against the dock, but she resisted, clinging to each other as though welded and made desperate efforts to get away. together. The Buffalo lad pushed them A strong flood tide was drifting them from under the dock, and a baggage man from the dock. dropped him a rope. He tied the little

With a last effort he caught her around girl, and she was drawn up more dead the waist and called for the police. His than alive. Clancy and the little hero hoarse halloo seemed to quiet her, for who had gone to her rescue swam over she wrapped her arms around his neck to a raft at the bulkhead of Pier 40, and and made no more resistance. An officer got out without difficulty. The name of appeared near a pile of hay, and Clancy the brave little boy is unknown. He was the siege. He believes with Captain told him where to find the heaving line. about twelve years old, and was evident- Howgate that this means of traveling The rope was thrown, he tied it around her waist, and the officer drew her out. Clancy says he thinks the officer's name was McNolly. He asked the woman who she was and where she lived, but tender, and remarkably pretty. The and that was the last he heard of her.

out a pair of shoes running after him. The course you have pursued in recom- Life Insurance and Trust Company, was twice a week a little stale sponge cake. nizing the great principle that what is and constantly doing things that made not natural cannot be beautiful.-Har- people hold up their hands and exclaim. On the 20th of July, 1868, at five hash-or ham- ! He is alive yet and worth plenty of mending the use of small balloons in elected president, and bought up the P. M., the steamer Bristol of the Fall the programme of the meteorologist of most of the stock. Deposits poured in. She wandered or rather whirled all over if you say a word to her, she blushes like money. per's Bazar. river line cast loose from Pier 30, North A Big Family of Brothers. the Florence (the vessel in which the and the profits were enormous, the the United States and Canadas; spent flash. river. There had been quite a rush of The Sacramento (Cal.) Union says Antiquity of Nursery Rhymes. ets so dreadful nervous when she passe American expedition is to be made) is dividends ranging from fifteen to forty six years in various parts of Europe passengers. The gangplank had been On the night of the 5th of last October that a lady teacher in one of the schools "Sing a Song of Sixpence" is as old went up the Nile; to the Holy Land, to ou your hash already fruitful. The chief of the per cent. These dividends were not, pulled in, the paddles were churning the 7:55 ferry boat from Jersey City was of that city makes a practice of testing as the sixteenth century. "Three Constantinople; took up her residence rows a side glace at you, as if the darling meteorological service of the Imperial however, earned. The reputed millionthe water, and the boat began to move, working into her slip at Desbrosses the ability of her scholars by giving Blind Mice" is found in a music-book for a time in the West Indies finally Observatory, has already recommended aire made unlucky investments, and sy, "Please 'don't talk to me, sir, I'n when an old man ran down the pier with street. She was "the train boat." Her them original examples in arithmetic, dated 1690. "The Frog and the Mouse" coming back to the United State their use on the strength of experi- saved himself from ruin by misusing the such an innocent a valise in his hand. He was terribly bow gates were pushed open. A pasin addition to those found in the text- was licensed in 1580. "Three Children After a year of railroad and hotel funds of the bank. He tried to conceal ments." anxious to get aboard. "Run below, senger, with a box in each hand, strugbook. The other day she submitted, on Sliding on the Ice" dates from 1633. over the length and breadth of the New, when her work is ended for the day, sh the truth by keeping up the big diviand jump into the freight gangway," gled for a front position, stumbled, and Louis Hall, a noted gambler, shot and dends, but when goes to see the spur of the moment, the proposi- "London Bridge is Broken Down the suddenly purchased - little ment was no shouted two of the passengers, and pitched overhoard, head first, between killed Dave Hall, a cousin, on Beaver longer possible the dearest friend and intimate, Miss Bridge tion : "Charles has $150 ; he purchases unfathomed antiquity. "Girls uspended. The secluded farm in a distant New England Ann Machree ; away he went like a shot. He made a the bridge and the boat. One of the creek, in Floyd county, ky., recently. developments sho town, and buried herself upowit. Here And to the nightly ball they go, where mirth various articles at such and such prices Boys come out to Play " is certain stematic fraud jump, evidently intending to land be- baxes went in with him and the other They had been drinking and gambling on the part of B (naming them), and then divides the re- old as the reign of Charles II.; as is also she has lived for four years, having ger, the presiand pleasure wait. mainder of the money among his broth- "Lucy Locket lost her Pocket," to the hardly in that time stepped over her And meet the "byes," who only leave them at tween the posts, but struck the side of was left on the bow. In ten seconds the all day, and Louis had lost all his ready dent, and his so cashier. They ers, giving each of them $2-how many tune of which the American song of property, or communicated with those the gangway and dropped overboard, boat struck the bridge, and the unfor- cash, and while he had gone home for , sentenced to were indicted. co brothers did he have? The class "Yankee Doodle" was written. "Pussy who were once her friends-a case of a Whose eyes so bright at six o'clock-whose the garden-gate. valise and all. The boat swept out into tunate man was hidden from sight. Cor- more, Dave pretended to get so drunk two years in jail, ie age of three. ciphered energetically for a moment, and Cat, Pussy Cat, where have you been?" thorough surfeit of life and weariness the stream, her officers oblivious to his nelius Ryan, a passenger, roared out, he couldn't play. Louis drew his pistol score-and-ten Jac tzinger is in a cries. "And how he hallooed," says "There's a man overboard," and there and shot Dave dead, and then cooly prison cell, and his step so light and freethen first one and another commenced is of the age of Queen Bess. "Little with the world at forty. s in another As this sweet, modest little girl who went to bed at three? Clancy. "You could hear him a block." was great commotion. to smile, and finally there was a general Jack Horner" is older than the seventurned him over, closed his eyes, and The lad threw off his cap and made a "Where is he?" asked a medium- struck for the State line. Severai outburst of merriment, which was ex- teenth century. "The Old Woman Young man, before setting out to" Many a bog nbe she can do Who says she isn't all she seems? dive for him. The old fellow could not sized young man, with a well-sprouted zens started in pursuit, and, finding it nothing band, and when plained when the answer to the problem | Tossed in a Blanket" is of the reign of "court a girl," supply yourself plenticnn of tea "-impossible to arrest the fugitive, shot she gets one finds that was given : "He had forty-five brothers James II, to which monarch it is sup- fully with court-plaster. This will make And finding fault is wim, but he held on to his valise, and mustache. that kept him up. The current carried "Un ler the boat," shouled Ryan. him dead. and two-ninths of a brother." posed to allude, - World of Wonders. her stick to you. ing with him. you or .....

in use.

pelled to lay borrowed pocket-knives out canal beat near by. A little girl with On Sunday, Oct. 14th. Clancy was on the desk in plain view, and their room, when a small boy ran in out of long-forgotten owners would come in. mand. Thus threatened they left their an old pail sat upon the boat picking up again employed in Tom Scott's baggage ing bucket. One of the men in a harsh breath, and said: "Johnny, there's recognize the whittling things, and reman was still missing. He had been in voice told her to clear out, but she paid somebody overboard. Go quick !" claim them. I laid my creditors' letters the wheel-house with those captured, no attention, and seemed determined to Again was there a crowd of big, able- down for other people to pick up and fill her pail. With an oath the man bodied men on the dock at the foot of read and chuckle over. I had to carry wheel had been overlooked by the Irish started for her. The frightened little Watts street. Another boy had tumbled all my money in my hands, and how thing ran toward the bow, but stubbed in from a string-piece. He was scream- does a man look, I'd like to know, going might have been safe ; but he saw a her toe against a cleet, and pitched over- ing, kicking, and paddling for dear life, about the streets with a nickel in each small raft under the dock, and thought, board. It was about dinner time The while men were reaching for him with hand? It isn't dignified, and it isn't if he could only reach it, he would be water was so cold she could not scream. old hoops, and poking sticks in his face. safe. To be sure, this happened on paymore secure. With this object in view Clancy seized a boat hook, and ran Clancy was overboard in a flash. He day, but even once a month is too often he sprang for a spile, thinking to clasp down the dock. As she dritted within held the boy in his arms until a rope or such a reckless disulay. So what it with his arms and legs and pass on to reach he held it out. She clenched it was found, wher he bound him, and the are we to do ?- The Hawkeye Man. the raft. He missed the spile and fell with both hands, and he drew her on adventurous shaver was drawn ashore. into the water. The tide carried him the dock. He says she went home very His name was Ryan. He was about beneath the dock. Unable to swim a much like the boy who fell from the thirteen years old, and lived at 448 FINALLY. A morning newspaper not long ago ed my attention, and while gazing at the gave the name of a police officer, one of richly furnished room through the wide 1874, Clancy was standing in the bag- many lives, and justly awarded him shower of eau de cologne in my face, pail about half full of hot, but not quite gage room of the Pennsylvania railroad, great praise. But he simply did his completely blinding me for the instant. My discomfiture was intensified by the under a cane-bottomed chair, if one is at Sam Losey, the baggage master, came in per year, payed him by the taxpayers of merry laughter of a beautiful young hand, or if not, a narrow piece of wood lady, who happened to be my assailant, may be placed across the pail, and the

John Clancy is but twenty-three years and who courtously invited me within- patient should sit on it for about half an servation of others. Yet he has saved Accepting her invitation, I was ushered Should any faintness be felt it is a sign before the law made him a voter and his invited by her to engage in a mock bat- et may be laid open for a short time to received a dollar from a Bostonian and "pomito," an instrument charged with ple remedies are within the reach of -not enough to pay for the clothes he cepted her challenge, and while defend- on the first appearance of a cold, would has ruined. The police officer received ing myself against her attacks was seized save many a dollar in doctor's bills. from behind, and before I could offer ought the Buffalo boy to get? He is sober and industrious, bright eyed and energetic, and is now an employee of Desbrosses street. - New York Sun.

Ballooning at the Pole.

Captain Howgate has received a letter cure a change of raiment, determined to LAMP WICKS.-Lamp wick soaked for suffocation; when they sacrificed comfrom M. de Fonvielle, editor of Le be a little more careful in accepting a quarter of an hour in vinegar, then Temps, Paris, announcing that the further invitations to enter strange domi-dried before being put into a lamp, will to be their appearance-these foolish central section of the Geographical ciles, no matter how bewitching or en- not smoke. Try so simple a cure. Society, in session at the French chanting the fair goddess might be who capital, has adopted resolutions of en- reigned therein. As I hurried down the couragement and approval of the Polar street in the direction of my hotel my expedition of which Captain Howgate is wet garments attracted attention, and I the promoter. M. de Fonvielle is the became the target for showers of eggs. author of a French work entitled the the odors of which were not those from "Drift of the Polaris," and is also an Araby the Blest. I was indeed a sorryexpert at ballooning, having made sever looking spectacle when I reached my al voyages out of Paris and back during rooms. ly of Irish parentage. He disappeared can be made of great service in Polar as soon as he struck Pier 40. The girl's explorations. M. de Fonvielle expects began life as a poor but energetic and name was Dugan. She lived at No. 14 during the summer to participate in expenurious boy. He made money, mar-Desbrosses street. Her father threaten- periments in steering balloons by the ried a thrifty wife, went into timber, ed to sue van Aken, the dockbuilder, but | Gifford system. He writes relative to land, and colliery speculations, grew she refused to tell him. She was young, Clancy says that, through his influence, this matter : "If the result equals our rich, and was mean to miserliness. At the matter was settled for $50. "Van expectations, the summer of 1879 will length he determined to go into bankofficer conducted her to the police station, Aken," he adds, " promised me $10 for doubtless witness some aerial expedisettling it, but never paid me. I wore tion starting toward your Polar colony. Insurance Company into the Miners'

From a Bank to a Prison.

Jacob Huntzinger of Pottsville, Pa.,

FOR CHILBLAINS. — Procure a chamois The boa-constrictor sent to this city and shortly after its termination skin (wash leather), and make two pair of from the Isthmus of Panama by consul listed in the ranks of the Cuban patriots. socks, or legless stockings. The leather | Thorington, last August, and presented | Under orders from his superior officer must be free from holes. Have these to the Academy of Sciences, knows how his company, numbering eighty men, socks to fit snugly to the feet and come to live without food. He has eaten was detailed to destroy a plantation beup to the ankle. Wear next to the feet, nothing since it was brought here. Rats longing to a Spaniard, near the city of stove on his double team, started a rous night and day, inside the stocking. and rabbits have been put into its cage, | Cardenas; but, being betrayed, the en-Having two pairs will admit of their but it has taken no notice of them. Its tire command was surrounded by a force being changed and washed. Immediate eyes are always closed. When it was of 600 Spanish cavalry and all of them, relief will be experienced.

being taken to the new building, a with the exception of Captain W. and German picked it up by the head, another, were killed. After a series of self generally disagreeable and then won-TO CURE CORNS.-Bathe the corn with stretched it its full length of eight feet, thrilling adventures and narrow escapes, der that nobody will visit you. To sit strong borax-water, then shave it closely. pried its mouth open, picked its teeth Captain W. made his way in disguise shivering in the cold because you won't but be careful not to make it bleed. with a pin, and opened one of its eyes, into Cardenas, and through the assist- have a fire till November. Not to go to Place over the corn a white felt cornplaster and wear it constantly putil me and it put out its tongue as if in grate- ance of an American at that place, was bed when you are tired and sleepy becorn has disappeared. Every night and man said this snake's bite was not consul, who had him placed in an empty servants tell lies for you and afterward morning wet the small cavity over the poisonous. A rabbit was put into the hogshead, rolled along the wharf and be angry because they tell lies for themcorn (and in the plaster) with a little box, and it mounted the snake, scraped put on board of an Italian ship bound selves. To tell your own secrets and borax-water, or if preferable the pulp of scales from its epidermis, and had a for Antwerp. The captain of the ship believe other people will keep them. a lemon. The corn-plasters can be protime with his snakeship. Other hove to, and put him ashore at Kay West, when put in the pox, have cowered in a and from that point he made his way to A pompous attorney while trying a cause, corner, trembling with fear so prehi this city, where he is now awaiting the Was quizzing a witness and "picking for flaws." that they have been removed very receipt of letters and funds from rela-And here lies a joke-a serious one for gives in Wisconsin and Baltimore. the rabbit concerned. The little animal was put in the box, and was so Ladly frightened that a gentleman present was moved to denounce the act as cruelty. So he took possession of the rabbit, carried it to his place of busidiseases. Their feet are first swathed ness, and gave it the liberty of his in a coarse rag, which is then wound shop. He went out for a few minutes ; round the lower part of the leg, and when he returned all that was left of the bound tightly with twine; on the rag is rabbit was a little fur and some blood--The big rodents had little regard for his aversion to cruelty to animals.

American Women.

Household Hints. American women take vastly better into a huge tab of water, from which I tepid water, with a little powdered have more acquaintance with hygienic emerged in a sorry plight, much to the borax, which serves to set the color ; laws, and hold them in far higher esteem. amusement of the young lady and her wash the linen separately and quickly, The days when they exposed themselves the Pennsylvania railroad at the foot of two brothers, the latter being the cause using very little soap; rinse in tepid to dampness and wintry cold, in thin of my misfortune. Laughing with them water, containing a little boiled starch, slippers and silk stockings; when they at the joke they had played upon me I hang up to dry in the shade and iron abstained from flamels next to the skin; hurriedly returned to my hotel to pro- when almost dry. when they pinched their waists to semi-fort and health to what they conceived and unhappy days have gone forever. have barely been known to the rising THE INK-STAND. - A few cloves added to ink will prevent it becoming mouldy and imparts a pleasant perfume. Be sure to cover up the ink-stand when not

To BRIGHTEN A COPPER KETTLE.-Use mons: that pale faces and compressed a coarse cloth, have a pail of very hot lungs are tokens of beauty. They dress water, soap the cloth a little, sprinkle seasonably; they wear thick boots and on plenty of pulverized borax, and rub warm clothes in bad and cold weather; the boiler well; rinse off with hot water, they allow themselves to breathe freely, and dry with a soft cloth. This is and they find their looks improved, not much better and safer than using acid. injured by the wholesome change. There TO FEED YOUNG BIRDS. -- When canary are exceptions-many of them doubtless birds are first hatched, and until they —but the rule is as we have described. are able to leave the nest, they should and the exceptions are constantly dimhave every day hard-boiled egg, chopped inishing. It may be safely said that all prepared a family gift in the shape of a turkey and plum pudding. Knowing that he would arrive rather too late to have them cooked for dinner, he put a ing fire, and when he reached the house of his friend both turkey and pudding were ready for the table. Everyday absurdities-To make your-

Trogaition of his services. The brought to the office of the American cause it is not bedtime. To make your

"A little attention while trying this case." Your Honor," responded the meek little man. Living in Spite of Hygiene. "I'm paying as little as any one can." It is certainly a mystery that the in habitants of the Ottoman empire did not all perish years ago from pulmonary On the "squabble," and said, from the bench > where he sat We want nothing but silence, and little of that.

" LITTLE.

Provoking him until he appealed to the judge.

"I demand, sir," he cried, with a flery red face,

The judge, with a frown,

Looked solemnly down

Among the mourners at the funeral of tied a piece of sole leather hammered Engineer Hatch, of West Winsted, rats had devoured the innocent thing ! into a rudely shaped sandal, with sides Conn., was his mother, whose life has rising one inch up the sides of the foot; been one long story of woes. Two of holes are cut in the upper edges of the her brothers were murdered, a third was sandal and strings tied in them, and drowned, her sister's husband was killed then fastened over the top of the foot. in the war, her own husband fell dead in It is evident that their feet are wet the his chair, and, finally, her only son was moment that they step into mud or a victim of a railroad disaster. A water over an inch in depth. This they thanksgiving service was held on the are doing constantly in bad weather; same afternoon in Norfolk, Conn., for consequently, their feet are soaking wet the safe deliverance of over seventy for a week at a stretch, and yet they live members of the congregation who were and multiply. They violate every known on the train that was wrecked at Tariff-

> Hood used to tell a story of a hypoand yet their children are generally hondriac who was in the habit, two or sturdy looking, and the adults show fair three times a week, of believing himself average physique. They sleep in rows dying. On a certain cccasion he had one on a mat laid upon the floor of their unof his terrors while riding out in his gig. and happening to see his family physician he applied the whip to the house to overtake the old doctor. The doctor oplied the whip to his own horse, and they had a close time of it for about three miles. The hypochondriac finally came alongside the doctor and exclaimed "Hang it, doctor, pull ap ! Pall up instantly ! I am dying !" "I think you a wonderfully facile pen, was an orphan, are," cried the doctor; "1 never saw any one going so fast."

> > THE DINING-ROOM / GIRI Oh, sweetly-bashful maiden is the dining-room girl.

salary of $5,000 a year. But she was With her gold-brown bair and that aggravating cursed with a spirit of unrest and unenrl stability-constantly changing her local. She is sweeter than a French meringue, and ity, constantly falling in love and out. happy as a/clam,

With her "beef-steak-pork-steak-muttonderground huts. Sometimes the floor is generation. Our women now have no mawkish and morbid notions as to themselves; they no longer think that to be appear to suffer for want of oxygen .unhealthy is to be attractive; that invalidism and interestingness are synony-In an article on adventuresses, published in the Boston Bulletin, we find the following: One of these, who wielded the last of her race. She was graceful, beautiful, and a genius. At fifteen she plunged into literature, began writing serials for the Ledger before she was eighteen, and a year later was earning a fine and mixed with a little cracker sensible women are becoming, if they crumbs; about twice a week a piece of have not yet become, converts to nature, baker's bread dipped in sweet milk, and | and that they heed her behests, recog-covered with them, and yet they do not London Times. Career of an Adventuress.

law of hygiene in the ventilation and ville. often the cleanliness of their dwelling,

THIS PAGE CONTAINS FLAWS AND OTHER DEFECTS WHICH MAY APPEAR ON THE FILM