It is believed that more than two hundred persons have been frozen to death, and the bodies of many of them will not be found until spring. Here is a single instance of multitudes reported :

A gentleman from Blue Earth county tells of an instance where, in driving along after the storm, team of horses was noticed a little off the beaten track, and on exami nation the horses were found frozen stiff, standing on their feet, and looking perfectly life-like. Sitting on the seat in an erect position, with the reins in his band, was the driver, dead, and in the bottom of the sleigh, covered up with blankets and straw, were the bodies of seven persons, all dead.
